Special Schedule & Special Guest Speaker at the Adult Forum on October 17!

The Rev. Dr. Richard J. Jones will make a special presentation on Muslim/Christian relations at the Adult Forum on Sunday, October 17, following a combined service at 10:00 a.m.

Rev. Jones is the Chair of the American Friends of the Episcopal Church of Sudan and has visited Sudan on three occasions. He is currently Professor of Muslim-Christian Dialogue at the Washington Theological Consortium and former Professor of Mission and World Religions at Virginia Theological Seminary. He studied the Qur'an in Toronto with Mahmoud Ayoub (expert in Shi'ite Islam and Christian-Muslim relations, Temple University/Hartford Seminary) and Hadith interpretation in England with Muhammad Ibrahim Surty (Department of Theology and Religion, University of Birmingham (UK)).

Knowing of our diocese's involvement with the church in Lui, Sudan, Rev. Jones would like to focus on the differing views of Muslim-Christian relations, not just those of Africa and the United States, but the specific experiences of Christians and Muslims in northern and southern Sudan.

This is a unique opportunity for us to learn first-hand about the challenges facing our sister diocese in Lui and explore the broader topic of Muslim-Christian relations as well. We know you will give him a warm Emmanuel welcome.

Sunday, October 17, will be a time for all of Emmanuel to join for worship, education and fellowship. The 9:00 and 10:30 services will join together at 10:00 a.m. to view a presentation about our common life and stewardship journey during the service.

FaithQuest, Adult Forum, Sunday morning Bible Study, Rite 13 and J2A will all meet following the 10 o'clock service. The Inquirers' Class will meet at 11:45 a.m. as usual.

Please watch your announcement sheet for room assignments.

From the Priest-in-Charge

Dear Friends,

I'd like to share some "snippets" with you as we approach our Ingathering Sunday on October 31. My prayer is that they will assist you as you reflect on how you will respond to our Financial Commitment program with a pledge for the mission and ministry of Emmanuel Church in 2011.

Snippet #1 - Scarcity:

Scarcity is a powerful and recurrent biblical theme. That fact tells us that we and all of humanity have struggled with our perception of scarcity in our lives. The Hebrew Scriptures, the New Testament and the Gospels are filled with stories that reflect our tendency to say, "There isn't enough!" only to discover that God has poured out "manna to satisfy our hunger in the wilderness" and "turned water into wine." In a time of economic crisis, the message of scarcity has even a stronger grip on society and the church.

I recently read an article by Lynn Twist who wrote, "Scarcity is the chronic sense of inadequacy about life. It is the place from which we think and act and live in the world. It shapes the deepest sense we have about ourselves, and becomes the lens through which we experience life. In the mind-set of scarcity we find three central myths that have come to define our relationship with money and that block our access to more honest and fulfilling interactions with it: 1) There's not enough; 2) More is better; and 3) That's just the way it is." Too often the way the society around us, and the church, copes with this attitude is through fear, or even guilt.

Which leads me to Snippet #2... Fear or Guilt versus Humor:

I came across a hilarious article by the Rev. Steve Keplinger in The Episcopal Stewardship Network's (TENS) newsletter for September 2008, entitled "Tithe or Burn". In it, he describes a new "fake financial program" that his parish leadership inaugurated this year: The "Tithe or be Damned Campaign!" In his "faux letter" to the congregation he wrote:

"Though our Rector and entire Vestry reject such a theology as disgusting, crass, abhorrent and the opposite of the way we understand our relationship with God, we have decided that the only way that we can possibly make the budget this year is to convince you that you will spend eternity burning in the unquenchable fires of hell if you don't triple your pledge... It seems to work for Pat Robertson and Jerry Falwell, so why not us? So, as you prayerfully consider how you can best bring about the kingdom of God by offering to St. David's your time, talent and treasure, we would add one more motivating factor in you decision – FEAR! Pay up or prepare to pay God later... for all eternity!"

Humor has the capacity to liberate us from our fears and even our guilt! That's one of the reasons that I love the abundance of humor embedded in the character of our parish, and expressed in our October 2nd Fall Dinner.

Of course, the reason I take delight in this tongue-in-cheek "campaign" is that it represents the opposite of Emmanuel's theology of why we contribute money to the church. Like many of you, I believe that God has abundantly blessed all creation and us! Unlike the "Fear Campaign," our theology claims that creation is infused with the Creator's generosity and since we are made in God's image, so are we!!

