The Rector’s Message

Dear Friends,

One of the themes of Epiphany, is to share the light and hope of God with all of humanity. In one of the readings that appears on Sundays, Isaiah 49, there is a repetition of Isaiah’s sense that the Lord called him even before he was born to share hope and light with all people. In the womb God named him and formed him to be God’s servant. God’s calling is so intrinsic to Isaiah’s being that people can’t really dispute when God says through the prophet, “I’m not only for the ‘insiders’” (the tribes of Jacob and the survivors of Israel). The Lord says instead, “I will give you as a light to the nations that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth.” In other words, you are not only for your own but for the whole earth. This vision is of the Peaceable Kingdom. Isaiah points to the eschatological state, the fulfillment of God’s vision for humanity - is a vision of a world made whole and freed from its self-centeredness.

A while back, I came across a rather grim poem that punctuates humanity’s selfishness, prejudice, and our failing to work with others for the common good. Written by the poet James Patrick Kinney in the 1960’s "The Cold Within" was submitted to various publications, including the Saturday Evening Post, and was rejected for being too harsh and divisive, and yes, controversial. And, it is controversial! It is also said that Kinney based his poem on Rudyard Kipling’s poem, “If.” When it was finally shared at an ecumenical gathering, the religious leaders in attendance requested copies of it. Before long, “The Cold Within” was shared by congregations around the country.

Six humans trapped by happenstance
In bleak and bitter cold.
Each one possessed a stick of wood
Or so the story's told.

Their dying fire in need of logs
The first man held his back
For of the faces round the fire
He noticed one was black.

The next man looking 'cross the way
Saw one not of his church
And couldn't bring himself to give
The fire his stick of birch.

The third one sat in tattered clothes.
He gave his coat a hitch.
Why should his log be put to use
To warm the idle rich?

The rich man just sat back and thought
Of the wealth he had in store
And how to keep what he had earned
From the lazy shiftless poor.

The black man's face bespoke revenge
As the fire passed from his sight.
For all he saw in his stick of wood
Was a chance to spite the white.
The last man of this forlorn group
Did nought except for gain.
Giving only to those who gave
Was how he played the game.

Their logs held tight in death's still hands
Was proof of human sin.
They didn't die from the cold without
They died from the cold within.

Isaiah has a challenging word for any person, congregation or community that might be focusing exclusively on its own survival, its own "warmth." It is easy to fall into that pattern when we are scattered, when we are suffering, when we are threatened from without or fall into survival mode huddled around our fires. As the prophet also relates in another of his prophesies, God says, "It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to restore the survivors of Israel; I will give you as a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth." In other words, we are chosen and precious to God - but not just for our own sake. Too often, our thinking is too small if our vision is just to take care of our own. No, God calls the people of God to reflect God's light out into our neighborhoods, our communities, and then out beyond even our country's borders. God is not content until all people have had the opportunity to experience a new way of seeing, of being and made whole and warm.

Epiphany is a season of mission to reach out to all and to strengthen the bonds that tie us together as a human family. As our Fall Campaign recalled to us, at Emmanuel we are called to be Bold in Mission. As we go forth from our Annual Meeting, Isaiah reminds us is to serve the world, to reach out and be shaped by those we encounter to create a Peaceable Kingdom.

Peace,

Daniel

Thank you

Dear friends at Emmanuel,

Thank you for doing your part to help Gateway 180 end family homelessness in St. Louis! Without the support of volunteers like you, we would not be able to do the work that we do in the fight against homelessness. The gift of your time and the compassion you show to the people we serve is an inspiration and encouragement to us all. We hope to see you at the Gateway 180 again soon!

Thank you for your faithful support!

Abby Nolan & the G180 Team

As we move beyond Christmas to a New Year, with grateful hearts for all we've received, we can't help but remember it is often said that the rich get richer and the poor get poorer. As we watch the gap widen between those who have much and those who have little, for many of us it raises the questions “Can I do anything to make a difference?” and “What is God calling me to do?”

On January 22, 23 & 24, 2015, The Trinity Institute of New York City is presenting a conference designed to help answer those questions and to give each of us practical tools to use in our communities to make a positive impact. Emmanuel Episcopal Church of Webster Groves is acting as a partner site, allowing folks in this area to take part, through teleconferencing, in learning about this issue and what we can do to create change.

Please see the registration forms and sign up sheet on the bulletin board and make plans to join us!

VESTRY CANDIDATES SELECTED

Ida H. Early joined Emmanuel in 1998. She is an usher, chalice bearer, and a member of the Altar Guild. She chairs the Emmanuel Foundation's Planned Giving Committee. In the past, she has served as Convention Alternate and Delegate, as Senior Warden, and as chair of the Standing Committee of the Episcopal Diocese of Missouri. She was a member of the search committee that called the Right Rev. George Wayne Smith as Bishop. She traveled with the Bishop to our companion diocese of Lui in South Sudan in 2006.

Ida has served in several roles since 1982 at Washington University. She is now Secretary to the Board of Trustees. She has been an active community volunteer and was recognized for her leadership by the 2014 Women of Achievement award. She and her husband, Gerald, who is a professor at Washington University, frequently attend the 8:00 service.

