All Things Come of Thee, O Lord, and of Thine Own Have We Given Thee (1 Chronicles 29:14b)

Dear Friends,

Over the years, my father used to go fishing off the coast of Rhode Island. In time, I joined him, heading out on the water with a friend of his, Lang Hemmingway, and sometimes with my friend Jeff Emes, in tow. They were one of the greatest parts of my vacations as a young man. We would leave early, make our way toward Fishers Island, and fish the waters for Bluefish, Bonita and Stripped Bass. But, every trip would end by fishing the ocean’s bottoms for flounder. At that time, flounder were plentiful in the Long Island Sound and those parts of the Atlantic. Lang would guide the boat to where the sea gulls were feeding on the tiny minnows which the blues were striking, and then steer it over the rock reefs around which the flounder gathered. These fishing trips were the stuff of family lore, the flounder some of the best meals I remember, and Dad’s stories live on in my memory.

Today, the flounder are depleted. There are commercial and recreational limits in place in an attempt to rebuild the population. That part of the Atlantic seaboard has drastically changed, and for many, is little more than a memory.

As we move into our Fall Stewardship Campaign, I find myself thinking about Dad’s stories about the coast of Rhode Island. The Christian faith is, I think, desperately needed today - desperately needed to remind us that what we call "ownership" is not really ownership at all. Face it. We do not own the earth. We do not own the seas. Truth be told, we do not really own anything. Everything that we have and everything we are belongs to God. It is only ours on loan. What we do with it is our way of giving thanks. As Wendell Berry once said, “It is possible, I think, to say that... a Christian agriculture [is] formed upon the understanding that it is sinful for people to misuse or destroy what they did not make. The Creation is a unique, irreplaceable gift, therefore to be used with humility, respect, and skill.”

I hope that this season of celebrating how Emmanuel is Rich in Love has given you and your family the time to reflect on how blessed we are at Emmanuel. Like my memories of fishing with my father, I hope that you have shared stories about how this parish has touched your life and the lives of those in the world we serve. I pray that over the coming weeks you will be challenged to recommit yourselves to the mission and ministry that we share in this place - for God has given us abundant life and we have been richly blessed with love and the power of the Spirit. In the midst of all, I ask you to remember, as we serve this world in Christ's name with love, humility, respect and skill, the Holy Spirit is at work quietly among us.

Our Fall Campaign is well underway. Its theme Rich in Love, includes a note writing campaign that is intended to touch every household. On October 20, worship reflections will be offered by Jerre Birdsong and Jerry Cooper. That same morning, our Forum presentation will be led by Lissa Johnson, Mark DeYoung and Diana Knapp, our Fall Campaign Chairs, and our Treasurer. On October 27, we will celebrate the 30 years of service that our Memorial Garden has offered to our community. This Fall Campaign will culminate with our Pledge Card In-Gathering on November 10th. All of these people, along with our Stewardship Committee, deserve our thanks for all they are doing this year! God has blessed us indeed, as a faith community.

Faithfully yours,

Daniel

Stewardship Quote

From Anthony de Mello's book, One Minute Wisdom:

"How would spirituality help a man like me?" Asked the business man.

"It would help you have more," said the master "How?" The man asked.

"By teaching you to desire less!" replied the master.

October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month.

As part of our mission to Lydia's House, a home for women and children who have experienced domestic violence, we will collect disposable diapers (especially larger sizes), feminine products, and items such as liquid laundry detergent, toilet paper, and paper towels until Sunday, Oct. 27.

Please place your contributions in the box designated for Lydia's House in the Dining Room. If you have questions, please call Laura McCord at 963-0481.

Webster-Rock Hill Ministries 2013 Adopt-A-Family Programs

The Thanksgiving Basket and Christmas Adopt-A-Family programs have begun registration.

These holiday programs help serve our neighbors in need and let them know they are not alone. Donor forms are on the bulletin board at the Dining Room entrance.

Additional information can be obtained by calling the Ministries @ 961-5082.

Inquiring Minds Want to Know! By Judy Ermold

When my husband, John, suggested we sign up for Emmanuel's Inquirers' Class, my first response was less than enthusiastic. Weren't our Sundays busy enough? Wasn't our knowledge of the Episcopal Church adequate? After all, I was baptized in an Episcopal church, we have been attending services at Emmanuel for a year, plus we have our very own copies of the Book of Common Prayer AND the Revised Common Lectionary. Wasn't that enough?

Fortunately, the wishes of my inquiring husband prevailed and we joined the recent four-session program. What a great decision! Not only have we been refreshed on the basics of the faith, but we have also absorbed some interesting details and insights. Working in tandem, Dan and Martie have provided excellent presentations to their small but attentive audience. Videos, down-to-earth conversation, and hands-on reading of scripture are some of the teaching tools they use. No topic is off-limits, and no question is dumb.

Personally, I like being reminded of the compelling qualities of the Episcopal Church. How assuring it is to know that the authority of this faith is based on Scripture, Tradition, and Reason. In our ongoing efforts to live as Christians, most of us at Emmanuel probably admit to being a "work in progress." But we are also a congregation that cares about our neighbors, focuses on scriptural guidance rather than nonessential dogma, and not only tolerates but welcomes diversity.

