From the Priest-in-Charge Lent: A Rich Meal to Digest

During the last week of January, about twenty of us gathered in our dining for two days of lectures and conversation during the Trinity Institute. The focus was Building an Ethical Economy, Theology and the Marketplace. During our time together, we listened to the Archbishop of Canterbury, economists and theologians and took breaks for what is called Theological Reflection. During one of those breaks, someone ask me, “Why do Theological Reflection?” I have thinking about it ever since. “Why do Theological Reflection?”

My first response to the question was that such times of reflection after each lecture is like our digestive system. We don’t eat all three meals for the day and then begin to digest them; it is possible to do that, I guess, but at best it would be mighty uncomfortable. Instead, like digestion, reflection is a process that is always taking place to some degree, and it is best done incrementally. Reflection is how we digest the information—intellectual, emotional, and spiritual—that we sense and receive. And, curiously, like digestion, it improves and is enjoyed more when done in the company of other friends. Eating alone creates isolation. Reflecting alone leads to narcissism. By and large, we are communal animals. We eat best, live best and reflect best in the company of others.

As I thought about this more, I realized that this is what Lent is all about. Lent may be a time to give up things. Lent may be a time to take on things. Lent, as the Book of Common Prayer states, may be a Holy time of “self-examination and repentance . . . of prayer, fasting and self denial . . . and of reading and reflecting on God’s holy Word.” But, Lent is not to be done in isolation. Lent is meant to be done in the company of others! In fact, Lent can be a feast of reflection with each other in community!

As you have seen in our various publications, Lent 2010 is offering to you and to me some wonderful opportunities – a rich meal to digest, to reflect upon together. In a number of different settings, we are being offered intellectual, emotional, and spiritual feasts that can enrich our lives as a community and as individuals. I hope you create a Lent for yourselves that will be challenging and satisfying!

Peace,

Daniel+

Lenten Alms Update

This year’s Lenten Alms have been designated for Episcopal City Mission, a chaplaincy program for children and youth in detention. As of the date of this publication, our Lenten Alms total $1,169

2010 All Parish Conference Update

Many of you are aware that the Chairs and Co-Chairs for the 2010 All-Parish Conference (APC) together with the Clergy and Executive Committee of the Vestry met to discuss the fate of this year's APC.

Attendance has been dwindling for the past several years, and the cost is quite expensive for a weekend outing. After much discernment and looking at many options, a unanimous decision was made to bring this year's APC home to Webster Groves and to hopefully bring the ALL back to the APC. In addition, we plan to combine the APC with the New Building Celebration. Fun!

The decision was not easy. We have had a 40-year tradition (with a couple of interruptions) of going to Potosi and the Trout Lodge offers great ambiance and amenities. For the people that have attended, fond memories will be with them forever. Life-lasting friendships were formed. People fell in love. But an All-Parish Conference should have 200-300 attendees (as we have had in the past)--not the 35 or so that signed for this year. Our APC needs to be re-tooled so more people can share the experience.

I look at the decision as a very positive opportunity for us to come together as a community and to celebrate the wonderful new addition to our Church Home. The 2010 APC Chairs (Anne and Duane Benson) together with their Co-Chairs (Tammy Free and Matthew Keefer) will begin planning the weekend at an All Parish Conference planning meeting on Sunday, March 14, following the 10:30 service and Adult Forum (about 11:30 a.m.) As with all successful APC's, the more support and help in pulling the weekend together, the better! Please attend this planning meeting or reach out to the Chairs if you would like to be a part of the festivities.

In addition, a task force will be formed this Summer to develop a go-forward plan for our APCs. Please let me know if you would like to be a part of that team.

May 14-16 is the new weekend for this year's APC---more details to follow shortly...but please plan to join if some or all of the weekend fun.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Peace,

Clark Hotaling
Senior Warden

Consider a Lenten Discipline of Environmental Stewardship

Lent offers the opportunity to reflect on the incredible gift of God's Creation and our responsibility to maintain and protect it for future generations. Check out the Lenten Carbon Fast 2010 calendar available on the Environmental Stewardship bulletin board in the dining room. The Environmental Outreach Committee of the Archdiocese of Washington has compiled 40 actions each of us could take in an effort to be wise stewards of our world. You can find it on Emmanuel's website or at http://www.clrinsw.org/current/soc\_just/sj\_100202.pdf

Haiti Relief Efforts Continue with a Quilt Raffle for Haiti

The Emmanuel Missions Committee and Rosebud Mission/Diocese of South Dakota are sponsoring a Lenten quilt raffle to benefit

Haitian recovery and renewal efforts through Episcopal Relief and Development.

A Lakota star quilt, created by a fabric artist on the reservation, has been donated for this use and will be available to ONE lucky winner – maybe YOU! Look for pictures in the dining room and in the Lenten edition of “Reaching Out”.

Chances are $5.00 each or 6 for $25.00. Tickets will go on sale the first Sunday in Lent (February 21) and continue to be available through Lent. A winner will be selected on Palm Sunday, March 28.

