FaithQuest is Emmanuel's Christian formation program for children ages pre-K through 5th grade. The curriculum and dedicated group of FaithQuest teachers provide our children with engaging activities and lessons each Sunday to further their understanding and perspectives of our faith. Classes meet in conjunction with the school year from September through May.

Emmanuel's 2010-2011 FaithQuest classes begin at 10:15 a.m. and can be found in these locations:

First Grade meets in the Godly Play Room on the 2nd floor of the new building between the conference rooms.

Second through Fifth Grades begin their journey in the new Cozy Corner on the 2nd floor of the new building.

Registration: Parents can register their children before class online at

From the Curate: Welcoming The Center for the Eucharist

A few weeks ago I wrote a short article on practicing hospitality, and encouraged us to consider what forms our hospitality might take if we pattern it on the hospitality God models in the Incarnation, when the Word became flesh and dwelt among us.

One way we practice hospitality at Emmanuel is to welcome “outside” groups to use our facilities. We have had numerous organizations meet here over the years, some religious in nature and some not. Some are here for a set period of time, like the Lewis and Clark Summer Institute. Some have long-term, ongoing programs that meet here, like the various recovery and support groups that use our downstairs community room.

Recently Emmanuel also extended building space and hospitality to a new venture called the Center for the Eucharist. The Center’s director, the Rev. Ralph McMichael, Ph.D., now has an office established in one of the third-floor rooms in Jones Hall. Fr. McMichael has been an Episcopal priest for 28 years, having served as a parish priest, a seminary professor (at Nashotah House), and, most recently, as Dean of the Episcopal School for Ministry and Canon for Ministry Formation in our diocese. Some of you might remember Fr. McMichael from an Adult Forum presentation he led last spring on Eucharistic spirituality. I was privileged to serve as a reader for the manuscript of his most recent book, entitled The Eucharist: A Guide for the Perplexed, which was published this summer.

If you’re interested in learning more about the Center, I would encourage you to visit their website, www.eucharistcenter.org. The mission of the Center focuses on “the transformation and renewal of all dimensions of the Christian church, life, and faith...by developing and fostering leadership, teaching, and practices that reflect and fulfill the comprehensive vision bestowed on followers of Jesus within the Celebration of the Eucharist.”

In other words, the Center’s purpose is to remind churches and individuals that the center of our faith is the Eucharist, and then to challenge, encourage, according to that starting point through offering workshops, curricula.

“...all Christians are called to return in remembrance and beckoned forward in expectation by the Lord’s command: ‘Do this in remembrance of me.’” and equip us to live out our faith and with that focus. It will do so conferences, retreats, and various

This first such conference, Re-centering from the Center, will be held here at Emmanuel on October 18-20. Members of the parish may attend at no cost; the best way to register is to contact Fr. McMichael directly: call 314-238-6209 or email EucharistCenter@gmail.com

In his blog on the Center’s website, Fr. McMichael offers regular reflections on the theme of Eucharistic renewal and transformation. In a post entitled “Why the Center for the Eucharist?” he ultimately gives this answer: “Because every generation of the church and all Christians are called to return in remembrance and beckoned forward in expectation by the Lord’s command: ‘Do this in remembrance of me.’”

I am grateful for the work of the Center and happy that our parish is able to offer hospitality to it in the form of building space and a welcoming environment. As a member of the Center’s Board of Directors, I am also happy to speak to anyone with questions about the Center and its mission. I believe it will be an enriching, even life-giving gift to the Church and to the world.

Blessings,
Pamela+

We Give Thanks

Members of the parish have been very generous with their help to the Food Center. After our request last month, the people of Emmanuel responded with checks and food items which kept us with stocked pantry shelves for the month.

The Food Center is facing a difficult time. When the client list was counted on September 10, there was one more person who received food in the first ten days of September than received food during the entire month of July.

Except for one or two walk-ins a month, all of the Food Center clients come from agencies or the clergy. Most of the clients live in the 63119 zip code.

The next time you are at the grocery store and look at your receipt, think what you would have to pay if you bought food for 108 people the first ten days of September.

The Emmanuel Emergency Food Center would not survive without your help.

Three Men and ...

There was no truck on hand to help three of Emmanuel's finest as they achieved the nearly impossible feat of clearing Rehkopf Hall of materials that had accumulated during building renovation and space reassignments over the past several years.

