Melanie’s Article

Inquiry is a dangerous thing, but then, so is love. Just as C.S. Lewis writes of Aslan in The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe, something or someone does not have to be safe to be good.

Asking tough questions can be a dangerous venture, but it can also be incredibly life-giving. One thing that I love about the Episcopal Church is our freedom to ask tough questions, and to often leave conversations with more questions than definitive answers. I am thankful for a faith that does not tell me what to think, but rather asks me to consider Scripture, reason, and tradition when building a foundation for my beliefs, as an individual and as a member of a community.

Over the years I have had many friends and family members who argue that the Via Media stance of the Episcopal Church leads to a faith that has no root, no doctrine. But I know that this could not be further from the truth. The Episcopal Church is very clear about what it believes and what it doesn’t, while at the same time allowing for many opinions within the spectrum. This freedom allows us to worship with people of many faiths from all over the world and at the same time stand in church on Sunday and say the Nicene Creed with honesty and confidence. This freedom allows us to sit next to one another, shoulder to shoulder, in the pews of our church, while our political ideologies would keep us separated left from right. This freedom allows for some of us to believe in the virgin birth while others hold firm to the impossibility of such a divine intervention.

Inquiry, investigation, tough questions are not safe, but they are good. Just like God, and just like the Gospel of Jesus Christ, we are invited to struggle toward goodness, not safety. We are asked not to sit idly by while pain and violence rage in our cities, in our schools, and in our homes, but rather to, “Seek the truth. Come whence it may; cost what it will.”

For those of you who are new to Emmanuel, or those who would like to dig deeper into your faith, I would like to personally invite you to step out of the safety of your assumptions, your stances, and join us in the Emmanuel Inquirers' Class this fall. Together we will discover the goodness of who we are and what we can do if we embrace our shared and differing theologies and let God work in and among us as we ask tough questions.

Sincerely,

The Rev. Melanie Slane

Emmanuel, Mark Your Calendar!

This is your chance to not only talk the talk about fighting hunger, but walk the walk for one of the world's most important causes. The 2014 St. Louis CROP Hunger Walk will be held Sunday, October 12, beginning and ending at Eden Seminary. Same day registration starts at 12:30 pm, with a 3 mile and 1 mile walk starting at 1:30 pm. The walk's purpose is to raise money and donations to fight world hunger and bring our community together to support this vital effort. Versus a few people or families giving a lot, our goal is to reach our entire congregation and seek a small donation and participation from everyone. More walk details and registration information will be announced and made available in September, a good 4-5 weeks before the walk. Please stay tuned! More to come!

Lydia's House In-gathering

Lydia's House, a shelter for women and their children who have experienced domestic violence, offers "a place of healing, a voice of hope" for those who live there and learn new skills as well as undergo job training and education for approximately two years.

Emmanuel has been helping to support the residents of Lydia's House for the past few years in several ways. Emmanuel provides the meal for a weekly community dinner at least three times a year. Also, Emmanuel collects products in October during Domestic Violence Awareness Month. This year we are collecting the following products: paper towels, paper napkins, toilet paper, disposable diapers of all sizes, feminine products, body wash, liquid laundry detergent, and dish-washing detergent.

Collection boxes for donations will be in the dining room from October 2 until November 2. Please give generously to help these women and children in their new lives of hope. If you have questions, please call Laura McCord at 738-9139.

Food Center News

It has been quite a few months since the Food Center was close to zero funds and we needed to order our dry milk supply. The best price for the two year supply was close to a thousand dollars which we did not have. We decided to tell the parish family that the Food Center would have to close without any money to buy groceries and this wonderful family responded.

The response began immediately and has continued through the months so that now we can say our balance is healthy and we can continue our mission to help feed the hungry in our own area of 63119 and neighboring zip codes.

Thank you for your wonderful response to our call for help.