So, the challenge we face in our faith journey is to create the habits – practice the ways – that can imitate the generosity and sense of abundance that Jesus shows us in his life. Or as Parker Palmer put it, ask the questions: "Is the life I am living the same as the life that wants to live in me?" Am I being true to myself? Am I giving the best of myself?" Like the rich young man in Mark 10, we all have something precious to offer to the world. Are we generously giving it in the best way that we might? Sharing our abundance may, as Jesus says, be impossible for mortals (read: for those who live in fear), but nothing is impossible for us with God at our side.

Snippet #3 – A metaphor, entitled “Hand in Glove”:

Hold up a glove.

The glove, by itself, does not pick up anything. It is limp, helpless.

Slide your hand into it.

The glove now has dexterity and power.

It has become a gifted, smart glove that can accomplish innumerable tasks.

Money is a glove through which the hand of human personality expresses itself.

The glove by itself is neither good nor bad.

The hand in the glove can take on either self-centered or self-giving characteristics.

It can either open to give or grasp in greed.

This Fall I ask you to embrace the Power of We. I pray that our hands will open in self giving generosity - with confidence in the abundance that God has given us, with the knowledge that each of us has the capacity to make a difference with dexterity and power, and that we can do so with the gift of humor which calms our fears.

Peace,
Daniel

Vestry Vitals

The Vestry met for their monthly meeting on Monday, September 19th, 2010. Vitals included:

Office Printing Equipment

Charlie Walch and John Mitchell presented their findings regarding Parish printing requirements, equipment options and outsourcing possibilities. Charlie and John had been asked by Dan to explore future printing options as our in house 'Risograph' had finally met its maker. They presented to the Vestry their analysis and recommendation that the Church purchase/lease a new Risograph to print bulletins, the Angelus and other large print jobs and develop a relationship with an outside print shop(s) for specialty print jobs. The Executive Committee is reviewing the financial considerations and we should be up and running in the very near future...giving our over-used copier a much needed rest.

Financials

Bill Florent reviewed both the Operation and the Behold Financials. While the operating budget is slightly ahead of plan through August, the Vestry is completing an analysis to see if pledge payments were 'moved up' in the payment schedule as a result of increased awareness of the planned budget deficit. If that is the case, work may be needed in the fourth quarter to fill the gap. Behold pledge payments are over 70% which is great as we are two years into the three year pledge period. Continued payment of pledges ahead of time will allow us to retire our 'Bridge Loan' earlier than anticipated and save on interest payments.

Building Dedication

Finishing touches are being put on the Bishop Visit and Building Dedication set for Sunday October 31st. Please be aware that the 9 and 10:30 services will be combined for a 10:00 a.m. service followed by a processional to the new Front Door for a brief dedication and reception for Bishop Smith.

Welcome Aboard

We are pleased to announce that as of October 1 Kathy Wright has joined Emmanuel as Parish Administrator on a full time, permanent basis. She is ready to take on the variety of challenges that come with serving an active parish, and brings many years of experience that will help get the job done. If you are here during the week, come upstairs and introduce yourself.

Vestry Vibes

I'm often on the go as a busy working mom of three young girls. While I look forward to Sundays as a time to more fully engage in worship, on a daily basis I tend to keep it simple. I've adopted author Anne Lamott's suggestion that there are two prayers everyone should know: "Help me, help me, help me" and "Thank you, thank you, thank you." As I considered what I might share in Vestry Vibes, my thoughts fell into these tried-and-true categories.

First, please "help." Opportunities abound to give of your time, talent and treasure. Consider joining that ministry area that has always tugged at your heartstrings, or where you know your God-given talents could be useful. Whether you have an extra hour or can share more time, I guarantee there's a parish member or group that needs additional help. And, make this the year that you "stretch" your treasure to have an even greater impact on our Stewardship Campaign. Did you know that it costs at least $2,000/day to keep our lights on, open our Food Pantry, equip our ministry groups, enrich our worship services with high-quality music, etc.? Every pledge counts.

And, "thank you," for the time, energy and love that already goes into countless ministries within the Emmanuel community and well beyond.

