Clergy & Staff listing 10

In the case of a pastoral emergency after office hours, please call the clergy cell phone at 314-324-4115.

Dear Friends,

I remember listening to a National Public Radio interview, sometime ago, where Archbishop Desmond Tutu claimed that God transforms human beings for a special purpose. That purpose is founded in God’s “dream” of a transfigured world. To put it another way: God has made, and is making, us part of the Easter mystery that is Jesus’ resurrection. Just as Jesus was made a new creation in the resurrection, so we too are being made new. And the world in which we live is changed by the very fact that we are being transformed.

Skeptics telephoned NPR to challenge Tutu. He might be a good man, but surely he was a dreamer. How can those who suffered under apartheid really forgive their former oppressors? How long will it take before they can forgive - if ever? “They have forgiven,” Tutu answered, laughing. Yes, he laughed, as if he could not understand the callers’ naiveté, their unwillingness to trust in the power of God’s forgiveness working through human beings.

How many of us would challenge Archbishop Tutu in the same way as those callers did? When will peace come to Syria or South Sudan? When will Palestinians be able to forgive Israel’s Jewish community and vice versa? When will people of color in this country be able to forgive whites? When will children be able to forgive their parents? When will former friends be able to forgive one another? When will we be able to forgive ourselves for our actions, for things done and left undone?

Easter comes to remind us that we are a new people. Like Lazarus, healed and brought to life by Jesus (John 11:17-44), we are called forth from the tomb, from all of the places in our lives that speak of sin and suffering and death. We are called forth into the light of day to stand before God and one another. As the cloths that bound Lazarus in death were removed after his healing, so all that binds us is released so that as a people we are set free to be Christ’s hands and arms in this world. We are transformed, made new.

This season may you experience the power of God’s gift of hope and new life - of resurrection. May we all raise our voices loud and clear to respond to that gift: “Alleluia! Alleluia!”

Peace,
Daniel

Vestry Vibes

Since joining Vestry at the beginning of the year, I have been energized by the level of conversations around hospitality, inclusivity, belonging, and community. I care deeply about our parish for many reasons...high among those is the sense of belonging and community my family and I have experienced at Emmanuel for the past twelve years. Our Vestry conversations, and my reflections on my own journey at Emmanuel, have made me stop and think with intentionality about the role of hospitality. When have we felt lonely and disconnected, and someone has helped us reconnect? When have we felt as if we didn't belong...and then someone showed us that we did? When have we discovered -- or re-discovered -- gifts that we have to offer others because someone invited us to do so? When have we experienced God's unconditional love through another's actions? Isn't this what Jesus models for us time and again?

I had the privilege of taking our FaithQuest children on their mini-mission trip recently. We visited Gateway 180, bringing lunch and toys for the moms and children who lived there. We encouraged the Emmanuel children to get to know the other children...to spend time playing...to learn names...in essence, to connect, be inclusive, and share a sense of hospitality. On the way home, I had five children in my minivan. Each of the children knew the name of another child with whom they had connected, and had positive stories to share. They had taken us up on our challenge to connect and be hospitable -- and it had a great impact on them.

I love our parish, our commitment to mission, our sense of faith...imagine how much deeper that becomes as we continue to deepen our hospitality, our sense of belong, and our sense of community.

Respectfully submitted,

Allison Williams

Stewardship Committee—Men of Emmanuel (MOE)

The Stewardship Committee was formed in 2012 with the idea that its task would be to increase the parish's awareness of how our financial and spiritual lives interact. One of the ideas the Committee developed was to have regular articles in The Angelus that reflect the many, many ways in which our Time, Talent, and Treasure go to work here at Emmanuel - to show, in essence, the many ways in which God's work gets done. This month's article is by Bill Cochran and focuses on MOE.

Over the years, a group of men of Emmanuel have given generously of their Time and Talent during Lent, preparing breakfasts on Friday Mornings. For 6 weeks they have risen early to be at Church by 6:30 a.m. to cook dozens of eggs, pounds of bacon and dozens of biscuits.

I want to acknowledge their efforts by identifying them:

Tom Jones, Mike Walsh, Rick Kuhn, Jim Groetsch, David McCarthy, Bill Wright, Bob Shillito, Richard Keyes.

Thank you gentlemen, couldn't do it without you.

Bill Cochran
Chair MOE

Do You Want to Satisfy Your “Fix-It” Urge?

Volunteer handymen are occasionally needed to help us maintain our facility.