For the Food Center
Ann Bain

It will be run by the Mississippi Valley Blood Center: they have done a terrific job for us for the past 5 years. Please save your corpuscles for us!! There is a great need for blood products now.

Jr. High News

On August 24th the junior high kids and their parents met with the youth leaders in the downstairs classroom. After introductions, a preliminary calendar of events was distributed followed by a discussion of the goals of the program and what was needed from the parents. After a little mingling, the parents went home and the kids played a few “getting to know you” games. Then it was off to the home of Mitch and Kay Faddis and their beautiful pool. Mitch fired up the grill and wonderful food ensued. The kids swam, ate and played together as if they had always been best friends. Nobody seemed to mind that the thermometer was inching toward 100 degrees.

The unusual thing about this year's meeting was the much larger number of family members showing up at the meeting. The room was full and there was scrambling for additional chairs. Also, there were a lot of younger siblings in attendance. And as I looked at these youngsters, I saw the future when they would be ready for their Jr.Hi. kick-off party and how grateful we are to Emmanuel parishioners for the unwavering support they have given the program over the years.

Junior high leaders had their first meeting on September 8, with a preview of the next couple of months and discussions of scheduling and a few minor changes to the calendar. For instance, the first brown-bag preparation will follow Rite 13 on September 21 and the mission trip presentation has been moved to September 28.

SAVE THE DATE *for

EMPTY BOWLS 2014

a soup supper to benefit Webster-Rock Hill Ministries to be served at First Congregational Church in Webster Groves
SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 2014

The basic premise of EMPTY BOWLS is simple: potters, other craftspeople and educators work with the community to create bowls. In exchange for a cash donation, guests enjoy a simple meal of soup and bread then they may select a handcrafted bowl as a reminder of all the empty bowls in the world. The money raised is used to address hunger and food insecurity in our community.

WEBSTER-ROCK HILL MINISTRIES - Building Hope . . . Finding Alternatives, since 1982, has worked cooperatively with churches to fulfill our commission to serve people. We strive to create alternatives for those who feel they have none. We provide for emergency needs, counsel, referrals; we manage a clearing house for churches in their ministries.

- ❖ Put the date on your church calendar as a reminder to the congregation to come for supper
- ❖ Organize a bowl-making group (guilds, youth, Vacation Bible School); bowls are due October 15
- ❖ Invite a member of the congregation to coordinate participation and ticket sales
- ❖ More details and tickets will be available in September
- ❖ For more information and to offer help during the event contact Marilyn Claggett (314 968 1653) or Webster-Rock Hill Ministries ( 314 961 5082)

Emmanuel Book Club Monday, September 29 at 7:00 p.m.

Our fall schedule resumes on Monday night, September 29, when we'll meet to discuss David Baldacci's Saving Faith, a CIA thriller. Here's a titillating summary of the book:

In a secluded house not far from Washington, D.C., the FBI is interviewing one of the most important witnesses it has ever had, a young woman named Faith Lockhart. For Faith has done too much, knows too much, and she'll tell too much. Feared by some of the most powerful men in the world, Faith has been targeted to die. But when a private investigator walks into the middle of the assassination attempt, the shooting suddenly goes wrong, and an FBI agent is killed. Now Faith Lockhart must flee for her life, with her story, her deadly secret, and an unknown man she's forced to trust....

Please join us at 7:00 in the "Tree House Room" aka #204...and feel free to invite friends, family, or other Emmanuelites to come with you and share our fellowship and light refreshments. If you have questions or wish to be added to the Book Club email list, please contact Ann McReynolds at 960-0560 or ARMcR@arm-mra.com.

John Denver Songfest

Hi Folks,

John Denver has long been one of my favorite artists. On Sunday, October 19, at 2 pm, long time friends Sue St. John, John Grimaud, Chris Stephens, Bill Rogers and I will perform 25 of his songs - including Follow Me, Sunshine on My Shoulders, Country Roads, Leaving on a Jet Plane, Back Home Again, Annie's Song, and many others at the Kirkwood Amphitheater in beautiful Kirkwood Park. (Located just west of downtown Kirkwood, at the intersection of Geyer Road and Adams) This is a very informal and family friendly event. Refreshments will be available in Kirkwood Park; or you can bring your own.