100% of the proceeds will be directed to ERD Haitian efforts.

This is a wonderful way for Emmanuel to strengthen our partnership with our brothers and sisters on the reservation as well as showing solidarity with the Haitian people.

Take a chance (or two, or ten!) You can't win if you don't play!

Adult Christian Formation in March

Sunday mornings: Spirituality for the New Millennium

During Lent, Adult Forum is exploring some of the ways that people in our church and community are returning to ancient practices and finding new life in them. We'll consider how it really is possible to be both spiritual and religious, and we hope to hear from you about whether any of these practices resonate in your own life. You might even come away with an idea for a new habit you'd like to develop, in Lent and beyond. Join us in the dining room at 10:15 a.m. for coffee & refreshments, followed by great presentations and time for discussion.

Upcoming topics include:

March 7: Ignatian Spirituality

The "Spiritual Exercises" of St. Ignatius of Loyola were composed with the intention of helping a person discern God's will in his life and leading to a personal commitment to follow it. They are a brief set of meditations, prayers and mental exercises divided in four thematic "weeks" designed to be carried out over a period of 28-30 days. Given Emmanuel's core value to be "Bold in Mission" and with 4 weeks remaining in Lent, now is the perfect time to join Fr. John Craig, S.J. in learning about Ignatian spirituality at Adult Forum.

March 14: Labyrinths: A Walking Meditation

People of many faiths are rediscovering the power of the labyrinth to serve as a meditation tool and even a mystical, transformative prayer experience. Labyrinths have deep roots in medieval Christianity and yet they can reach people today even in the midst of our busy, complex, postmodern lives. Penny Allen will lead us in a consideration of the history of labyrinths as spiritual tools, some of their current uses in our society (including in churches) and some different ways to experience the labyrinth.

March 21: Eucharistic Living

We welcome the Rev. Ralph McMichael for a presentation about the spirituality of the Eucharist and how it can shape your everyday life. Fr. McMichael is the Dean of the Episcopal School for Ministry and has taught at Nashotah House and the Aquinas Institute. His upcoming book, entitled Eucharist: A Guide for the Perplexed, will be published this summer; it analyses the complexities and perplexities raised by asking the question: What is the Eucharist?

Tuesday evenings: "Creative Christianity—Faith and the Arts"

Join us in the dining room for a potluck supper at 6:00, followed by great presentations and time for discussion.

Upcoming topics include:

March 9: Poetry and Music: Expressions of the Soul

Ludwig van Beethoven wrote that, "Music is the mediator between the spiritual and the sensual life." Music can lift our spirits, provide consolation and is our companion in joy or in grief. Author Berthold Auerbach said that, "Music washes away from the soul the dust of everyday life." Poetry does much the same thing; it sparks imagination, inspires moments of joy or sadness, and informs our intellect and sensibilities. Robert Penn Warren wrote, "The poem is not a thing we see; it is, rather, a light by which we may see - and what we see is life." On March 9, members of the Emmanuel community will gather to share an evening of instrumental and vocal music, poetry and meditation designed to let creativity shine its light on our lives: our joys, sorrows, challenges, frivolities and, of course, God's profound love for each of us.

March 16: Theatre: The forge, Fr. John Craig, S.J.

Fr. Jack Warner, SJ founded Teatro la fragua in Honduras in 1979. Drawing on his belief that "art and religion spring from the same human roots . . . our need to be in touch with something beyond the littleness we feel as human beings," Fr. Warner wanted to awaken the creativity of the people of this impoverished and oppressed area by means of the theatre. Using stories from the Bible and local folklore, La Fragua (the forge) both entertained its audiences and inspired them to "forge" these solutions and contribute to the development of a Honduran and Central American culture. From early performances in both urban and rural areas, sometimes surrounded by armed Contras, Teatro has grown to offer workshops in Honduras, El Salvador, Nicaragua, Guatemala, Costa Rica, Aruba and Belize, as well as running a school that includes theatre and dance training. Fr. John Craig, SJ, head of the Fine Arts Department at DeSmet Jesuit High School and long-time friend and associate of Fr. Warner, will join us to view the film "Teatro" and help us discuss theatre as a force for spiritual and community empowerment.

Women's Book Club

Emmanuel's Women's Book Club meets Monday night, March 22, at 7:00 in the parish hall Dining Room for fellowship, light refreshments, and fun discussion about Thomas Cahill's thought-provoking book, "The Gifts of the Jews." Get started on it now....you'll find it fascinating! Please feel free to invite friends, family, or other Emmanuel Women to come with you! Questions? Call Ann McReynolds at 960-0560.

