Telling the Truth

This past weekend I had the privilege of joining our clergy, parishioners and others from around the diocese in a conference of The Trinity Institute called, “Creating Common Good.” The topic of the conference was the state of economic inequality in America and our role as Christians in this system, locally and globally. It was a riveting discussion with several captivating speakers, including: Justin Welby, The Archbishop of Canterbury, Cornel West, distinguished professor and writer, Barbara Ehrenreich, author of “Nickel and Dimed,” and Robert Reich, former Secretary of Labor, just to name a few. They were all eloquent and educated speakers with a passion for justice that I have rarely seen broadcast on such a large scale in the name of The Episcopal Church. And while they each had a unique piece of the story to tell and individual experiences to share, the theme that kept ringing in my mind as they spoke was the power of telling the Truth.

Truth telling. It seems like an easy undertaking, right? Just be honest, right? Sadly, we have convinced ourselves that life is not quite so simple. Years of conditioning have caused us to form a culture that is largely wrapped up in dishonesty with ourselves and others that allows us to plead ignorance of our involvement in a system that benefits a few and leaves most struggling to get by. Often we hold back from speaking Truth for the sake of protecting ourselves and our place in society. Our culture of dishonesty is safe and comfortable. It allows me to drive a safe and reliable vehicle, sleep in a warm bed, and eat three square meals a day while others go without. It allows me to always be becoming a Christian without ever actually being one.

And so today I ask myself, “Who has the courage to tell the Truth?” Who can admit that the luxuries we enjoy often keep others from affording the basic necessities? Now, I am not naive. I realize that the economic system is much more complicated than this. Yet, at the same time, I have witnessed and participated in a system of dishonesty that allows us to rest in our comfort rather than wrestle with the radical nature of the Gospel of Jesus Christ who is the way, the Truth, and the life.

Lenten Program 2015 Wednesday Evening Programs

This year, all our classes will be offered on Wednesday evenings so that we will be together with programs and care for all. Schedule:

5:30-6:30	Potluck Supper
6:30 – 7:25	Classes for Adults, Activities for Kids, and Nursery Care
7:25 - 7:30	Compline

Classes for Adults

1. Parenting for Racial Justice – Courtney Schaeffer

How our kids grow up depends on what we, as parents teach them. Come join other Emmanuel parents for new insights and discussion about raising our children to respect the dignity of every human being in a society that sometimes doesn't.

2. The Gospel of Mark – Martie Metzler and Andrew Bleyer

Come and explore the gospel we will be reading throughout most of the Sundays of this year. We will examine narrative, themes, and basic understandings of the writer and earliest readers of Mark to try to understand the message of Jesus and our invitation to participate in the coming of God's Kingdom. We will be using an approach developed by Ched Myers, Biblical Scholar, educator, and activist.

3. Seeking a Just Economy – Melanie Slane

We will focus on economic inequality in the United States and around the world using videos pertaining to the subject that have been produced by Trinity Wall Street. Featured video speakers include: Justin Welby, The Archbishop of Canterbury, Cornel West, distinguished professor and writer, Barbara Ehrenreich, author of "Nickel and Dimed," Robert Reich, former Secretary of Labor, and many more. The course will be facilitated by The Rev. Melanie Slane, who will provide time for thoughtful discussion on our role in the economy as faithful Christians. In the words of Cornel West, "We don't want de-odorized discourse. We keep it funky." Please join me in this lively discussion and be sure to bring a friend.

Activities for Kids

All kids from 4 to 11 are invited and encouraged to join in the fun. Stories, Crafts, DVDs, board games, and a homework table will be available in a friendly setting while parents are freed up to attend classes. Rooms and specific activities will be posted.

(Please note: All kids 12 and under will need to be with their parents or in the supervised activities rooms. Cherub and Junior Choirs will meet as usual, and choir members will be escorted back and forth to their rehearsals during that time.)

Witnessing Whiteness Book Discussion

On the four consecutive Sundays (2/1, 2/8, 2/15 and 2/22) in February, we will meet from 2-4 pm to discuss the book "Witnessing Whiteness" by Shelly Tochluk. This book is widely used in workshops and discussion groups as a framework for talking about racism.

Please sign up on the bulletin board next to the Food Center and plan to purchase the book prior to our first meeting.

Questions? Please contact Tricia Copeland or Donna Erickson.

Lenten Ingathering—Solea Water

Shoeman Water projects has changed its name. Solea Water will be doing the same thing as Shoeman except they will be concentrating on Latin America.

Shoeman Water Projects and Water for Panama have partnered to launch Solea Water on January 1, 2015. Solea Water collects and sells donated shoes to improve the environment and provide life's most basic need, clean drinking water, in ways that create jobs and bring hope to communities in Latin America.

