Vestry Vibes

What the world needs now is another committee. So, the Vestry has formed a new one. If you were at the annual meeting, you may recall that Emmanuel’s operating budget can use additional funds to support the facilities and the many missions of the church. A new subcommittee of the Vestry has been created with the very important mission of “developing and implementing new ways to generate revenue to supplement the operating budget.”

The first meeting was held April 13, 2011 for the purpose of establishing goals and an action plan. Current members of this committee are Alice Snodgrass, Clark Hotaling, Dave Loyet, Jennifer Smerek, the Senior Warden (Jerry Cooper), the Junior Warden (Richard Keyes) and Karl Reif.

One of the results of our first meeting is to ask your help in the brainstorming stage. We are reaching out to the Emmanuel family and asking for any revenue-generating ideas you may have. Revenue-generating ideas will be classified into three categories:

1. Sustainable type ventures: something that we can count on to generate revenue year after year.
2. One-time fundraising activity: a novel event to generate funds.
3. An event that can be held on an annual or alternating year basis.

By the way, congratulations to all of you. By virtue of reading this and my request for your ideas, you are all honorary members of the committee. Now we are all in this together. Please contact any committee member listed above if you have some ideas to share. Or you can simply email me at Karl1@att.net.

Thank you and God’s peace

Your Vestry member

Karl Reif

Thank you everyone for a beautiful Easter!

It takes everyone working hard and working together! Thanks to the Altar Guild, the Choirs, Musicians, Clergy & Staff, Liturgical Ministers, Acolytes, Technicians and everyone else who contributed to the celebration. Thanks to the Ludwigs and the Bleyers for heading up our effort to “Flower the Cross” on Easter Sunday, and to John Dolan and his “crew” (Annabel and Kathleen) for the repair work on the cross—it was looking great! And thanks to all who brought flowers on Easter Sunday.

Vestry Vitals

Each of our vestry meetings begins, this year, with a reflection by a vestry member. These reflections can be something from the Bible, something from the Book of Common Prayer, a poem, an excerpt from a novel—whatever. They are meant simply to be something that is meaningful to the person who chose it. We will print these reflections each month here as part of the Vestry Vitals column. I was elected to go first; so at last month's meeting I chose to read two pieces—one a poem, the other a meditation—that show, among other things, two different views of our involvement in human suffering or tragedy.

Musee des Beaux Arts
by W.H. Auden

About suffering they were never wrong,
The Old Masters: how well they understood
Its human position; how it takes place
While someone else is eating or opening a window or just walking dully along;
How, when the aged are reverently, passionately waiting
For the miraculous birth, there always must be Children who did not specially want it to happen, skating
On a pond at the edge of the wood:
They never forgot
That even the dreadful martyrdom must run its course
Anyhow in a corner, some untidy spot
Where the dogs go on with their doggy life and the torturer's horse
Scratches its innocent behind on a tree.

In Brueghel's Icarus, for instance:
how everything turns away
Quite leisurely from the disaster; the ploughman may
Have heard the splash, the forsaken cry,
But for him it was not an important failure;
The sun shone
As it had to on the white legs disappearing
into the green
Water; and the expensive delicate ship
that must have seen
Something amazing, a boy falling out of the sky,
Had somewhere to get to and sailed calmly
on.

(Another Time, 1940)

And then:

Meditation XVII,
by John Donne

No man is an Island, entire of itself;
every man is a piece of the Continent,
a part of the main;
if a clod be washed away by the sea, Europe is the less, as well as if a promontory were, as well as if a manor of thy friends or of thine
own were;
any man's death diminishes me,
because I am involved in Mankind; And therefore never send to know for whom the bell
tolls; It tolls for thee.

As I said, we will reprint the reflections each month
here in this space.

Now on to other issues. As I mentioned in last month's Vestry Vitals, the Vestry identified a number of issues and goals they were committed to working on during the coming year, and I promised to communicate these to you. Before I do, however, let me stress that the Vestry recognizes that there are, in many cases, fully functioning groups at Emmanuel already addressing these issues and are well underway with superb leadership. The Vestry has simply said that these are priority items that, as a Vestry, we want to hold up and recognize as issues of prime importance to our lives at Emmanuel.

With that said, let me focus in this issue on those items the Vestry categorized under the heading of

“Enhance Financial Health.”

1. Increase Awareness of Financial Situation: a coordinated effort among the EMC chairs, Vestry members, Treasurer, and Finance Committee. This group will make recommendations to the Vestry, Rector, Treasurer, and Finance Committee of ways to communicate the parish's financial situation to the congregation on an ongoing basis, maintaining a balance between financial and spiritual perspectives. Clark Hotaling will be the Vestry coordinator.
2. Compensation and Benefits: a subcommittee with representation from the Vestry, Finance Committee, and Personnel Committee will examine our current compensation and benefits package with a goal of determining its equitability or whether better alternatives exist, all keeping in mind our budgetary constraints. Gary Tappana will be the Vestry coordinator.
3. Increase Operating Revenue: members of the Vestry and Finance Committee will explore a variety of ideas that seek to open new sources of revenue for the parish. Karl Reif will be the Vestry coordinator.
4. Planned Giving: the Vestry representative, Bob Feldmann, will work closely with the existing subcommittee headed by Ida Early to further the goal of increasing the parish's awareness of the Emmanuel Foundation and ways to consider including the Foundation in your estate.
5. Counting System: this group will examine both possible alternatives to our current counting system as well as ways we might improve the current system, all with the goal of providing consistent, reliable, secure methods of handling money collected during the services, while at the same time minimizing the burden on the counters. Clark Hotaling will be the Vestry coordinator.
6. Staffing: the conclusion of the subcommittee at this point is to get monthly updates from the Rector on staffing issues.