Trivia Night on Eve of Kentucky Derby

The Annual Men of Emmanuel Trivia Night will be held Friday, April 30, at church. Doors open at 6:30 and the games begin at 7:00 p.m. Silent auction items are now being solicited. Call Jim Groetsch at 961-6390 if you have items to donate. Suggested items are: hosting a gourmet dinner, sports tickets, a round of golf, food baskets, wine baskets (baskets of any kind), or anything suitable to raise money to support outreach. Tickets are $20 and are on sale now! Proceeds benefit outreach and mission of Emmanuel Church.

Preparing for Baptism at Emmanuel

Wednesday, March 24, will be Emmanuel's next baptismal preparation session. There won't be another session until May 18, so if you'd like your child baptized before then, be sure to register for the March class. If you plan to attend, please contact Susie Feldmann in the parish office by Monday, March 15 (961-2393).

At least one parent must attend an evening session before their child can be baptized at Emmanuel. Grandparents are also invited, and Godparents are strongly encouraged to attend. You do not have to set a baptismal date to come to a session. If you are pregnant or still deciding about baptizing your child here, please come to one of these sessions. They are a wonderful opportunity to learn more about baptism and to explore raising your child as a Christian, as well as a chance to get to know other parents in the parish.

The preparation sessions begin with dinner at 6:00 p.m. Childcare will be available. Sessions run about 2½ hours. You need not attend the session closest to your child's baptismal date, just choose one that works with your schedule and is prior to the day you want to have your child baptized. Upcoming baptismal dates are: the Great Vigil of Easter on Saturday, April 3 at 7:30 p.m., Sunday, April 11 at 10:00 a.m., April 18 at 10:30 a.m., May 23 (Pentecost) at 10:00 a.m. and June 20 at 10:00 a.m.

Mardi Gras Celebration a huge success thanks to all of you!!!

Emmanuel does it again – Mardi Gras was a huge success in so many ways:

- * We played to a sell-out crowd.
- * The program was one of the longest in memory, which speaks to how many Emmanuelites wanted to perform and share their talents.
- * We had over 70 volunteers participating in the skits, over 20 in the crews that handled all the backstage areas, tickets or publicity, many Men of Emmanuel manning the bars, a food crew of 20 working tirelessly over a 2 day period to provide the excellent meal and a dozen or so decorators that transformed our dining room into a Mardi Gras themed destination place.
- * We brought back the tradition of a "King or Queen of Mardi Gras" and Judd Holt was crowned King of Mardi Gras for 2010.
- * Best of all, we will be donating somewhere between $1,000 and $1,500 dollars to this year's Adult Mission Trip to Redbud. We are still tallying up expenses as this goes to press, so we don't have an exact figure.

So to borrow Sarah Palin's words, we'd like to give a "shout out" to all of you who participated in Mardi Gras – "Thank you, Thank you for helping to make this year's Mardi Gras a huge success".

Also, Michael Murphy took over 350 professional photographs during Mardi Gras. They are ready for viewing and purchasing at this website: <http://snipurl.com/ud0qz> Proceeds from the sale of these pictures will also be donated to the Adult Mission Trip. There are many excellent photos to choose from.

We wish Jessica and her husband, Eric, hearty congratulations on their upcoming arrival and thanks for all her hard work with the children this year. ## FaithQuest News: "Hurray for God!" and "The Story of Jacob"

FaithQuest had a wonderful last Sunday of Epiphany. Our Family Worship service was a rousing success, as usual. Every grade level participated in leading worship; highlights included a great "Hooray for God" prayer from the Kindergarten class (who also gave a beautiful, "heartfelt" response to the Old Testament reading), a wonderful presentation about shining with God's grace and love from the 4th and 5th grade class, and a rousing multi-grade rendition of "This Little Light of Mine." The 1st through 3rd grade class contributed their artwork to the bulletins and were responsible and friendly greeters in the narthex. It added immeasurably to the meaning of the morning that the children were able to witness and celebrate the baptism of Marjorie Joy Brueggeman. After the service more than 60 of us gathered in the dining room for food, fun, and fellowship. Special thanks to Victoria Hudson, Jennifer Marcus, Katie Kopff, Tricia Copeland, Deacon Burnell, Diana Beckman, Dave Buck and all the FaithQuest teachers, parents, and children who made it such a special morning.

We are marking Lent with a special Communion class for kindergarteners and their parents; if you didn't get a handout about it from Teacher Diana, be sure to check in with her on Sunday (or give me a call and I can fill you in.) Our older kids will be learning about the season of Lent, with a special focus on the topic of forgiveness, as learned through the story of the Old Testament figure of Jacob. Families who want to attend our Tuesday night series should feel free to bring the kids along; children under 5 will be cared for in the nursery, while special videos and activities for school-aged children will be offered in the Blue Room.

2010 Vacation Bible School

Our annual Vacation Bible School is scheduled for June 28 through July 2. More information is coming soon, but be sure to mark your calendars and think about how you can get involved. We'll be sharing leadership with our friends at Christ Lutheran church again this year, and we're planning for a fun and faith-filled week for kids ages 4 through 5th grade. Contact the Rev. Pamela Dolan with questions or to get involved!