Peg Cooper

Emmanuel Choir Guest Soloist Randell McGee

Many people have inquired about the soloist in the Emmanuel Choir anthem "My God is a Rock" on Sunday, January 25, prior to the Annual Meeting. He is Randell McGee, a Junior Vocal Performance major at Webster University and recipient of the James Moroney Nigh Opera Scholarship.

At Webster, he sings with the Chamber Singers and is a member of the Opera Studio. Last spring, he and Scholar Singer James Stevens won two of the three scholarships available at the Union Avenue Opera Crescendo Awards, and this past fall he took second place in the National Association of Teachers of Singing competition held at Truman State University.

Emmanuel Adult Forum - Sunday, February 8 at 10:30 a.m.

Whether or not we choose to admit it, we who are white live under a protective wing that gives us many advantages in our society and culture. It also shields us from the reality of life as a person of color in a dominant, white society.

In the February 1 Adult Forum, we heard the voices of individuals, speaking frankly in the video, “Mirrors of Privilege,” as they confronted their sense of white privilege. On Sunday, February 8, we will participate in experiential exercises to examine our own perceptions and experiences of white privilege.

Maryjane Hotaling

Emmanuel Adult Forum - Sunday, February 15 at 10:30 a.m.

We have recently been discussing racism and social justice at church in light of the Ferguson protests. Inevitably, equalizing educational opportunity quickly surfaced. It was also a part of the discussions at the Trinity Institute held at Emmanuel: the lack of a good education directly correlates to economic inequality.

How can equal educational opportunity be attained for minority children? What is needed to overcome the obstacles they face? Do the schools have the ability and means to create a learning environment to address the differences these students bring to the learning process?

The Emmanuel Adult Forum Committee wanted a success story, and Marian Middle School in St. Louis is at the top of the list. We are fortunate that on Sunday, February 15, for the adult forum, we will hear from Ms. Mary Elizabeth Grimes, President of the Marian School. Ms. Grimes is a native St. Louisan. She earned an Executive MBA from the Olin School of Business at Washington University in St. Louis and an BA from Spelman College in Atlanta. We have asked to share the following:

What is the experience of the Marian School in working with students from disadvantaged backgrounds? Why has it succeeded? Can its success be replicated in a different environment? In the public schools? Marian School incorporates the Nativity Miguel model for its educational programs and credits it for much of its success. Ms. Grimes will explain this program, and, again, discuss its applicability in a public school setting.

The mission of Marian School tells a lot about the school:

“Marian Middle School, a Catholic school serving adolescent girls of all religious, racial, and ethnic backgrounds, is committed to breaking the cycle of poverty by fostering their spiritual, academic, social, moral, emotional, and physical development in preparation for and successful completion of college preparatory high schools.”

Please make plans to attend this informative and timely session.

Boy Scouts Assist Emmanuel Food Center

Thanks to three Boy Scouts from local Troop 981, the Food Center storage shelves are labeled and organized for supporting 2015 community support. Boy Scouts A.J. Eckstein, Nick Hepburn, and Justin Pool with the rank of 'Star' worked tirelessly to develop a reorganization storage plan, make commodity signs and post them on the shelves, reassemble food items in appropriate flats, consolidate like food items, separate expired food items for disposal, and brake down and dispose of excess storage boxes/flats. They also learned how Food Center volunteers receive referrals, process and fill orders to assist those in need throughout the community as part of their effort to earn their Community Service merit badge. "Job well done guys!"

About the Parish Family

Bobby Dean Myers, Father of Martin Myers and Grandfather of Elijah and Hannah Myers, died on January 1, 2015.

May light perpetual shine upon him.

Thank you very much

Thank you so much for the generous donation of classroom chairs and a table to our church. You have blessed us.

Jen Hahn & the Riverside Church

Webster Rock Hill Ministries thanks you for your generous donation of $1000.00 We appreciate your support and ask that you remember us in your prayers as we continue this community-wide effort together.

Lend a Hand and make a Birthday Brighter!

On February 6th Emmanuel will be the hosting church for the City Juvenile Detention Center Birthday Party.

Each month a different parish hosts the party. We provide snacks and gifts and entertainment and serve the cake and ice cream and beverages provided by the staff. This is an opportunity to sit with the children, be an attentive listener and an encourager! If you are interested in helping please let Mary Jane Kuhn know at kuhnconstruction@sbcglobal.net.

We usually gather at Emmanuel at 5pm and carpool to the center on Enright Ave. The party lasts about an hour or so and then we head back to church. This is a simple ministry of just being present with the youth but for many of them who lack adult role models it is a huge statement that they matter!