Our hands are at work every day knitting prayer shawls, organizing Parish Family Life events, and putting the finishing touches on our new building. We're preparing to lead or participate in Christian Education programs (FaithQuest, Rite 13, J2A and Adult Forum).

We're brainstorming about how to organize and afford our youth and adult mission trips. And, we're ministering to the myriad needs of all in our parish. There are few idle hands in the Emmanuel community as we strive to be the hands and feet of God in this world.

Opportunities Abound!

I believe each of us is blessed and fortunate to be part of this faith community. As we enter this new program year, let's continue to acknowledge God's presence by giving all that we can, as often as we can. The return on investment is guaranteed.

Emmanuel is grateful for gifts to a Special Fund in memory of Grant Izmirlian which will be used to purchase something special for the church.

Please Note:Emmanuelites, you may have noticed that we recently used outdated letterhead to send out the EMC letters to parishioners. Unfortunately we found ourselves with a challenging confluence of factors that left us with difficult choices to make. The new logo and its final details were still in process and we could not order new letterhead, bulletin covers, etc. A small print run for a minimal amount of letterhead is cost prohibitive. The letters needed to be mailed prior to the kick-off of the stewardship activities on October 2, so we chose to be economical and environmentally conscious, and use the existing letterhead.

In a more perfect scenario we would have been able to use the existing letterhead for a less important mailing. As the new logo is finalized, we will be incorporating it into the design of new pieces-including letterhead-while using up all of the old stock. Thank you for your understanding.

Young Adults to Guatemala

As a representative of a group of young adults from Emmanuel I want to share some plans in the making. Many in the group are Senior High Youth Group alumni, and we are planning to reunite for a mission trip next summer. Our participation in the Senior High Youth Group was one of the most rewarding experiences in our lives.

Through our service work, we were challenged physically, culturally, spiritually and emotionally. It gave us the opportunity to give of our time and ourselves to others who were working to improve their lives. We sometimes faced problems too complex and ingrained for us to solve. It was the intensity of these shared experiences that brought us together, and formed our strong friendships. When our time in the youth group ended, it left a vacuum in our lives. We are now coming together, not out of a righteous need to do good, but out of a genuine love of the work, the experiences, and the shared exploration. We hope that by continuing to do service work, we will be able to reconnect with each other and our parish community.

We are proposing a trip to Guatemala from May 22 to May 29, 2011. We are coordinating with God's Child Project, the same organization that the Senior High group worked with on their previous trips. While we are there we will build houses, work with children in malnutrition centers, and feed the homeless at shelters. We will live with Guatemalan host families in Antigua, coordinated through God's Child Project. Our goal is not to try to replicate our Senior High experience. We feel that as an older and more seasoned group, we will be able to experience the work, the people, and the culture more thoughtfully and to a greater depth. With this trip, we hope to continue to mature and grow with each other.

Most of the participants are Emmanuel Senior High Youth Group alumni between the ages of 18 and 30. However, our trip also includes older Emmanuel members, some of whom are former leaders, and a couple of members from St. Timothy's in Creve Coeur. Our hope is to make this trip as inclusive as possible. Our goal feels a little overwhelming right now, so we would greatly appreciate any help Emmanuel can give us. More information about the trip and support for the project will be forthcoming.

And thank you so much for all you have done for us already.

Colossal Rummage Sale brings Colossal Coming Together of our Church Community and the Community at Large

And Colossal Proceeds of over $4,500 that will benefit our Missions Work for Junior High, Senior High and our Adult Group. In the 4 years we've "turned" donated items into cash, we've contributed over $15,000 towards our Mission Work. In addition, any items that do not sell go to the Salvation Army for those in need.

Too many people worked extremely hard to be individually named but special note goes to the Men of Emmanuel and many other men who had the lion's share of manning the pick up truck, setting up and doing all the hauling and cleaning up from the event. Special thanks goes to Richard Keyes, Jim Groetsch, Don Lorino, Kevin Williams, Gary Tappana, Brett Newcomb, Ed Rich, Skip Martin, Stephen Knapp and Rick Kuhn. Phyllis Newcomb, Mart Mitchell, Cathi Boyd and Donna Ericson did an outstanding job of getting both donations and volunteers from their respective groups. We couldn't have been as successful without the guidance of Rick Kuhn and Kuhn Construction for helping with the layout and providing us with many of our outdoor supplies.