Matt Keefer, Karl Reif and Andy Ruhlin spent a good part of their Labor Day holiday laboring on behalf of the parish and the results are a refreshing, organized space for Emmanuel's music program and other activities. On behalf of the choirs and the parish, "Thanks, guys!!"

Thank You Acolytes

Heartfelt thanks to the following graduating acolytes for their years of dedicated support in helping to make our worship services at Emmanuel meaningful. We wish them all the best in their future endeavors and hope they will continue to join us on Sunday mornings when they are able.

Party of One?

It's difficult and no fun at all to cook a Thanksgiving feast for one or two people. Quite a few of us are in the position of not having extended family in the region. Others of us just hate to cook. The Caring Committee has come up with an idea.

Suppose those of us without a family group prepared Thanksgiving dinner in the Dining Room at Emmanuel. So as to not be too self-serving, let's also invite foreign students and others who are here at Eden and Webster, who may be in the dorms alone. A small group can prepare turkey and the basics, and Emmanuelites can bring a favorite dish. There would, of course, be no charge to anyone. We can set-up and clean-up family-style. The meal would be served about 4:00 pm on Thanksgiving Day itself. Football games will also be available that afternoon.

Tell Peg Cooper, Deacon Burnell, or any member of the Caring Committee if you would like to be in on the initial planning. We will need people to attend, drop off a sidedish, help communicate with Eden and Webster, provide rides, cook, shop, and other things we haven't thought of yet. There will be an announcement of planning meetings soon.

Adult Forum: Ourselves, Our Parish, Our Church, Our World

The Adult Forum will continue to look at issues that affect us as individuals, as Episcopalians, and as God's hands and feet in the world. On September 26, Dan Appleyard will lead an informational presentation and discussion about issues currently facing the Episcopal Church and Anglican Communion. Our denomination has been much in the news over the past months and Dan will help sort out what's going on.

On October 3, we turn inward and continue exploring self-image, especially of children and women. "Healthy Eating in a Spiritual Context" will be the topic at the Oct. 3 Adult Forum. We will welcome Dr. Randy Flanery, a clinical psychologist who works with patients at McCallum Place. Did you know that this internationally acclaimed program for the treatment of eating disorders is located in Webster Groves? Following that, mission is the focus on October 10. The Junior High will give a presentation about their mission trip to Moundridge near Steelville, Missouri and the Environmental Committee will continue to help us learn more about what we can do to be good stewards of God's creation.

The Adult Forum steering committee is expanding its scope and will begin to offer small group study opportunities at different times of the week. The first of these is the Inquirer's Class that begins on September 26 following the 10:30 service. Lunch and child care are available; please sign up to indicate your interest. Look for more information about future courses in the next Angelus.

Emmanuel Women's Book Club

Monday night, September 27 at 7:00 pm., Emmanuel Women's Book Club will resume our fall schedule with John MacArthur's controversial book Twelve Extraordinary Women. Even if you have not read this book, you will surely enjoy hearing the lively reaction of Episcopal women who find it hard to accept most of what MacArthur writes! We will meet in one of the new Parish Hall meeting rooms....signs will be posted so you can find us. Light refreshments will be served, as usual.

Coming up on October 25, we will take on historical-fiction, Biblical style, with Elissa Elliotts' Eve: A Novel of the First Woman. Elliott imagines the story of Adam and Eve as told by Eve and her daughters: Naava, the beautiful weaver; Aya, the quick-witted, club-footed cook; and Dara, the compassionate observant twin. Eve recounts "The Fall" and how she and Adam wandered until settling down to grow crops, raise livestock, and start a garden of their own. The novel departs from lushly imagined story telling and thrusts the family into the unfamiliar territory of meeting city dwellers. Elliott makes biblical fiction her own with a female perspective that emphasizes emotional turmoil, sensual experience, and an impressive range of imagery that brings to life Biblical daily life. (Excerpted from Publishers' Weekly Review.)

New paperback copies can be ordered from Puddn'head Books (918-1069) and the Webster Groves Book Shop (968-1185)...NO SHIPPING CHARGES! Used copies are available on Amazon.com (as little as 16 CENTS, plus shipping) and there are several copies available through the Webster Groves and St. Louis County Library systems.

