

TRADITIONAL ANGLICAN ROSARY PRAYER

In the Traditional Prayer for the Anglican Rosary, the Lord's Prayer is recited with the Cruciform Beads as it is considered to be the foundational prayer that Jesus taught to his disciples. It is a prayer that is grounded in a deep reverence for God the Father and seeks his guidance and provision for our daily needs.

After reciting the Lord's Prayer, the Jesus Prayer is then often repeated on the Weeks Beads as a form of contemplative prayer that focuses on the name of Jesus and his role as our Savior.

This Traditional prayer may be recited while using Anglican prayer beads or used as a daily devotional. For additional information, check our guide on how to pray the Anglican rosary.

The Cross

O God, make speed to save us.

O Lord, make haste to help us.

The Invitatory Bead

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:

As it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Cruciform Beads

(The Lord's Prayer)

Our Father, which art in heaven,

Hallowed be thy name,

thy kingdom come,

thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the Kingdom,

and the power, and the glory,

forever and ever. Amen.

The Week Beads

(The Jesus Prayer)

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner.

The Last Cruciform Bead

The Lord bless you and keep you.

The Lord make his face to shine upon you and be gracious to you.

The Lord lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace. Amen.

The Dismissal Bead

(Invitatory Bead)

Let us bless the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Cross

The almighty and merciful Lord, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, bless us and keep us. Amen

In Closing

The Traditional Prayer serves as a reminder of the central tenets of the Christian faith and helps believers to connect with God in a meaningful and deeply spiritual way.