Finally, thanks to all the individuals that came out to donate your treasures and your time. It was greatly appreciated and we couldn't have done it without each and every one of you. Plus, we had more customers than we've ever had due to the visibly of the tents and, truth be told, the wonderful weather which resulted in great proceeds!! It was a day to celebrate both our church community and our larger community!!

Special thanks goes also to the Men of Emmanuel and Brian Stephenson for a grant to the Rummage Sale that covered a large portion of our expenses. And to Clark Hotaling who served as a great consultant to us.

Again, our goal was to turn items into cash to help our missions spread their good deeds, faith and word. And have fun. All were accomplished and then some. Thank you! Thank you!

Is there a Drunkard in our Dining Room?

The Emmanuel Play Readers usher in their new season on Friday, October 8, with “The Drunkard.” This play has been around since the mid-1800s and is the prototype of the classic melodrama with innocent but resourceful characters who try to evade the villain’s treachery.

Jim Lemonds portrays the greedy attorney who, aided by his conniving assistant (Stephen Knapp) seeks to woo heroine Lynne Stephenson or evict her and her mother (Donna Erickson) from their home.

Admission is only $4.00 which includes the cost of light refreshments and the play itself.

Doors open at 7:00 pm and the play begins at 7:30.

Come prepared to laugh, cheer, boo and hiss while you watch to see if the “drunkard” (Brian Stephenson) will escape the lure of demon rum in time to save his wife and child from the clutches of the villain.

Emmanuel Women’s Book Club

Coming up on October 25, we will take on historical-fiction, Biblical style, with Elissa Elliott’s Eve: A Novel of the First Woman.

Elliott imagines the story of Adam and Eve as told by Eve and her daughters: Naava, the beautiful weaver; Aya, the quick-witted, club-footed cook; and Dara, the compassionate observant twin. Eve recounts “The Fall” and how she and Adam wandered until settling down to grow crops, raise livestock, and start a garden of their own. Elliott makes biblical fiction her own with a female perspective that emphasizes emotional turmoil, sensual experience, and an impressive range of imagery that brings to life Biblical daily life. (Excerpted from Publishers’ Weekly Review)

Newcomers are always welcome!

The Thanksgiving Dinner Planners

We will meet for the first time on Monday evening, October 11 at 7:00 p.m. Those of us who are without extended families in the area may want to come together to share a late afternoon feast, and host foreign students we invite from Eden and Webster.

We need to know if you are interested. Join us on October 11th if you can. Contact Deacon Burnell or Peg Cooper for more information.

Save the Date for the great Movie event:

Bring the family and invite your friends to see 'The Human Footprint' - by National Geographic on Sunday, October 24 at 6:30 pm.

This feature is presented by 'Grace Creation Care Ministry' and 'SustainAFaith', your Diocesan Green Group.

Grace Parish in Kirkwood, will host a diocesan- wide movie event that educates about our personal carbon footprint. In 'The Human Footprint' we will see a stunning movie about what makes up an average human life today and how everything we do has impact on the environment.

Did you know that as an average American you collect over 64 tons of trash over the course of your lifetime? How about using 1. 8 million gallons of water throughout your life? And that is just the beginning.

Be amazed and learn with us as we offer this free event to be shown at Albright Hall. Refreshments will be served. Don't miss it!

Reserve your spot today!

Emmanuel Blood Drive

Every year for the past ten years, the Caring Ministries Committee has sponsored a Blood Drive. This year, our drive will be held on Saturday, Oct. 30, 2010 from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon in the church dining room.

It will be run by the Mississippi Valley Blood Center. Child care will be provided. Volunteers are also needed to help that day, and homemade cookies are needed. There is a sign-up table in the dining room during Adult Forum and outside the narthex after the 10:30 service, weather permitting.

Sign-up sheets for donors, volunteers, and cookie bakers will also be on the bulletin board outside the Food Center during the weeks prior to the drive.

Invite your friends to become blood donors. Any questions, call Katherine Ziegler at 961-3327, Pat Wiltse at 647-9548, or Peg Cooper at 821-1012.

WALK-IN DONORS WILL ALSO BE WELCOME.

This is a very important part of our ministry to our community, and it is one of the ways that you can contribute at no financial cost to yourself.