Remember, we are not a closed group and and to invite friends, family, or other our fellowship. Questions? Contact Ann ARMcR@arm-mra.com welcome newcomers! Feel free to join us, Emmanuelites to come with you and share McReynolds at 314-960-0560 or

About the Parish Family

We are saddened by the September 8 death of long-time parishioner, Dr. Grant Izmirlan and we extend our sympathy to his wife, Marion, and the entire family. The Burial Office was celebrated at Emmanuel on Saturday, September 11. Dr. Izmirlan's practice of family medicine spanned thirty years. He was a fifty year member of the American Academy of Family Physicians and the St. Louis County Medical Society serving as president of both organizations.

The parish extends its sympathy to Jerre and Megan Birdsong, Nancy Turner, and their family on the September 9 death of wife and mother, Gayle Birdsong. The Burial Office was celebrated at Webster Hills Methodist Church on Saturday, September 18, preceded by her interment in the Emmanuel Church Memorial Garden. Gayle valiantly fought a brain tumor for almost two years and accomplished more good in those two years than most of us ever do.

The sympathy of the parish is extended to Anne Crown and her family on the death in Germany of her cousin Tuula Kunz.

The parish also extends its sympathy to the family of Dolores Schulze, who died on September 19. At press time, a service was being planned for Thursday, September 23, at Christ Church Cathedral.

May light perpetual shine upon them.

Congratulations to Pamela Dolan. Earth Ministry in Seattle chose one of her blog posts to reprint in their fall publication of Earth Letter, which they call a "quarterly mini-journal of Christian environmental spirituality" (see www.earthministry.org). The post, entitled "Oil Spill Demands Communal Response and Repentance," was written this summer after the BP Oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico. It can be found online at <http://interact.stltoday.com/blogzone/civil-religion/dolan>.

The Emmanuel Church Foundation is grateful for gifts in memory of Liz Burst and Diana Knapp, and in celebration of Dave Loyet & Sara Canavan's marriage, and Paul & Dyanne Kirk's 40th wedding anniversary.

The Food Center is grateful for gifts in memory of Liz Burst and Gayle Birdsong, and in celebration of Paul & Sue Hooker's 50th wedding anniversary.

Celebrate St. Francis with a Blessing of the Animals on October 3

Calling all Emmanuel Dogs, Cats, Turtles, Parakeets, Goldfish, Hamsters, Pot Bellied Pigs . . .

On Sunday, October 3, we will include a Blessing of the Animals at our 5:30 p.m. service. We will hold the service on Jones Hall lawn, weather permitting (we'll move to the dining room if necessary).

The Blessing of the Animals is an opportunity to express gratitude for the joy and comfort God's creatures bring into our lives. This is an excellent opportunity to help teach our children about the wonders of God's creation and engage them in a special, kid-friendly ceremony.

All animal friends – whether furry, scaly, slimy, or feathery, are invited to join us. Please remember to have your pet properly restrained to avoid any accidental mishaps between God's creatures!

"How many are your works, O Lord! In wisdom you made them all; the earth is full of your creatures."
(Psalm 104:24)

Sign up Now for Baptismal Instruction on Tuesday, October 12

Tuesday, October 12 will be Emmanuel's next baptismal preparation session. If you plan to attend, please contact Susie Feldmann in the parish office by Monday, October 4 (961-2393). Please be sure to let us know if you will be needing child care.

At least one parent must attend an evening session before their child can be baptized at Emmanuel.

Grandparents are also invited, and Godparents are strongly encouraged to attend. You do not have to set a baptismal date to come to a session. If you are pregnant or still deciding about baptizing your child here, please come to one of these sessions. They are a wonderful opportunity to learn more about baptism and to explore raising your child as a Christian, as well as a chance to get to know other parents in the parish.

The preparation sessions begin with dinner at 6:00 p.m. Child care will be available upon request; sessions run about 2½ hours. You need not attend the session closest to your child's baptismal date, just choose one that works with your schedule and is prior to the day you want to have your child baptized.

If you are interested in baptism for an adult or older child, please contact the Rev. Pamela Dolan.

Upcoming baptismal dates are: October 24 at 10:30 a.m., November 7 at 9:00 a.m. and December 26 at 9:00 a.m.

If you are interested in baptism for an adult or older child, please contact the Rev. Dan Appleyard or Rev. Pamela Dolan.

The prayers of the parish are requested for:

Because the prayer list is so large, we are only able to print half of it in each Angelus. PLEASE be assured that if you have put someone on the Intercessory Prayer list, everyone will continue to be prayed for daily by name.

PLEASE keep the office updated on the progress of those you have placed on this list in order that our list remains timely.
