Celebrating Our Ministry in the Diocese of Lui: From Deep-Water Wells to Education

For the last four years, the money raised from the Little White Churches passed among you by our children at the 9:00 a.m. service on Sunday morning has been used to fund deep-water wells in our companion Diocese of Lui. By the end of 2009, Emmanuel and other parishes in the Diocese had funded nine fresh-water wells. Prior to this, women in Lui had to walk as much as seven miles to get water – in the dry season often literally scooping water from a trench dug fifteen feet down in the riverbed, cup by cup. These fresh water wells have brought many, many benefits to our friends in Lui, greatly improving the quality of life and making an enormous difference to the people of Lui – so much of a difference that we are now able to focus our efforts on a new goal: education.

On Easter Sunday we celebrated the accomplishment of providing fresh water for our brothers and sisters in Lui. At both the 9:00 and 11:00 a.m. services during the Offertory, a number of our children brought to the altar containers of fresh water representing the fruit of their labors and the commitment of the parish over the past four years; and our wardens read a celebratory statement. It was also announced that going forward, the money collected in the Little White Churches passed by our children at the 9:00 service will help fund educational needs in Lui, including agricultural training. This effort will tie in with our own parish's effort to have a community garden that serves our Food Center clients.

The first endeavor of this new focus on education will be to provide funds for two people from Lui to travel to the town of Yei to receive training in more advanced agricultural methods. Funds will then be used to gather people from around the Diocese of Lui so that they can receive training from those who went to Yei. So as you see our children each Sunday passing the Little White Churches, remember our brothers and sisters in Lui and the bonds that unite us.

—Jerry Cooper, Missions Committee Chairperson

Environmental Stewardship Committee Update

The Environmental Stewardship Committee has launched a Google group website to help with communication within the committee and also to provide information and resources to others who are interested. You can find it at <http://groups.google.com/group/eesc>. There are two ways to use the website: as a participating member or as an observer of the site. Members are able to share information with one another, and observers can read the shared information, including meeting minutes, upcoming events, environmental information and discussion.

Emmanuel's Garden at Webster-Rock Hill has begun! Thanks to the leadership of Tracy Crews, plans for a bountiful harvest are underway. Look for sign-up sheets beginning in April at church on Sunday mornings to help. If you don't know how to garden, this is a wonderful way to learn. Come join the fun!

From the Priest-in-Charge: Stewardship of Creation

Dear Friends,

I remember the first time that I went to a church conference in the mid-eighties that focused on ecology. When I mentioned it to a parishioner at the time, he said the Church had no business getting into ecology and environmentalism. Instead, he thought that there was more than enough for the Church to do if it just stuck to “saving souls.”

As I write this, the smell of Easter morning’s flowers are in the air, and the 40th Anniversary of Earth Day just a few weeks away. Contrary to my parishioner’s opinion, over the past 30 years ecology and our stewardship of the environment has taken on significant meaning for the church, through the lens of Jesus’ resurrection.

In earliest Christian literature resurrection remained a mystery. It wasn’t understood simply literally. Yes, the risen Jesus eats fish, but then he also goes through a closed door with no difficulty. All the descriptions in scripture point to a mystery whose reality lies beyond the reach of language, even metaphorical language. Jesus’ resurrection did not catapult his followers out of this world into some remote spiritual realm. Instead, it catapulted them directly into this world, for it is here within God’s creation that the power of the resurrection was at work. Some of this is articulated by Paul in his letter to the Romans (8:18-39), when he says that the power of the resurrection is not only know among us but also throughout the whole creation. The One who died and was raised not only “intercedes for us,” but also permeates the cosmos with “the love of God” -- so much so, that separation from God’s love has become impossible for all of creation.

In the 1997 Episcopal Hymnal “Wonder, Love and Praise,” (one of our four official Hymnals, with more to come), Hymn #739 contains the following words:

*“Walk on, O people of God!
A new law; God’s new alliance,
The creation is reborn!
Christ takes into his body all our sin, enslavement and pain;
As he destroys them, he brings us life abundance, life’s new joy.
Christ brings reconciliation to all things and people with God.
Nature bursts into new flowering; all creation is reborn.
Walk on, O people of God!”*

Christian environmental ethics is not a dispensable extracurricular activity for “saved” Christians. Instead, the lifestyles we chose affect not only us, but all the creatures we share this planet with; and how we live within the environment is a sign of whether or not we are on a “pilgrimage to new life,” or not. Even the root of the word “ecology,” which means “household” in English (and, curiously, is also the root for ecumenical), embraces this Christian perspective about our household’s relationship with creation. And not surprisingly, more and more, churches throughout the expanse of theological perspectives are realizing that the resurrected life that Jesus called us to is not a private Christian possession, but a household responsibility that is at work throughout the cosmos, including the Church. What happened at the crucifixion and at the first Easter was cosmic in scope. “The Christ event” binds us to the creation, for which the resurrection took place.

