Welcome to our Deaconess Anne House Intern, Delilah Papke!

The mission of Deaconess Anne House, as part of the national Episcopal Service Corps, is “to build intentional communities that listen to and work with their neighbors to improve the quality of life for all, especially the poor, sick, and underprivileged.”

Many parishes worked together to clean up, fix up, paint up and furnish the 3-story brick structure located in Old North St. Louis (think Crown Candy Kitchen) and purchased by the diocese last year. Finally after much planning, labor and anticipation, the seven interns have arrived, including Delilah Papke, whom we officially sponsor.

Some of us had the pleasure of meeting Delilah at our homecoming celebration on September 8. Donna Erikson and I had the pleasure of a home cooked pasta dinner at the House. What a pleasure to see the place becoming a home!

Delilah just graduated from the University of Central Florida in Orlando, with a degree in Psychology and a minor in English Literature. Before relocating to South Florida in 2002, she resided in New York City with her large extended family. The blend of Hispanic, German and Irish American culture over the years has developed her love for good company and good food. In addition to cooking and baking, she enjoys art, music, shows, reading and learning about the local culture.

Upon arrival, the interns drew names out of a hat to find their room and roommate assignments. For the past two weeks, they have been getting to know one another, getting to know St. Louis, interviewing with various Not-for-profits, and meeting with Jon Stratton, the project director, to develop a rule of life based on the Rule of Benedict. They have addressed issues of common life, such as how to manage housekeeping, and meal prep; guest rules and quiet hours; times and routines of daily community prayer which will be open to neighbors. It is amazing that they have taken the time and effort to host two guests from each sponsoring parish for dinner, as well!

Each intern will work 32 hours a week in a neighborhood Not-for-profit. Delilah will work in a house for single moms, assisting them through pregnancy, and the first weeks of mothering until they can get on their feet to care for their children. At some point in the year, we will hear from her about that work.

As sponsors, our role is somewhat limited. We have already assembled a welcome basket, and offered rides from North St. Louis to Emmanuel for Sunday services or other activities or events. The Mission Committee is able to offer her and other interns an opportunity to work on the Indian Reservation in North Dakota. We also will be sending cards and greetings for special days, and will generally welcome and support her and the other interns in any way we can.

Interns have highly scheduled lives, but we will be ready to give her a warm Emmanuel welcome when she can be here and keep her in our prayers.

Stewardship Reflection – Rich in Love
Love Actually: A Reflection on 1 Cor. 13: 1-3
by The Right Reverend, Diane M. Jardine Bruce

Now I know only in part; then I will know fully, even as I have been fully known. And now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; and the greatest of these is love (Corinthians 13:13)

... everything we have, everything we do, everything we are is a gift from God, and it is a gift that is meant to be shared.

We are all fully known by God, and as part of our journey of faith, we are called to know God. What does this mean? It all boils down to relationship, and love is at the heart of it. Our relationship with God is the most important relationship we have in our lives. When we cultivate and nurture this relationship through prayer and the reading of scripture, not only do we come to know ourselves as beloved children of God, but we begin to have a personal relationship with our Creator, Redeemer and Sanctifier. When our relationship with God is right, it informs all other relationships we have. How do we know when our relationship with God is right?

For me, the answer came as this – when we reach the point in our lives where we can pray “thank you” for each blessing as it comes, and “help” for each time we feel lost or alone, we know we are on the path of a faithful relationship with God. This doesn’t mean that we will receive what we are praying for in terms of “help” – but it does mean we understand that we are never alone, that God is walking with us every step of our journey.

When our relationship with God is right, we find that our relationship with others is deepened. Out of this deep love we are required to offer a response, which is gratitude. When we are in right relationship with God and our neighbor, loving the Lord our God with all our heart, soul and mind, and our neighbor as ourselves, we then realize that everything we have, everything we do, everything we are is a gift from God, and it is a gift that is meant to be shared. As God gives us of God’s first fruits, we are called to do the same, and to do so generously. Loving God and my neighbor calls me to view the world from a position of abundance, not scarcity. Loving God and my neighbor demands that I pay attention to all the relationships in my life, seeing them connected to the God who loves us all. Loving God and my neighbor prompts me to give generously to my community of faith where the deep needs of the world knock on our door, and we as followers of Christ respond to those needs.

Friends in Christ – love deeply, knowing that you are deeply loved. Share generously, knowing that the one who has known you since before you were born gave his Son, his first fruit, so that you could have life and have it abundantly.

The Right Reverend, Diane M. Jardine Bruce is Bishop Suffragan of the Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles

BISHOP'S VISIT

Sunday, October 13

Bishop George Wayne will preside over the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, Reaffirmation, and Holy Eucharist in his annual visit to our parish.

Confirmation, Reception, and Reaffirmation

"Confirmation is the rite in which we express a mature commitment to Christ, and receive strength from the Holy Spirit through prayer and the laying on of hands by a bishop." (Book of Common Prayer 1979, 860). Whereas full membership is conferred in the initiatory rite of Holy Baptism, Confirmation is a commissioning and empowerment for ministry. Those baptized at an early age are expected, after a period of instruction, to make a "mature public affirmation of their faith and commitment to the responsibilities of their Baptism and to receive the laying on of hands by the Bishop." (Book of Common Prayer 1979, 412).