Yes, Inquirers' Class has been a positive experience that John and I highly recommend to old and new Episcopalians, as well as to the uncommitted in search of a spiritual home base. I must, however, express one disappointment about the class: Too few "inquirers" showed up! Exploring the faith (and eating pizza) with Dan and Martie could have been even better with greater participation.

Families Love Emmanuel; We Love our Families; Let's Put Love in Action!

One of the amazing things about Emmanuel is the wonderful, growing group of young families coming here regularly to love and serve the Lord. We all benefit from the energy, creativity, and vitality this group brings to our faith community. It doesn't happen without the combined effort of some great leaders, and those leaders need your help to continue to nurture all our children in the faith.

There are many ways to be involved, but right now, Beth and David Knapp and Diane and Stephen Knapp, leaders of Children's' Chapel are asking for helpers to keep this favorite Sunday morning program going for our kids ages 4-7. If you are willing to lead the children from the 9:00 service up to the Children's Chapel before the readings, help with trips to the bathroom and lead the kids back down at communion time, you could be a "Shepherd". If you would like to lead some of the chapel sessions with stories, games, and songs, you could talk to Beth about being a "Leader". You would be missing the lessons and sermon just that one time, but also be rewarded with a life lesson upstairs! The Knapps will gladly mentor you into either position and help you with all you need to do it.

Please take a moment to prayerfully ask whether you might be called to assist in this important and rewarding ministry. If so, please call or email Beth Knapp or me.

Martie Metzler

A Heartfelt Thank You!

We would like to say thank you to all who attended our blessing at Emmanuel and for the good wishes we received from so many who were unable to be with us. You blessed us and loved us in more ways than we could ever have imagined. It was a great day we will remember and treasure all our lives.

We would like to thank the vestry and the bishop for allowing our rector the Rev. Dan Appleyard to do this in his home parish. Many, many thanks to all who played a part in the preparations, service and reception. Your generosity and hard work are appreciated more than we can say. The Food Center was blessed too with nearly 400 items and the better part of $1500 so far.

Bible Study

Ron Crown is leading a study of the Gospel of Mark at 10:30 a.m. in Room 214 each Sunday. This oldest and shortest Gospel is described in The New Student Bible RSV as “a Gospel of exclamation points, full of words like amazed, astounded, terrified.” Who is Mark? To whom is he writing? What is his main message? Good questions - interesting answers. Join us. Grow in faith.

BUSY FALL FOR SR HI

“We’re always trying to plan two or three events ahead,” said Senior High Youth Leader Jennifer Smerek. “There’s preparation for the confirmation of several of the youth and an understanding of the group’s role in that. There’s the retreat to Deutsch’s Cabin, the car wash, and we’re already thinking about what the holidays bring.”

“The youth are busy,” said Youth Minister Kevin Williams, “and with a lot of things besides youth group, but it’s all part of growing up in a very busy time. We’re hoping that we are an important part of their lives. Certainly, attendance has been good.” Deutsch’s Cabin, scheduled for October 19 and 20, features programs of fellowship and understanding, and—a highlight for many—Morning Prayer on the bluff overlooking the autumn landscape of the Gasconade River.

The car wash is scheduled for October 27 with all proceeds from the car wash going to Peace Meal at St. John’s. A group worship is scheduled for the 10:30 service on November 3.

JUNIOR HIGH NEWS

The process of getting in sync with the church's teachings.

This is the result of compiling the answers the Junior High class gave to the question, “What does spiritual journey mean?” We tied this question and the answers to the preceding lesson on communion and what it means to them.

Further, they displayed – whether or not they were aware of it – their belief in this journey as so many of them and their parents helped with the boot sale on Friday and Saturday. They were aware that funds raised would enable them to go on their mission trip next summer where they will be able to reach out to people less fortunate. They also know that many of the people attending the sale were able to purchase items that they could not otherwise afford. Two of the junior high girls came to me to tell how they “underwrote” a twenty-five cent purchase of a toy for a little child whose mother said they could not afford it.

Although many of the youngsters were too shy to tell their 2013 mission trip stories, their presentation was delightful and uplifting.

All work and no play.... So the youngsters and leaders took Sunday afternoon and enjoyed a hayride, corn maze, and funnel cakes.

Now back to work. On Sunday afternoon, October 13, we will start work on projects for the Advent soup supper and giving tree.

Fellowship Dinners Continue

Mark your calendars;
the Fellowship Dinners
October 16, 23 and 30,
November 6 and 13,
5:30-7:00pm
$3 per person, $10 family max.

The fall series runs until November 13th. We will take a break for the holidays, starting up again on January 8th and go until February 26th. (And I am sure a spring session will follow!)

Charlie Walch’s soup was such a hit last year that we also want to offer “Guest Chef” nights. So if anyone would like to share a favorite meal just let us know and we will gladly turn over the kitchen to you.