This Easter season take the time to look at your life and how you are living out your relationship to the household of our planet, Earth. For the resurrection influences the entire spectrum of our ethical decision-making, including environmental ethics and has far reaching effects for our ministries. “Christ brings reconciliation to all things and people with God. Nature bursts into new flowering; all creation is reborn! Walk on, O people of God; Walk on, O people of God!”

Faithfully Yours, —Daniel

APC* is Back!

Games, fellowship and fine food -- just like a typical APC*. And it's free!

Let's see who can clean the most air ducts in the dining room, make a stone path to the new tool shed in back of the kitchen, get that library in shape. And how about all those light fixtures and dirty chairs. Now doesn't that sound like fun?

We'll start at 8:00 a.m. and work until after lunch on Saturday, April 10. There's a sign-up sheet in the dining room so we'll know how much filet mignon** to order for lunch. Please use it.

*All Parish Clean-up

**Open to further discussion.

Hymn Sing at Emmanuel

There will be a "Hymn Sing" at Emmanuel on Tuesday evening, April 13, at 6:00 p.m.

This event is presented by the hymnology class at Webster University, and all of Emmanuel is invited to participate. The class consists of graduate and undergraduate students who are studying for degrees in organ performance or church music. This will be a great evening of singing some of our favorite hymns for the Easter season, so plan to join us!

United Thank Offering Spring Ingathering – Sunday, May 9

Which of God's blessings are you thankful for today... this week... this month... this spring? Your gifts of thanksgiving – coins and bills dropped into your UTO box or envelopes, support grants and ministries at home and overseas as an outreach of the Episcopal Church.

Emmanuel's spring UTO ingathering will take place Sunday, May 9, at all services. Blue UTO boxes and envelopes can be found in the narthex now and will be available through the month of May. For more information, contact Emmanuel's UTO coordinator, Edythe Pangle, at 968-1849.

CPR CLASS!

A CPR class will be offered on Saturday, April 24, from 9:00 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. at the Webster Groves Fire Department (Elm and Lockwood, near the City Hall; parking available at First Congregational Church across the street.) The class will cover the essentials of CPR and also how to use our AED –Automated External Defibrillator.

The cost for the class will be $25 ($10 less than last year!) All Narthex persons and Ushers are urged to take this class. Other members of the parish are welcome, on a "space available" basis. Please sign up on the sheet on the food center bulletin board or on the portable easel. Some scholarship help is available if the cost of the class is burdensome for those who need to take it. Please contact Susan Naylor for more information.

All Parish Conference 2010 May 14 to 16

This year our All Parish Conference (APC) will be held right here in Webster Groves! Some of the activities planned include a campfire, singing around the campfire, s'mores, lots of games, a run/walk on Saturday morning, a scavenger hunt, some spirituality activities, a wonderful BBQ for Saturday night . . . wow! Loads of fun activities for all ages so we can put the "ALL" back into our All Parish Conference. You can come for some or all of the fun! Please mark your calendar and watch for a specific list of activities with times included. We will be sending out a registration form around the middle of April for you to fill out and return so we can plan for everyone who wants to attend! Questions? Call or email Anne or Duane Benson (frecklefaceseven@yahoo.com) or Tammy Free or Matt Keefer (tsfree@rocketmail.com)

Men's Spring Social April 23

Since we had such a great time last December, the Men of Emmanuel decided to have a spring social at Llywellyn's again this spring on Friday, April 23, from 5:00 to 7:00 (PM, of course!) There is a sign-up sheet on the MOE bulletin board, but if you miss it, come on by any way. We'll start off with half-price drinks and the same for appetizers. (The big pretzels were not as popular as some of the other choices, so we'll go right to the good stuff!) We are negotiating with Tim Knox to see if his band can join us for the two hours. If you know for certain that you can make it, sign on the bulletin board or give Jim Groetsch a call, or email him. (He's not into texting yet but feels accomplished just to turn his cell phone on and off.) Jim: 314-961-6390 or 314-489-2638. Email is jgroetsch@earthlink.net. See ya there!