Do you have some basic handyman skills in any of the following areas: carpentry, electrical repair, plumbing repair, painting, landscaping, overseeing contractor work, etc.?

If you would like to explore this further, please contact Paul LaFata at 314-961-7163 or paul@lafata-consulting.com.

Fellowship Dinners Continue

Mark your calendar: Wednesdays until May 21 we offer our Spring Fellowship Dinners.

We begin serving at 5:30 pm and serve until 7 pm or the food runs out! I know Lent is always 40 days, but it seemed longer this year. I think I can speak for Pam and Dale, Audrey and Rick, we miss seeing our “extended family” on Wednesday evenings.

Spring Fellowship Dinners will continue until May 21. We have one guest chef signed up, let me know if anyone else would like to be a guest chef. As always, help with clean-up is greatly appreciated.

- Come and learn about what a certain group does at Emmanuel...a chance to join in for the upcoming year if your heart so moves you
- Come once...come each week...the more the merrier!

For additional information, or if your group wants to prepare a breakfast and showcase your Ministry, please contact Al and Rachael Ludwig at 680-1042 or via the Emmanuel Group Facebook Page.

SENIOR HIGH NEWS

Thank you to all our Parishioners who supported our Car Wash on May 4.

It was another huge success!

Jr. High News

The “special” Junior High lunch/brunch on May 4 proved to be quite a surprise to the young people. They were asked to first meet in another room. There they discussed the plight of hungry people in the second- and third-world countries.

When they went to their classroom they found quite an array of good food but also found that, by the luck of the draw, many of them were unable to afford to purchase it with the play money they had been given. As statistics prove, the small percentage of wealthy were able to afford anything they wanted while the third-world people had to start figuring out how to obtain food.

We pointed out that this situation exists even in the first-world where we live and, indeed, even for the people living in the prestigious zip code of 63119. When asked how their neighbors coped, some mentioned the Emmanuel Food Center and Webster Rock Hill Ministries; they approached the wealthy one percent, who happened to be very generous and gave them all their money.

This exercise is a great precursor to their upcoming mission trip where they will see first-hand the people struggling to get food.

On May 11, seven children reaching the age of 13 during the program year were welcomed and acknowledged during the Rite 13 Ceremony at the 9:00 service. At this time, we celebrated their transition from childhood to manhood and womanhood.

After the service, the class once set aside childish ways to prepare brown-bag lunches for the homeless shelter.

Next time, more about the upcoming mission trip.

Emmanuel Book Club - June 2

Don't faint....but June 2 is just five weeks away! Our last meeting was terrific, due in part to Georgiana Cameron's guacamole dipped with lime potato chips, which was topped off with Brookside's blueberry dark chocolates. Culinary perfection!

We all agreed author Tom Rachman has a bright future and that The Imperfectionists was well worth reading, which is more than can be said for a lot of books. ;-)

Coming up, as is our custom, we are meeting the first Monday in June, because the last Monday in May is Memorial Day. Since this will be our last meeting until September 29, we will be selecting our next three books to read in the fall. Please send me your ideas, so I can add them to a list of potentials. AND be sure to attend our June 2 meeting if you'd like a say in what we read! We need a hostess for the evening....please "Reply to All" if you would like to volunteer!

Our next book is Daughter of Persia, by Sattareh Farmanfarman. Here's a bit about it:

Born in 1921 to a wealthy Iranian prince, Sattareh was the 15th of thirty-six children, and she enjoyed a happy childhood in her father's Tehran harem. Because her father valued education, she was allowed to defy tradition by traveling alone when she was 23 years old to study at USC. After returning home ten years later, she founded the first Iranian school of social work, spending the next 20 years fighting poverty and disease. Despite her years devoted to serving the poor, she was threatened with execution as a "counter-revolutionary" when Ayatollah Khomeini took over. This remarkable autobiography provides dramatic insight into 20th Century Iran.

Monday Morning Bible Study at Emmanuel

Beginning in September, [8 September] what has been known as the Tuesday morning Bible study group will shift it's day of meeting to Mondays at 9:30 a.m. in The Tree House room.

In September the Monday Bible study group will begin to explore the New Testament writings, in the order the Books were written. Marcus Borg has written a book; EVOLUTION OF THE WORD: The New Testament in the Order the Books Were Written. This will be our guide book for the study of the New Testament beginning with Paul's first letter to the Thessalonians.

