Our Faithful Cloud of Witnesses: Honor in the Saints

Dear Friends,

Three weeks ago we celebrated the thirty years of burying our loved ones in our Memorial Garden. Two weeks ago, we celebrated All Saints Sunday, listening to necrologies and remembering the lives of people who have touched our lives. So, I thought it might be appropriate to write a bit about the place of saints in the Episcopal and Anglican traditions.

Since the time of the early church, Christians have venerated the "athletes who have gone before" (Polycarp, AD 156). And, while the first Book of Common Prayer (1549) limited saints' days to people found in the Bible, the Anglican Church has continued this ancient practice of recognizing holy "athletes." In 2009, General Convention authorized for trial use Holy Women, Holy Men, a compendium of over 285 saints. In this book all but 78 days of the year are given over to commemorating the lives of those people whom we consider worthy of being remembered. It's a far cry from the scant handful retained by Thomas Cranmer when we broke with Rome.

Unlike the Roman Catholic Church, Anglicanism has no formal process for bestowing sainthood. In the Episcopal Church, it is our practice to include people on our calendar by an act of General Convention. There are no successive steps through which a candidate for sainthood must move in order to be "canonized." Still, there have always been criteria by which the church decides whether or not to include someone. Among the considerations most recently recog-nized are:

+Historicity: The person has to have actually lived (sorry, ex-Saint Christopher).

+ Christian Discipleship: the person must have been baptized and been known to have lived out the promises of baptism.

+Significance: The person should have been a significant and heroic servant and example of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

+Memorability: The person should either be remembered today or should be worth remem-bering, even if no longer a part of our common memory.

+Range of Inclusion: Particular attention is paid to Episcopalians and other members of the Anglican Communion; gender and race; inclusion of lay people; and ecumenical representation.

+Time Elapsed: It is normally, but not exclusively, the case that a person be included only after two generations or fifty years have passed since that person's death.

Recently, members of our Diocese presented a resolution before General Convention for the inclusion of the Rev. A. Whiting Griswold. Griswold died on July 24, 1849 during the St. Louis Cholera Epidemic of 1849, after helping care for the spiritual and temporal needs of the sick and dying around him. This massive epidemic wiped out a tenth of the city's population. Accounts of his final days relate that, once the inevitable state of delirium set in, he recited all of the services in the Prayer Book, as if in front of his congregation, St. John's Episcopal Church, until finally succumbing to the disease. But, it was his sacrificial ministry to the sick and dying that makes him worthy. It did not pass Convention, this time.

These days, when I am asked about how the Episcopal Church approaches the concept of saints, I often share Fredrick Beuchner's statement in his book, Wishful Thinking, where he writes:

"In God's Holy Flirtation with the world, God periodically drops a handkerchief. These handkerchiefs are called Saints."

In these chilly autumn days at Emmanuel, we have been warmly rejoicing in the company of all the saints – those large "S" Saints, noted by the church and those small "s" saints whom we have known and admired in our lives - Our Faithful Cloud of Witnesses.

Peace,

Daniel

CLEAN-UP DAY
AT EMMANUEL

Saturday, November 16

Please come and bring rakes, shovels, wheelbarrows, etc if you can.

Thanksgiving

At Emmanuel

The Caring Committee is sponsoring Thanksgiving dinner in the dining room at Emmanuel on Thursday, November 28.

We invite all, especially those who do not have family in town or those who want to celebrate with a larger group.

Appetizers begin at 4:30 p.m. with dinner at 5:00 p.m. Call Laura McCord, Chris Kraeger, or Rudy Walz to let them know what dish you will bring to share. Turkey and ham will be provided.

Come join us in giving thanks to God for all his blessings.

Junior High News

Junior High youth shared so much at their recent retreat. Masks were molded to their faces. They then decorated them with colors and symbols that depicted their inner feelings and shared those feelings with the other children and leaders. They played together, hiked together, and enjoyed nature together while they appreciated God's handiwork with the perfect skies and colors of autumn, the geese on the lake and the wooly caterpillars. Some of the pictures taken at the retreat were included on the "Images of God" board which they put together on the Sunday following the retreat.

Preparations continued to make things in readiness for the Advent soup supper and giving tree.

Some of the children worked at the Empty Bowls soup supper held at Emmanuel – an experience they will not soon forget.

Car Wash Raises $1,000 for Peace Meal Project

"The youth worked hard, and it was for a great cause," said Senior High Youth Leader Bron Brennan, one of the wettest people at the youth car wash November 3.

"The Emmanuel community has been very supportive of our group, and it enabled us to make this contribution," said Youth Director Kevin Williams.

"We raised a thousand dollars which was contributed to The Peace Meal Project, a free fellowship meal for all, every Saturday at St. John's Episcopal Church in Tower Grove.

The group is also in the midst of a program designed to help them find their roles in adult life and in their church, according to Leader Ian MacBryde. "We hope that J2A—Journey to Adulthood—will help them to feel comfortable as people and to find out what makes them happy and fulfilled. There are a whole lot of individuals, but they are all important in making our group—and our church--ever better."

Women's Book Club Monday, December 2 at 7:00 p.m.

Sarah's Key by Tatiana de Rosnay; here's a mini-review adapted from Amazon.com:

Paris, July 1942: Sarah, a ten year-old Jewish girl is brutally arrested with her family by the French police in the Vel' d'Hiv' roundup, but not before she locks her younger brother in a cupboard in the family's apartment, thinking that she will be back within a few hours.