Emmanuel Nursery School Board Announces New Director

The Board of the Emmanuel Nursery School announces the appointment of Angela MacBryde as the fourth director since its founding in 1949. Angie is well known within the Emmanuel community through her work with children and her current term as a member of the Vestry. She is a FaithQuest Sunday School teacher at the church and has been an active parent within the nursery school itself. During Emmanuel Church's search for a Priest-in-Charge, she used her exceptional organizational and communication skills to become a leader for the search process, as well as an enthusiastic voice to keep the parish up-to-date. In her professional work Angie has actively managed community events and public relations for Wyman Center, Inc. and Voices for Children. Throughout her career she has emphasized bringing together people to develop programs for children. Angie succeeds JoAn MacBryde and Rita Rundquist, co-directors, in leading the school into its 61st year and in continuing the vision of the school which provides a caring, dynamic environment where play-based learning helps three, four, and five year-olds grow.

April Women's Book Club: Olive Kitteridge by Elizabeth Strout

At times stern, at other times patient, at times perceptive, at other times in sad denial, retired junior high math teacher Olive Kitteridge deplors the changes in her little Maine town and in the world at large, but she doesn't always recognize the changes in those around her. The 2009 Pulitzer Prize winning novel offers profound insights into the human condition...its conflicts, its tragedies and joys, and the endurance it requires. Check out the Book Club bulletin board in the Dining Room for a synopsis, review, and author's bio! You can also check out the other books we'll be reading over the next year.

Monday night, April 26, we'll meet at 7:00 in the parish hall Dining Room for fellowship, light refreshments, and discussion about this delightful book. We'll be ready to leave by about 8:30.

FYI – The book is available through the Webster Groves and St. Louis County Libraries, and (used or new) on Amazon.com. For personal service, call the Webster Groves Book Shop or Puddn'head Books and have them order a copy for you; it will be ready for pick-up in just a couple of days...no shipping!

Please note we are not a closed group! Invite friends, family, or other Emmanuel Women to come with you. Questions? Call Ann McReynolds at 960-0560.

Trivia Night Friday, April 30

Men of Emmanuel's annual Trivia Night will take place on Friday, April 30, the eve of the Kentucky Derby. Cost is $20 per person, and tables of eight will be $160. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. and the games begin at 7:00. Snacks and beverages will be provided, but bring your own snacks if you wish. (Some of the snacks that people have brought in the past have been spectacular!) Proceeds will benefit the mission and ministries supported by the parish, including education in Lui.

SILENT AUCTION DONATIONS ARE STILL NEEDED and so far include: Baseball tickets from three sources, a painting, treasured jewelry, wine basket, plant(s) from Rolling Ridge, meade basket (home brew), contributions from Webster's finest fast food feederies, backstage tour of the Rep, free round of golf, handcrafted end tables, dinner for eight with Warren and Mary Jane Crews. Other ideas for donations are: A pie for each season of the year, cookies per month or any other time period, pool party, weekend vacation, week-long vacation, hosting a dinner at home, tickets to a show (the Symphony, Muny, the Fox or any other venue), anything connected with an area museum (Missouri Botanical Garden, History Museum, Art Museum, or Science Center), gift certificates to any business of your choice. If you have some choice items at home that haven't been used, that may be OK.

(Whatever you or your spouse can contribute will be good, but please do remember that the Silent Auction is not a rummage sale.)

If you have experience contributing to silent auctions anywhere else and have a particular kind of donation to make or for any questions, call Jim Groetsch at 314-961-6390.

About the Parish Family

The parish mourns the death of long-time parishioner, Mary Jane McCarty, on March 23, in St. Louis. A funeral service was held at Emmanuel on Saturday, March 27, followed by interment in the Emmanuel Church Foundation Memorial Garden and a reception for family and friends in the dining room. The sympathy of the parish is extended to the family of Joan Wolf Blistain who died in Deerwood, MN, on March 14. Joan was a life-long member of Emmanuel; she was 83 years old. May the faithful departed rest in peace, and may light perpetual shine upon them.

Congratulations to James Jenkins and Emily Baker who were married on Saturday, March 27; Emily is the granddaughter of Phil and Sandy Baker.

The St. Louis Area Alumni Chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon will host a concert in tribute of the many years of service of Ann Nissing and Doris Diephouse to Mu Phi Epsilon on Sunday, April 18, 3:00 p.m. at First Congregational Church, Webster Groves. Featured performers will include Fern Black, Margaret Campbell, Gayle Friz, Jeanine Garesche, Darlene Lanser, Linda McNair, Jan Scott and Janet Spencer. Ann Nissing and Ms. Diephouse were both long-time members of Mu Phi Epsilon as well both long-time residents of Webster Groves. Ann served Mu Phi in a variety of capacities, including as a national officer. She is a long-time member of Emmanuel. In addition to honoring the service of these two women, this concert will help support new musicians through the local scholarship fund of the St. Louis Area Alumni Chapter.
