A Walk in Creation

Recently, I had the exquisite pleasure of walking through gentle woods with a group of women, soaking up the beauty of creation and the companionship of friends. It was a lovely, quiet, walk, not an athletic event or a hike; a time to see and hear spring breaking into the creation. Bird calls, mayflowers, a little creek bed of watercress, a big, enthusiastic dog who gave us the vicarious pleasure of watching him wallow in the creek.... Although I kept half an eye out, and mayflowers are said to portend the presence of morels, no mushrooms were found. We took “nothing but pictures”; left “nothing but footprints,” in John Muir’s parlance. It was just a time to soak up the beauty and splendor of God’s handiwork, including, most certainly, the sisters with whom I walked.

For a while we walked right along the banks of the wide Missouri River, where I recalled the diaries of the Pioneer women who began their treacherous journey to Oregon on the very waters I watched from the safety of a rock ledge.

Returning to the comfort of our hostess’ log cabin we reveled in the handiwork of her grandfather who in the 1930s, employed construction techniques and styles typical for a 19th Century Missouri cabin, completely congruent with its woodland site. Such a labor of love long ago, created our shelter when a spring shower drove us indoors.

I won’t deny that it was a great bonus to share a delectable lunch, a little woman-made treat in the midst of all that God-made natural beauty. Although we did not pray, or even mention God, for me it was a holy day, permeated with a sense of reverence. I returned from the woods filled with gratitude, and feeling connected; connected to my dear sisters with whom I traveled to that spot of beauty; connected to the creation in the intimacy of a wildflower and in the majesty of the rolling river; connected to our forbears who paved the way for us; connected to God, the ultimate author of all these good things. Perhaps the sense of connection to those things so much greater than ourselves is the very definition of reverence.

When Moses encountered the holy, he took off his shoes in reverence. May I, and we, walk lightly, and reverently, over all holy manifestations of creation by which we are blessed.

As we move towards the summer schedule, one traditional benefit is the Sunday Summer Breakfast. Each Sunday from June 14 through August 16, an Emmanuel Organization prepares and serves Breakfast in the Dining Room from 8:45-9:30.

- Come and learn about what a certain group does at Emmanuel...a chance to join in for the upcoming year if your heart so moves you
- Come once...come each week...the more the merrier!

WEBSTER-ROCK HILL MINISTRIES SUMMER CAMP SPONSOR AND VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

For 21 years the Ministries has offered a camp experience to children ages 5-12 that provides meals, is within walking distance from home, that bridges the educational gap between academic years and provides experiences outside their community. The opportunity to transition from campers to junior counselors is offered to teenagers.

Funding for the camp comes from grant providers and donations from individuals, churches and other organizations. The budget for this year is $14,500 and funding assistance for the Camp Director, Asst. Director, individual camper or camp supply expenses is needed. Camp dates are June 8 thru July 24, 2015

Volunteers are also needed for field trips/swimming, reading to the children, cooking projects, providing lunches and just to help where needed.

For more information contact WRHM Director Ed Johnson at 314-961-5082

Episcopal City Mission's (ECM) annual fundraiser Summer Celebration is quickly approaching!

This year's event will take place at Grace Episcopal Church in Kirkwood on Friday, June 19th. In 2014, ECM added a carnival theme to Summer Celebration in order to make the event more family friendly. Thanks to groups from CSMSG, Grace, Ascension & St. Barnabas, Deaconess Anne House, Holy Communion, and St. Peter's, Summer Celebration 2014 was a huge success and ECM would like to continue this theme for 2015.

There will be food, booths with games, prizes, an auction, and fellowship with the diocesan community! Because ECM is an organization that works with youth, the staff is seeking the involvement of youth groups and their leaders around the Diocese for the event. You are cordially invited to have your youth group design and host a carnival booth at Summer

Celebration! If it seems too daunting to host a booth by yourself, consider joining forces with another church! The booth can be any carnival game your youth group desires, but ECM has a list of ideas if needed. The youth of the Diocese would have the ability to receive service hours while working for a cause that seeks to further the opportunities for young people not too different from themselves—and have fun in the process!

Please consider working collaboratively with this great organization on their summer fundraiser. RSVP to Rhonda Choflet at ecitymission@sbcglobal.net. If you are interested or would like more information, please do not hesitate to contact the ECM office at 314-436-3545.

Emmanuel Women's Book Club

Monday, June 1 at 7:00 p.m.

We will discuss Bel Canto, a 2001 novel by Ann Patchett, which was awarded both the Orange Prize for Fiction and PEN/Faulkner Award for Fiction.

The name "Bel Canto" means "beautiful singing" in Italian, and it identifies a type of early 19th century Italian opera known for its lyricism and vocal virtuosity...think Rossini, Donizetti, and Bellini. This book set in an unnamed South American city relates how a group of terrorists and their hostages cope with living together in a house for several months. As the book title suggests, opera is used in the story to draw the characters together, since one of the main characters is a world famous opera singer.

Month of Guided Prayer is Coming to Emmanuel!

Want to deepen your prayer life? Would you like to learn about how God is active in your life? Then the Month of Guided Prayer, or A Retreat in Everyday Life may be for you!

Coming this fall (October 18 to November 15) to Emmanuel Episcopal Church and co-hosted by Christ Lutheran Church of Webster Groves, the Month of Guided Prayer is an ecumenical retreat program for adults that is personalized to fit your spiritual needs.

What is a Month of Guided Prayer, you may ask? It is a retreat in which one doesn't have to travel, or take time off, or stop one's regular lifestyle and commitments. Rather, a Month of Guided Prayer (or MGP) is an opportunity to grow closer to God while continuing one's job, parenting, retirement, or what have you!

What does a Month of Guided Prayer involve? Making a commitment to pray 20 minutes a day for one month, and meeting with a prayer guide once a week (or four times total) during that month. Prayer Guides are usually trained spiritual directors who are experienced at accompanying others in their faith journeys.

Emmanuel's and Christ Church Lutheran's MGP will begin and end with a 90-minute session at Emmanuel on October 18 and November 15. In between those dates, retreatants will meet one-on-one with their prayer guides in private spaces at Christ Lutheran Church.

There is no registration cost for a Month of Guided Prayer, but participants are invited to make a freewill offering to offset the costs of the retreat, which usually runs about $48/person.

Want to learn more (or ready to sign up)? Then please call Emmanuel parishioner Sally Macke at 314-330-3354 and she can answer your questions. Or visit the Week/Month of Guided Prayer's website at <http://www.weekofguidedprayer.org>.