At the half way point, we will take a free will offering to benefit Episcopal City Mission (ECM). ECM provides non-denominational chaplaincy services to children in the St. Louis and St. Louis County juvenile detention centers and Lakeside Center. For further information on ECM, please follow this link:

<http://www.ecitymission.org/>

Note: In the event of inclement weather, the concert will be held at Grace Episcopal Church, 514 E Argonne Dr., Kirkwood, MO 63122.

Hope to see you on the 19th; and as JD would say, "Far Out!"

Bill Wolf, former Director of Lakeside Center for Juveniles, and member of the ECM Board of Directors

Fellowship Dinners Return September 17, 2014

The Fall Fellowship Dinners will start up on Wednesday September 17 at 5:30 pm. Meals are served buffet style and there is always a salad bar to accompany the entrée! We serve coffee, lemonade and water and there is always DESSERT! Cost for all this food and fellowship is only $3 per person or $10 family max. We are hoping to recruit some folks to help with each dinner. Please check out the ways you can help and sign-up on the Fellowship Dinner Poster. If you have any questions please email MJ Kuhn at Kuhn Construction@sbcglobal.net Thanks in advance for signing up!

MJ and Pam

Fellowship Dinners Need Your Help

Line Help

Arrive at 5:30 pm and help the kitchen crew keep all the dishes filled, including the drink table. Work from 5:30 – 6:15 pm and then just enjoy your dinner.

Clean-up Help

Come and eat, visit with friends and about 6:15 pm head into the kitchen to help with dishes and packing up food. Out of there by 7:15-7:30 pm

Guest Chef

If you have a special dish you make and would like to share it with the parish we would love to know about it and help you plan to serve it to 120+/- of your parish friends. You do not have to do it alone, MJ and Pam will work with you!

Something New at Fellowship Dinners

I don't know about everyone but I bet there are many of my fellow parishioners who say Grace and meals thanking God for all the blessings and for the food we eat. Well it dawned on us that perhaps we should take a moment at the fellowship dinners and give God our joint thanks.

Dan has recruited the help of the clergy to come up with some simple Graces that can be said. We would like someone each week to pick a prayer and lead us in Grace. We will do this at 6:10 pm, sort of the middle of the dinner but hoping for the most folks to hear and participate.

If you have a special Grace that you would like to share that would be wonderful. Please see the sign up poster to volunteer.

Women of Emmanuel Unite . . . Over Food, Fun, and Fellowship!

Join with other lively and interesting women of all ages for conversation, dessert, and to welcome The Reverend Melanie Slane to Emmanuel. In honor of Melanie's approaching motherhood, we'll be collecting words of wisdom and favorite children's books.

Festivities will begin at 7:00 p.m. on Friday, September 26 at the home of Jen Dunn, 111 Summit Avenue in Webster Groves. RSVP to Penny Allen at 314-374-0085 or pwallen83@gmail.com.

WOE Speaker Series – Save the Date

On Tuesday evening, October 21, The Very Rev. Mike Kinman, Dean of Christ Church Cathedral will be our featured speaker for the WOE dinner.

As women and children causes are very important to the heart of the Women of Emmanuel, Mike will be speaking to us about Magdalene St. Louis. Magdalene is a St. Louis based nonprofit start-up that offers women who have survived lives of abuse, prostitution, and addiction a safe place: two years of housing, support, and education at no cost. They invite women coming out of correctional facilities or off the streets into a compassionate and disciplined community where they can recover and rebuild their lives.

We are honored to have Mike Kinman with us. Please save the date for this dinner and powerful speaker WOE event. Further details will follow.

Mart Mitchell and Mimi Shipp, co-chairs.