Donna Erickson has been a member of Emmanuel since 1970 when she and her husband moved to St Louis after attending college (Wartburg) in Waverly, Iowa.

Donna is currently a member of the Choir; Co-Chair of the 2014 Stewardship Campaign, Chair of the Missions Committee, Facilitator and Founding Member of the Adult Mission Trip group (to Rosebud Lakota reservation in South Dakota), Member of the Liturgical Worship Committee (as Coordinator of Chalice Bearers), Lay Reader, and frequent member of Emmanuel Play Readers.

In the past, she has been a Senior High Youth Group Leader, Sunday School teacher, Planner/Facilitator for Children's Chapel, member of Creation Spirituality (a women's prayer group exploring different avenues/mediums for creativity and spiritual growth), member of the Diocesan Discernment Committee, Chair of the Parish Discernment Committee, Facilitator for Human Sexuality Workshops (in our parish and throughout the Diocese), Junior Warden/Vestry member, Member of Search Committee for Interim Rector, Coordinator of Diocesan Mission trip to New Orleans for Hurricane Katrina response and participant in numerous Diocesan workshops, events and retreats.

Roger Grow began attending Emmanuel in the early 1990s. He has worked in the Food Pantry, served at the Trinity Lutheran soup kitchen, and served as a reader, lector, and usher. He attended the adult mission trip to Rosebud the past 3 years, and played 2 decades for the Griffins co-ed softball team. Most recently, Roger began serving on the Finance Committee.

Roger and his wife Nancy moved to Webster Groves in 1978, where they raised their 3 children: Gary, Andrew, and Laura, all of whom served as acolytes. He has a Bachelor of Architecture from Miami University, and a Master of City Planning from Georgia Tech. In 2012 he retired after 20 years as Director of Planning for Webster Groves. Prior to that, he worked for 11 years at the St. Louis County Planning Department, rising to Director in 1989.

In addition to enjoying their 6 grandchildren and their chalet at Innsbrook, Roger and Nancy love to travel. Destinations have included safari in Tanzania, hiking the ruins of Machu Picchu, Australia, Europe, Hawaii, and Alaska.

Maryjane Hotaling Emmanuel has been home to the Hotalings since the minute they moved to Webster Groves from Ohio 14 years ago. Since joining Emmanuel, Maryjane has been active in Altar Guild (13 years); was Greeter Ministry Chair (3 years); is a greeter (lost count how many years); has assisted with Sunday morning Coffee Hour administration (even Coffee Hour has a bureaucracy; 2 years); and this year, has helped to coordinate Adult Forum programming. In the random category, Maryjane has helped with costumes for some summer plays and has been on the Belles of Christmas committee.

Before moving to Missouri, Maryjane was on the Vestry at All Saints Episcopal, a small, neighborhood church in the Pleasant Ridge section of Cincinnati. As Hospitality Chair there, she was provided the opportunity to clean out the church refrigerator and to make the coffee on Sunday morning, even though she's a tea drinker. Parishioner feedback indicated the wisdom of having coffee drinkers make the coffee from then on.

Maryjane is a cradle Episcopalian and has brought into the club her husband, Clark, and their two sons, Jackson and Thomas.

DELEGATE CANDIDATES

Al Ludwig and his wife Rachael have been members of Emmanuel since moving back to St. Louis from Columbia, Missouri in 2007. Both of their children were baptized at Emmanuel – Will (7) and Cate (4).

Al served on the board of the Emmanuel Center for the Young Years (Emmanuel Preschool) from 2011 through 2014 and was President for the 2013-14 school year. In addition, Al and Rachael were All-Parish Conference co-chairs in 2011, chaired the Advent Soup Supper in 2012, and Al chaired the summer breakfast program in 2013 and 2014. Al is currently a co-chair of Men of Emmanuel and served as an alternate delegate to the Diocesan Convention in 2014. He looks forward to the chance to serve Emmanuel again as a full delegate, and to become more involved at the Diocesan level as opportunities arise.

Andrew Bleyer teaches in Emmanuel's Godly Play program. He is married to Kim and they have two sons, Gavin, 6, and Abbot, 1. Andrew is an attorney at Bryan Cave where he focuses his practice on estate planning.

Witnessing Whiteness Book Discussion

On the four consecutive Sundays (2/1, 2/8, 2/15 and 2/22) in February, we will meet from 2-4 pm to discuss the book "Witnessing Whiteness" by Shelly Tochluk. This book is widely used in workshops and discussion groups as a framework for talking about racism.

Please sign up on the bulletin board next to the Food Center and plan to purchase the book prior to our first meeting.

Questions? Please contact Tricia Copeland or Donna Erickson.