Paris, May 2002: On Vel' d'Hiv's 60th anniversary, journalist Julia Jarmond is asked to write an article about this black day in France's past. Through her contemporary investigation, she stumbles onto a trail of long-hidden family secrets that connect her to Sarah. Julia finds herself compelled to retrace the girl's ordeal, from that terrible day, to the camps, and beyond. As she probes into Sarah's past, she begins to question her own place in France, and to reevaluate her marriage and her life.

Tatiana de Rosnay offers us a brilliantly subtle, compelling portrait of France under occupation, revealing the taboos and silence that surround this painful episode.

Because the last Monday in November is Thanksgiving week, we will meet the following week, on Monday evening, December 2 at 7:00 in the "Tree House Room" (#204) ....Kristen will be our hostess.

Please feel free to join us, and to invite friends, family, or other Emmanuelites to come with you and share our fellowship. If you have questions or wish to be removed from the Book Club email list, please contact Ann McReynolds at 314-960-0560 or ARMcR@arm-mra.com.

Hope to see you on the 2nd.... Happy Reading!

Play Readers, Friday, November 22 at 6:30 p.m.

The new concept of two one-act plays was such a hit; Emmanuel Play Readers is doing it again with a Christmas twist. Mark your calendars for Friday, November 22nd. Doors open at 6:30; show starts at 7PM with the price of admission only $4 to cover light refreshments.

In Happy Hollandaise! all Claire Finley wants is the perfect Christmas. Vilma Hasenpfeffer, the celebrated gourmet chef, will prepare her famous Hasenpfeffer Hollandaise Sauce for Claire's dinner guests — the new vicar and his very pregnant wife, Mary. Unfortunately, the chef is late, the guests are early and there are burglars loose in the neighborhood. To top it all off, Claire's father has been hit on the head (with the crêche, no less!) and thinks he's the leading man in all of the West End theatre productions of the last 30 years! With the help of her quirky brother, George, Claire tries to keep everything together. Join us as mayhem and scrambled identities transform into a Christmas not to be forgotten.

Then to add to the fun, The Plight Before Christmas finds Ebenezer Humbug about to "raise the dickens" by foreclosing on everyone in town... on Christmas Day! He hopes to force Felicity Fuzziwig to marry him, much to the dismay of his clerk, Bob Scratchit, who also wants to marry her. Jake Marley, the partner Humbug cheated out of half a gold mine years before, appears to claim his share. Marley reminds Humbug of a happy Christmas in the past and offers a glimpse of a foreboding future Christmas if Humbug continues his evil ways. Will he make the right choice?

Christmas Play News!

This year's play should probably be called an Advent Play, because we won't be visiting Bethlehem. The Play, "Miracle" has a Native American theme and the stable we'll visit is in the Great Plains. The three Emmanuel Choirs will provide the foundation of the music in the play, but all are welcome to participate.

The play will be performed during the 10 am service on Dec. 15. There will be a full rehearsal on Saturday, Dec. 14, from 10 am – Noon. Please see the rehearsal times below:

- Adults (Grade 7 and older) – If you read or learn music quickly, you may attend only the Saturday morning rehearsal. You are also welcome to attend the Emmanuel Choir rehearsals on Wednesdays, December 4 and 11, 7:30-9:00 pm; the music for the play will be rehearsed at the end.
- Grade School aged children (2nd grade – 6th grade) – Join the Junior Choir rehearsals on Wednesdays, December 4 and 11, 6:30 – 7:15 pm, and attend the Saturday morning rehearsal.
- "Cherub", (age 4 – 1st grade) – Join the Cherub Choir rehearsals on Wednesdays, December 4 and 11, 6:00-6:25 pm and attend the Saturday morning rehearsal from 11:15 am – Noon only.

Junior Choir and Cherub Choir aged children who can't attend on Wednesdays are welcome to be in the play, but are not likely to learn enough of the music on Saturday morning to fully participate. They are welcome to be there on Sunday morning, stand with the chorus and participate as they are able.

There is a sign-up sheet on the bulletin board outside the dining room or please contact Ann Marie Ruhlin at amruhl@sbcglobal.net.

From the Caring Committee

Thank you to everyone who participated in Emmanuel's Blood Drive.

We had 12 units of blood at the end of the day, which can ultimately help up to 36 people. We had a wonderful group of donors, volunteers, and cookie-bakers.

However, we were quite disappointed with the number of donors who turned out: for a church the size of Emmanuel, 12 units of blood is not a very good showing. We know that there are a number of people who are unable to give blood for various reasons, but there must be more individuals in this large congregation who could donate.

We hope that next year more people will be inspired to give this gift of life to those in need: it is something you can do that costs you no money and only about an hour of your time. Just think of the opportunity to help another—one of God's children.

November 17: Isaiah readings in Advent

Lectors have been known to try to trade dates in order to have a chance to read the Isaiah lessons that are assigned during Advent. The beautiful images and comforting words in this prophetic book are among the most cherished in the Bible. As we move into Advent, Martie Metzler will give some insight into the context of these readings.

November 24: Advent Themes Advent begins next week, a season rich with anticipation and traditions: the Jesse Tree, the Advent wreath, the Giving Tree, St. Nicholas Day. Where did these traditions come from? What do they symbolize? Learn about many of the Advent customs and participate in an intergenerational, hands-on experience creating some of your own Advent traditions.

December 1: Mission Opportunities in Rosebud, South Dakota The Rev. Lauren R. Stanley, Priest in Charge at Rosebud Mission West, will share her passion and enthusiasm for Mission and help us understand, in a new way, the needs of the reservation and how we can help as we go forward.