We hope the new schedule will make it possible for you to join us for this exciting exploration of the New Testament. "The first document in this chronological New Testament is Paul's letter to a Christ-community in Thessalonica, the capital city of Macedonia, a province in northern Greece. It was written around the year 50 C.E., possibly a year or two earlier. Somewhat surprisingly, given the movement's origin among Jews in the Jewish homeland, the earliest Christian document is written to a community in Europe, which is largely Gentile."

We hope you'll join us in September.

UTO INGATHERING - JUNE 1, 2014
(Please note correct date)
 Established 1889-----Has distributed

Do you know what this box is?

The United Thank Offering is a ministry of gratitude that began in 1889. Drop a coin in the Blue Box and give thanks for a blessing or challenge in your life.

In our own Diocese, money has been given to All Saints' Music and Arts Village which offers free classes for underserved youth aged 7-11 in North St. Louis. The Arts Village is designed for underprivileged families who could not otherwise afford music lessons.

The Church of the Good Shepherd: Provides equipment for a technology enabled meeting space for up to 235 people which assists the parish with evangelism and outreach. It will allow sessions with their companion diocese of Lui and missionaries on trips to Sudan and Nicaragua.

Outside our Diocese, UTO money has gone to build a weather-proof school in Haiti, a mobile shower facility for the homeless in San Diego and a reservoir to save water during the rainy season in Tanzania. So, put gifts into the Blue Box with thanksgiving, prayer, and generosity. Take blessings out of the Box for grants extending the Church's faithfulness to God's mission.

Boxes available in the back of the dining room at UTO display table.

Congratulations to our 2014
 Women of Achievement winner:

Ida H. Early
(Volunteer Leadership)

Ida Early wears many hats. Secretary to Washington University's board of trustees and its 12 committees, she also worked at Olin School of Business. She coordinates university commencement ceremonies and the 600-member volunteer Women's Society of Washington University.

She was the first African-American elected president of the Junior League of St. Louis in 1996. This led to her role in 2004 to help complete the Pierce Report, a regional assessment intended to elevate the city. "I interviewed heads of businesses and took field trips throughout the region to identify our resources," she explains.

Junior League led her to volunteer with Epworth Children & Family Services, Care and Counseling, Childhaven, Dance St. Louis, Fair St. Louis, Girls Inc., Forest Park Forever, St. Louis Symphony and the Regional Arts Commission.

Webster University Scholar Singers

Over the last academic year, we have been blessed by a partnership with our neighbor, Webster University. With the help of our choir director, Trent Paterson, we brought into the Emmanuel Adult Choir, 4 Scholar Singers (sometimes more), who are undergraduate students at the university:

- Kaitlin Turner
- Emerald Barbour
- James Stevens
- Connor Scott

The University and we share the costs for their participation in our Music Program.

Please join us in thanking our Scholar Singers on June 8 at the Pentecost Picnic, their final Sunday with us. And, then, welcome our Scholar Singers back in the beginning of our Fall Program year.

Episcopal City Mission Summer Celebration

June 20th – 5:30-8:30pm – come to Grace Episcopal Church – corner of Argonne and Woodlawn in Kirkwood for a grand kick-off to summer and a great way to support Episcopal City Mission (ECM).

The evening is great for folks from one to one-hundred. Dinner, drinks (lemonade, beer and wine), and dessert are included in the admission price. There will be a kids area with playground, BOUNCE HOUSE, petting zoo all included and some fun carnival styled games sponsored by youth groups from around the diocese. There will be a raffle, silent auction and a beer wall too!

ECM provides chaplains to be present with the children in Juvenile Detention at St. Louis City Detention, St. Louis County Detention and Lakeside Residential Facility. ECM relies on donations from churches, individuals, grants and from our two fundraising events, Summer Celebration and Moment In Time (October 2, 2014).

The goal of Summer Celebration is many fold – a way to kick-off the summer with a fun event that is family friendly, a way to introduce ECM and our wonderful chaplains to families and friends from around the diocese, and a way to hopefully encourage more folks to become regular supporters of ECM at whatever level they are comfortable with, once a year donation or a monthly donation. No amount is too small!

Tickets will be on sale starting May 18 and are $15 per adult, $5 for children 5 and up, free for younger children with a $50 family max. All children will receive 5 tickets when they arrive to use for carnival games and tickets will be on sale at 50 cents each for additional fun!

Invite your family and friends – see you on the 20th of June.