Please join the party!

Martha's Meals

Now that we've all had a little space to recover from the holidays and it feels like spring may be coming, it's time to remind everyone of the wonderful volunteer opportunity available to you in Martha's Meals. As many of you know, Martha's Meals is a ministry that provides meal assistance to parishioners who have been ill, hospitalized, recently had a baby, or the like.

Volunteers provide a meal either by cooking food themselves or by buying a meal from a grocery deli, a restaurant, or a catering service such as The Art of Entertaining. No one is "assigned" to provide a particular meal, but volunteers for a meal as it fits their schedule. If you would like to volunteer with us but can't handle the cost of a whole meal yourself, feel free to join with a friend to serve as a volunteer team.

For further questions or to add your name(s) to our volunteer list, please contact Shari Kelts at 314-601-1638 or email sharikelts@sbcglobal.net. Those you help with meals will warm your heart with their response to this reminder that they are part of a caring parish family!

Jr. High News

On January 25, while most of the congregation was attending the Annual Meeting, the Junior High kids met downstairs to draft the Prayers of the People. By the time you read this, you will have heard some of the youth offer up these prayers on Youth Sunday, February 1.

Many times, I have heard people say they would be staying home on Youth Sunday. I say, “What a shame!” Emmanuel is now 150 years old. Let us not just celebrate the fact that we are old but that we are also blessed with a vibrant, loving group of young people to carry on for us and spread God's love. Some of them will graduate from college or move on to other jobs or lives and not move back to St. Louis. But they will always remember their young years and the influence Emmanuel's youth group and the support of this parish had on their growing up years. And maybe they will be part of a similar activity in churches all over the country and even the world. The prayers you heard on Youth Sunday are the words of Junior High kids. They helped as ushers. Others who had no specific role were in attendance to offer support.

The sermons you heard were the words of the Senior High kids who delivered them. They may not have the polish and delivery that comes with years of study and experience, but those words come from their hearts.

Don't stay home on Youth Sunday.

Marie Holt

Vestry Vibes

On Sunday, January 25 during the Annual Meeting we said thank you to Tricia Copeland, Jim Lemonds and Lee Nelson for their service and guidance over the past several years while on Vestry, welcomed Ida Early, Donna Erickson, Roger Grow, and Maryjane Hotaling as new members, and announced the new Senior Warden, Mark DeYoung, during a delightful breakfast and surprisingly quick meeting.

At the first 2015 Vestry meeting that followed shortly thereafter, Ann Marie Ruhlin, Diana Knapp, and Suzie Florent graciously accepted to serve again in their previous roles as Junior Warden, Treasurer and Secretary respectively. We are happy and grateful to have you, Mark and Dan as leaders and mentors. We are also thankful to have those who serve us as Diocesan Convention Delegates and alternatives (Al Ludwig, Andrew Bleyer, Chris Wagon, and Jeannie Keyes).

In reflecting back on the Annual Meeting while Dan was recognizing all those who give their time, talents and hearts to those within our parish and our brothers and sisters outside, I was thinking how lucky and blessed Emmanuel is and thankful to be part of its' family.

During my first year on Vestry, the month to month meetings reviewing the operations of the parish seemed to be straight forward and fairly easy however as the life often does we were thrown a curve ball. Should the Vestry and parish sit quite while our home town is turned upside down or do we actively engaged in conversation with our fellow brothers and sisters in our community. Tricia's reflection on her time on Vestry and how she has grown and been challenged is a good reminder to us all that we not only belong to a wonderful parish home but that we are all part of a large family that God welcomes us to and that we should embrace.

PLAY READERS PRESENT "TWELVE ANGRY MEN"

The Emmanuel Play Readers invite you to their production of "Twelve Angry Men" by Reginald Rose on Friday, February 13. Doors open at 6:30 pm and the production starts at 7 pm. Admission, which includes refreshments, is $4.

We will be using the script from the original live television drama that appeared on CBS Studio One on September 20, 1954 with Robert Cummings and Franchot Tone in the leading roles. The script was expanded and made into a 1957 film starring Henry Fonda and Lee J. Cobb. It was later made into a play and a 1997 film remake with Jack Lemmon and George C. Scott.

The script is still timely, even 60 years later, as it lays bare the prejudices and preconceptions of jurors in a murder trial. Our cast includes both men and women! Penny Allen and Karl Reif appear in the leading roles. Other cast members are Dick Clark, Bill Cochran, Janet Dobbs, Donna Erickson, Bob Feldmann, Jim Groetsch, Shari Kelts, Ian MacBryde, Jack Martin, Bunny Reif, and Gary Tappana.