Jerry Cooper

In next month's issue, I will focus on the goals the Vestry categorized under the heading of “Growth and Vitality.”

Trivia Night 2011 is Sold Out!

The date is Friday, May 6 and all 16 tables of eight are sold and filled.

Doors open at 6:30 PM and the fun begins at 7:00.

Several items have already been donated to the Trivia Night Silent Auction, and donations are still being accepted for additional items. Call Jim Groetsch at 961-6390 for information.

Since MOE isn't participating in the beer booth at Art and Air in the future, Trivia Night is now our major fund raiser. Money will go to mission outreach of the church and other church needs that may be identified. For example, this year, in addition to donating the Emmanuel Clergy's Discretionary Funds, Webster-Rock Hill Ministries, and Episcopal City Missions, MOE has donated $500 to Emmanuel's City Streets Project, $500 to the Young Emmanuel Mission Trip to Guatemala, and support for our visiting African seminarian at Eden.

Thanks for your support, and we hope to see you at one of the 16 tables at Trivia Night, 2011.

Four Emmanuel Young Adult Missioners & One Old Guy to Return to Guatemala

On May 22nd, four former members of the Senior High Youth Group and one former Senior High Leader are headed to Guatemala to serve The God's Child Project and continue work that began in June of 2005 and continued in June of 2009. The Young [Emmanuel] Adult Missioners (YAM) return to work with the extremely impoverished ...third class citizens in a third world country. A house will be constructed and they will also work in the children's nutrition centers.

Walter Buhro spearheaded the trip. He and others of college-age talked about the 'good old days of Senior High' last July and decided to form a group of Young Emmanuelites to again come together and serve. The first mission, returning to Guatemala, was bold, but the group persevered and the trip will last 8 days, returning to Webster Groves on Sunday May 29th.

The group has been supported by the Mission's Committee, MOE and the Rector. In addition, each member has made a financial contribution towards expenses. Finally, several companies outside of the parish as well as individuals have offered financial contributions. If you would like to support this mission, please send a check payable to Emmanuel Episcopal Church and include 'Young Adult Missions' on the memo line. If there is a balance after the trip, the designated account will help fund the next mission work performed by YAM. If you would like to learn more, please contact:

Walter Buhro; Paul Ortiz, Allie Jacobs, Tori Hudson or Clark Hotaling (Old Guy)

You May Have Noticed Emmanuel's New Artwork (part 2)

This ceramic and glazed wall sculpture entitled All Things Came to Be is by Melody Evans. It symbolizes the three themes woven through the Book of Common Prayer - love, creation and the Trinity. The Trinity is represented in the three separate pieces and in the use of the primary colors. The large, curved part suggests the movement of creation. The circle, considered in the sacred geometry of ancient cultures as perfection, is also a subtle suggestion of the human heart.

Episcopal School for Ministry

The Rev. Beverly Van Horne, Interim Dean, announces that registrations continue for the 2011-2012 academic year for the Episcopal School for Ministry. The Episcopal School for Ministry of the Diocese of Missouri offers educational resources to make disciples and build congregations for the life of the world. In addition, the School exists to

- Deepen the spiritual lives and strengthen the ministries in the church and the world of all who seek to grow in the knowledge and love of God;
- Prepare people to serve the church as priests and deacons, and
- Strengthen the ministries of lay and ordained people through continuing education.

The three-year cycle of theological studies program, beginning with the Introduction to the Old Testament, is the primary training and education program for those preparing for ordination as Deacons in the Diocese of Missouri. One does not have to be a postulant or candidate for Holy Orders as a Deacon in order to register to begin the program, and acceptance to, attendance and completion of the 3 year School program of theological studies does not guarantee one will be given canonical standing as a postulant and or a candidate, or be ordained to Holy Orders.

The School holds its classes at Eden Theological Seminary in Webster Groves, MO. Those who wish to spend the night pay an additional fee for the semester to cover the room expense. In addition there are textbooks to purchase for each course. Meals for the weekend, dinner, breakfast and lunch are included in tuition. For information about the classes offered please go to <http://www.diocesemo.org/aboutus/episcopalschoolforministry/>

The school meets from 6:00 pm Friday to 3:00 pm the next day, Saturday. Three times a year the School meets on Saturdays to finish the term and begin the new one. On those days an all School program with a topic of general interest is held in the afternoon. Each time the members of the School gather time is spent in worship, fellowship and class.

The dates of the 2011-2012 school year are as follows:

Fall Term 2011: Aug 20 (orientation); Sep 23-24; Oct 28-29; Dec 2-3; Dec 17

If you are interested, call or email Cory Hoehn, Registrar, 314-231-1220 x1383 or choehn@diocesemo.org or The Rev. Beverly Van Horne, Interim Dean, at 314-620-4405 or beverly.vanhorne@gmail.com for information and an application.

You May Have Noticed Emmanuel's New Artwork (part 3)

The Duality of Christ by Br. Mel depicts the dual nature of Christ, who is both human and divine. Carpenter's tools create one half and represent his human side; leaves and vines in polished steel create the other half. There is a reference to the Trinity with three over-lapping circles, and there are open spaces within the outline of the cross. The two halves of the chalice represent Christ's life-giving gifts to us. This work of art is rich in symbolism and can be a source of meditation for all who encounter it.

The prayers of the parish are requested for:

Because the prayer list is so large, we are only able to print half of it in each Angelus. PLEASE be assured that if you have put someone on the Intercessory Prayer list, everyone will continue to be prayed for daily by name. PLEASE keep the office updated on the progress of those you have placed on this list in order that our list remains timely.