ALTERNATE DELEGATE CANDIDATES

Chris Wagnon has been a member of Emmanuel since 1992. Throughout her time at Emmanuel she has served as a church school teacher, Vacation Bible School teacher, an usher, Altar Guild member, Food Center shopper, Emmanuel coordinator for UTO, and coordinator for various dinners and events. Her favorite will always be her one hour stint on the light board for the church musical Carousel. (though the cast that stood in a second or two of dark may not agree)

She works for Special School District in the Vocation Skills Program which coaches 18-21 yr. olds in job skills and helps transition them to life outside of school. This is a second (third) career after spending the first at Saint Louis Symphony doing special events followed by staying home with Ben and Elizabeth.

Jeannie Keyes is a life-long Episcopalian. Her husband Richard, her son Andrew, and Jeannie transferred to Emmanuel in 2005 from another Episcopal church where she was a Sunday School teacher. She has been on Altar Guild for two years, and this year, she is a Co-Chair. She has also been an usher for four years. Following a fall she experienced three years ago, her husband and Jeannie were blessed recipients of Martha's Meals. Since then, she is happy to participate in this ministry. She is able to nurture her love of reading through the Emmanuel Women's Book Club which she joined shortly after coming to Emmanuel. She looks forward to becoming an alternate delegate for Metro III and meeting Episcopalians from other parishes.

Adult Forum - Feb. 1 Confronting White Privilege: Mirrors of Privilege

In February, Adult Forum will present a series of three sessions on the social justice issue of white privilege. None of us would describe ourselves as prejudiced or racist, and yet, those of us who are white experience our world and culture, our city and community, quite differently than do people of color.

On Sunday, February 1, we will begin to examine these differences through the eyes of individuals interviewed for the video, "Mirrors of Privilege." Join us as we explore this critical facet of the racial divide.

Lend a hand and make a birthday brighter!

On February 6th Emmanuel will be the hosting church for the City Juvenile Detention Center Birthday Party.

Each month a different parish hosts the party. We provide snacks and gifts and entertainment and serve the cake and ice cream and beverages provided by the staff. This is an opportunity to sit with the children, be an attentive listener and an encourager! If you are interested in helping please let Mary Jane Kuhn know at kuhnconstruction@sbcglobal.net.

We usually gather at Emmanuel at 5pm and carpool to the center on Enright Ave. The party lasts about an hour or so and then we head back to church. This is a simple ministry of just being present with the youth but for many of them who lack adult role models it is a huge statement that they matter!

Please join the party!

MJ Kuhn

Jr. High News

Junior High attendance did not falter during the weeks following the Christmas break. We continue to average 12 lovely kids a week.

Rite 13 continues and, on January 4 there was a “just for fun” visit to The Edge for pizza and laser tag in the afternoon.

By the time you read this, we will have had another Rite 13 session and Brown Bag lunches will be delivered to Gateway 180 shelter for the homeless.

On January 11 Mitch brought into Rite 13, large pieces of posterboard. He then set out boxes of pastels, crayons, markers, and other crafty items and charged the kids with the chore of decorating them in such a way as to indicate who they were. Working together to get an outline of their head and shoulders on the paper, they proceeded to decorate with pictures, shapes or words that would say, “This is who I am and what I believe in and what I like to do.” The finished products ranged from very simple with maybe just a couple of stick figures or a couple of words, to elaborate cutouts and pictures of music notes, piano keys, flowers, crosses, baseballs and more. One was decorated with only vivid streaks of color.

Mitch closed the session with a prayer that went something like this: “Thank you for giving us this time together. We know you made us in your image and gave us gifts for living and for sharing. We also know that you love us in good times and times that are not so good and that you will take care of us always.”

Emmanuel Book Club - January 26 at 7:00 p.m.

Emmanuel Women’s Book Club meets on Monday night, January 26, when we’ll discuss William Kent Krueger’s Ordinary Grace. This award-winning coming-of-age story attempts to show how grace can work through the pain of suffering and loss. This mystery novel was a New York Times Bestseller that won both the 2014 Edgar Award for Best Novel and the 2014 Dilys Award. Please join us at 7:00 in the “Tree House Room” even if you haven’t had a chance to read the book...and feel free to invite friends, family, or other Emmanuelites to come with you and share our fellowship and light refreshments.

Next up, for our February 23 meeting, is Unbroken by Laura Hillenbrand, the bestselling author of Seabiscuit and several other acclaimed books. By now, seemingly everyone has heard of Hillenbrand’s inspiring true story of a man who lived through a series of catastrophes almost too incredible to be believed. She tells the story of Louie Zamperini, a juvenile delinquent, an Olympic runner, and an heroic airman, whose plane crashed during a routine search mission over the Pacific.

If you have questions or wish to be added to the Book Club email list, please contact Ann McReynolds at 960-0560 or ARMcR@arm-mra.com.

A Reflection on Monte Morgan by Judd Holt

Monte was for years in charge of facilities management. At that time, he had to worry not only about keeping the church in good repair. He also had to fret about a rectory that seemed to be crumbling.

He took the job very seriously. And despite constant and countless problems and frustrations, he handled it well.

One Sunday Monte was given the opportunity to talk at Adult Forum about some of the work that had been done and, more important, all the work that should be done. And in doing so, he caused gales of laughter with this remark:

“We must have eight or ten lawyers in this parish, I’d trade them all for one plumber.”