As always watch Facebook if you want to know the menu in advance! Audrey, Pam and I are looking forward to the dinners again.
Thanks, MJ

A & J Adams - Portrait of a Marriage by Edith Gelles

The marriage of John and Abigail Adams is one of the most extraordinary examples of passion and endurance that this country has ever witnessed. Theirs was a unique union, one based on mutual respect and ambition, intellect and equality. Using their letters, Abigail & John provides an inspirational portrait of a couple who weathered the trials of a revolution, and in so doing paved the way for the birth of a nation.

Trinity Institute: Save the Date!

Trinity Institute's 43rd National Theological Conference: The Good News Now: Evolving with the Gospel of Jesus, will be held November 22 – 23, 2013 at Emmanuel Episcopal Church.

The story of Jesus has spoken powerfully to generations for more than two millennia, but how has it continued to be made relevant over thousands of years? In late November, a diverse group of leading scholars and theologians will take up the challenge of articulating the story of Jesus anew. At Trinity Institute's 43rd National Theological Conference, The Good News Now: Evolving with the Gospel of Jesus, they will consider how historic tenets of the faith address current realities and relate fresh and meaningful ways to recount the story for these times.

Participation is open to clergy and laypersons of all faith traditions. Emmanuel Episcopal Church will be the local host via live, interactive webcast.

“I anticipate a challenging and enjoyable time together. Our understanding of Scripture is always changing! I suspect that everyone who attends will find new insights about their faith by the end of this conference.” – The Rev. Daniel S. Appleyard

This two-day conference will focus on three main questions:

“What’s the Good News about Religion?”

“What’s the Good News about the Cross of Christ?”

“What’s the Good News about Abundant Life?”

For registration and information, visit our website or contact Susan at the Emmanuel office.

Emmanuel

Every year for the past ten years, the Caring Ministries Committee has sponsored a Blood Drive. This year, our drive will be held on Saturday, Oct. 26, 2013 from 8:00 AM-12:00 noon in the church dining room.

It will be run by the Mississippi Valley Blood Center. Child care will be provided. Volunteers are also needed to help that day, and homemade cookies are needed.

Starting on Sunday, October 6th, there will be a sign-up table in the dining room during Adult Forum. Sign-up sheets for donors, volunteers, and cookie bakers will also be on the bulletin board outside the Food Center during the weeks prior to the drive.

Invite your friends to become blood donors. Any questions, call Katherine Ziegler at 961-3327, Pat Wiltse at 542-3655, or Peg Cooper at 821-1012.

WALK-IN DONORS WILL ALSO BE WELCOME.

This is a very important part of our ministry to our community, and it is one of the ways that you can contribute at no financial cost to yourself.

News From the Rep

This season marks Stage Manager Glenn Dunn's 40th Season with The Rep.

He has been at the Rep longer than anyone else on the staff.

Happy Anniversary Glenn!

Rummage Sale - Thank you!!!

By Friday evening a week and a half ago the Dining Hall had been transformed into a “treasure trove palace” just waiting for customers to buy all the treasures. Our Emmanuel adults and youth had hauled, sorted and priced tons of donated treasures most of Friday afternoon and evening.

Saturday morning dawned cool and clear with early bird shoppers queuing up at 6:30am to have first crack at buying. And the customers just keep coming all morning long – Emmanuelites, people from the community and outlying areas and when the doors shut around 1pm we had brought in over $3800.

Emmanuel came through again – either through the awesome volunteering, voluminous donations or just buying up of all our “treasures”. Thank you one and all for your support.

While we can't thank everyone there are a few specially notes....

Clark Hotaling, Kevin Williams, Richard Keyes, Kevin MacBryde, Dan Burst, Mark DeYoung, Brett Newcomb and Don Lorino for being the best “pick-up” guys ever– picking up the furniture that is!! Susan Baseley for helping us with all the details related to using the dining room and our parish communication.

Jim Groetsch for handling all our signage and publicity.

Keith Ennis for handling the extra cleanup thoroughly and pleasantly.

And to all of you who worked countless hours sorting, organizing, pricing, folding, cashiering, hauling, loading, setting up tables and tents, selling, bartering, counting money, boxing and bagging all the leftover items – special thanks goes to each and everyone of you. The sale is a success because of you.

This sale is an important part of us reaching our Mission Trip financial goals. In the 7 years that we've held this sale we have raised almost $29,500 with every penny of that money going to support our three yearly Mission Trips.

Thank you - Emmanuel Community - for your continued support,
Phyllis Newcomb and Pam Belloli

Emmanuel Play Readers

Emmanuel Play Readers is opening the new season with a new concept – two one-act plays. Mark your calendars for Friday, October 25th. Doors open at 6:30; show starts at 7PM with the price of admission only $4 to cover light refreshments. Taken from Relatively Speaking, the evening will start with Elaine May's George Is Dead - a delicious study in the bliss of narcissism for those who can afford its more rarefied accoutrements, and the plague it can be to those in their orbit. The second production, Honeymoon Hotel by Woody Allen, relates what happens when the members of a Long Island wedding (not Karl's and Bunny's) gone spectacularly wrong gather at a tacky motel (think Route 66) to trade accusations and recriminations over who did what to whom, spewing choicely worded observations at one another at head-spinning velocity. Join us as we take a peek at what makes families so interesting!