Those who have been baptized in other denominations who have made a "mature public affirmation" will be "received" into the Episcopal Church through the laying on of hands by the Bishop. Those who have been "received" or "confirmed" in the Episcopal Church may "reaffirm" their baptismal covenant in the service of Confirmation.

Confirmation or Reception qualifies individuals to vote at the Annual Parish Meeting, to serve as members of the Vestry, and to serve in the Councils of the Church as laity.

Reaffirmation is a rite which allows one to re-affirm the promises made at baptism. Many people who have been away from the Church for a significant period, or who have experienced a particular renewal or strengthening of faith, or who were confirmed in their youth desire to re-affirm their baptism in a public way and are invited to participate in this rite.

Services of Confirmation, Reception, and Reaffirmation will occur during the Bishop's visit on October 13.

Following the 10:00 a.m. service the Metro III delegates and alternates will host a reception for the bishop.

You may contact the Clergy directly with any questions at 314-961-2393.

A Note from The Rev. Sarah Knoll Sweeney

Dan and all Emmanuel Crew,
Thank you for the very generous gift for our going away - and for everything you all did to share in ministry with us this past year. Now that we are in Houston we have even more of an opportunity to reflect on the blessing of our time with you all. Please accept our deepest gratitude & our promise to return as soon as we can!

Sarah, Jamie and Ira

NEVER TOO LATE FOR CHILDREN'S CHOIRS

If you missed the first rehearsal for either the Junior or Cherub Choir, don't worry! Children are welcome to join at any time during the year. Both choirs meet on Wednesday evening:

Cherub Choir - Age 4 through 1st grade
(6:00-6:25 pm)
Junior Choir - 2nd – 6th Grades
(6:30 – 7:15 pm).

Questions? Contact Ann Marie Ruhlin, amruhl@sbcglobal.net.

MOE Social

There will be a Men's Social, September 19, 5-7 at Llywelyn's, 17 West Moody Ave. in Webster Groves. $5.00 to cover food - for all evening, until 7:00. Half-price on drinks from 5-6.

"Let's get together!"
Next one will be December 19.

Emmanuel Choir commenced on September 4. It is not too late!

Have you sung in choir before, or, have you thought about joining but have yet to try it? As we gear up for a new church season of choral singing, I think it is appropriate to take a moment to reflect on Emmanuel's music mission statement:

"We believe that music is a gift from God, first given throughout history to talented composers and lyricists and then given back to God as it is played or sung by musicians and by every member of this congregation."

As a community of believers, we have an amazing opportunity to touch lives through our singing. Perfection is not the goal. Rather, we strive to communicate each of the texts we sing by working to enhance our vocal skills, strengthen our ability to listen and contribute to a unified ensemble sound, and to serve God and Emmanuel's congregation through our musical efforts.

Please contact Trent Patterson, Emmanuel Choir Director at trentpatterson77@webster.edu should you have any questions about choir and/or singing at Emmanuel.

Senior High Youth Embark on a Busy Year

Reinforced by a strong group of freshmen the Senior High Youth Group is plunging into a busy schedule full of fellowship, service and worship opportunities.

"It's a great group of freshmen," said Youth Director Kevin Williams "It never fails. You lose outstanding people to graduation, but they are always replaced by other terrific kids."

"We're counting on the upperclassmen for leadership," said leader Jennifer Smerek "there aren't many of them, but they are terrific." Highlighting the fall will be the Bishop's visit October 13 at which time several members of the youth group will be confirmed. "It's more than just about the individuals. We take it as a group responsibility," said Ian MacBryde. "Some of the early J2A (Journey to Adulthood) sessions will focus on confirmation and our collective responsibilities in it."

The group is also deep into planning for the fall retreat to Deutsch's Cabin and for the Boot Sale in October.

Emmanuel Women's Book Club

Emmanuel Women's Book Club will next meet at 7:00 pm on Monday, September 30 to discuss C C Benison's Eleven Pipers Piping. The Library Journal has this to say about this second book of the Father Christmas mystery series set in a quaint English village: "The author presents a full plate of options, leaving the reader puzzling through the possible motives of an intriguing ensemble cast. The likeable vicar and his Nancy Drew-loving daughter should become reader favorites." Our October selection is Edith Gelles' Abigail & John - Portrait of a Marriage. However, we need to select subsequent titles! Please come prepared with suggestions.

Please feel free to join us, and to invite friends, family, or other Emmanuelites to come with you and share our fellowship. If you have questions or wish to be added to the Book Club email list, please contact Ann McReynolds at 314-960-0560 or ARMcR@arm-mra.com.

CityStreets

Here we are again. Summer is almost over. Fall is on the way. Before we know it Thanksgiving and Advent and Christmas. With that comes the cold winter. So it's time to think about CityStreets again.

We are in our fourth year. The number of people we have served and helped is running in the thousands. The first year was trying, but with the help of Deacon Burnell and her wisdom, we made it. A big thank you, Deacon Burnell, you will be missed.

So what is in store for this year? More cooking and hauling food to AmeriCorps so we can help our friends in need.

If you are interested in helping with this ministry, contact Jim Groetsch or Rudy Walz so we can place you on one of the seven cooking teams. A lot of people have stepped up to the plate already. We thank Jerre Birdsong for stepping into Deacon Burnell's place this year. He is going to help with food shopping and will take over some of the other tasks of this ministry.

If you can help monetarily, we always appreciate donations. We are not part of the annual budget and food costs have gone up greatly this year.
