Together in the Household of God

For some of us, this time between All Saints and Thanksgiving is difficult, as the culture begins to anticipate the joy and merriment of the holidays and we remember those whom we miss.

The Octave (week plus one day) of All Saints has been memorable for Emmanuel this year. Even as we were reading our necrology, or lighting candles in memory of our loved ones at our All Saints Eucharists on Sunday, more loved ones were beginning their new chapter of life with God. Our ranks diminished as the Great Company of Heaven grew by two more of our beloved members, and the father of another. These losses remind us of other losses, new and longstanding. As I write this, we anticipate our Veterans Day Service in which we recall those who have served in the armed forces of our country, and particularly recall the names of those who gave their lives doing that.

The Baptismal candle stands strong at the font, at the front of the church, reminding us that the indwelling Christ is theirs from their baptism, and therefore, nothing can ever separate them from the love of God. Yet, we deeply feel the pain of our separation from them.

It is not only death that causes this kind of separation from loved ones. Sometimes, those sitting next to us in the pews are bearing the pain of seeing the ones they love slip away into disease or disability of body, mind, or spirit. Sometimes, as the holidays approach, we are just missing loved ones who live far away. As the days grow darker and the chill of autumn signals the holidays coming, how do we find a path of life in the face of our losses? There are myriad suggestions, and we will be printing some in weeks to come, but the first is this: together; together in the household of God.

At times of loss, we need God and one another more than ever. We need our faith community because it is one of the few places in the world that will allow us to be sad when we are sad, or even fearful when that is appropriate, but who will then scoop us up in a Thanksgiving Feast where we can experience the joy of hope in the midst of our grief.

God tells us and we recognize that our sadness or brokenness does not devalue who we are as children of God, or our roles as members of the Body of Christ. If a part of our body is sprained or broken, we take extra special care of it; we splint it, support it, nourish it for healing, and tenderly give it gentle exercise for strength. We do the same for one another. All are welcome here and welcome to be simultaneously, or in turn, broken and blessed.

In a paraphrase of Isaiah 55, "Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and all who are empty, let them come to the Lord. Without money, without price, come and buy wine and milk."

Come and be blessed. If you are on top of the world, and everything in your life is exactly as you would wish, Come. If you are feeling down, alone, or unable to celebrate, Come. Whether it is our Emmanuel Thanksgiving Eucharist, the shared turkey dinner feast later in the day, or a regular Sunday Eucharist, Come. As you are. Grief shared is grief divided; joy shared is joy multiplied. Come, with your sadness, with your joy, and let us together be blessed by the love of God we share.

MEN OF EMMANUEL

Come to a special meeting of the Men of Emmanuel (MOE) on Sunday, November 23rd at 11:30 in the dining room. Be part of the discussion to chart the future of MOE.

Meet the new Co- Chairs, Al Ludwig and Scot Copeland who have agreed to lead us on, with the help of Bill Cochran. This is your chance to volunteer to be part of the team, or to express your ideas for MOE going forward.

Emmanuel Food Center News

The Emmanuel Food Center continues to be in need of brown paper grocery bags. Please keep us in mind after your shopping excursions.

Thank you!

FALL
CLEAN-UP DAY
AT EMMANUEL

 Saturday, November 22
 from 8:00 to noon.

We need a host of volunteers for Emmanuel's annual fall clean up. We have a number of important outdoor and indoor projects to complete before winter's arrival.

Please come and bring rakes, shovels, wheelbarrows, etc if you can.

Lunch will be served.

About the Parish Family

The sympathy of the parish is extended to the family and friends of long time parishioner, Ann Bain who passed away on November 2. May light perpetual shine upon her.

We also extend the sympathy of the parish to the family and friends of parishioner, Susan Corrington, who passed away on November 6. May light perpetual shine upon her.

Gifts to the Emmanuel Church Foundation:
 In Memory of Candy Druschky

Thanksgiving Day Ingathering

On Thanksgiving Day, as a part of our offering, we will have our traditional ingathering of food to support our Food Center. Donated food should be non-perishable, such as canned fruit, soups, meat and fish. Other welcome items include peanut butter, jelly, breakfast cereal, canned pasta, chili, macaroni and cheese, and rice. Checks are also welcome and should be made payable to Emmanuel with a notation for the Food Center.

You will note that we have omitted canned vegetables from our wish list because we have a backlog of these; we are requesting that parishioners choose some of the other needed items as their offerings.

This is a very important ministry, and one that Emmanuelites should be very proud to support: it is a blessing to our friends and neighbors in need, and also a blessing to those of us who give.

Science and Religion Adult Forum Series

Presenters are Warren Crews, Matt Keefer, Matt Schunke and Diana Beckman

November 16: Science and our Social and Religious Nature

In this second of three sessions we will first explore scientific evidence that suggests the ascendancy of human beings on our planet is due to our inherently social nature and our talent for collective learning. We will then further consider our pro-social and altruistic tendencies and their relation to world religions and religious faith. Stay tuned for The Relation between Science and Religion – Personal Stories on Nov 30. These three sessions were developed by Matt Keefer, Matt Schunke, and Warren Crews.

November 23: Thanksgiving Myths and Truths

Professor Lorri Glover will reveal some of the unsettling truths behind the national myths we tell ourselves each Thanksgiving. In the place of peaceful “Pilgrims” and Indians sharing a common meal, you will learn about the failures of the radical Separatists who founded Plymouth Colony, the confusion and conflicts that divided newcomers and natives in seventeenth-century New England, and the most deadly war in early American history.

Lorri Glover is the John Francis Bannon, SJ, Endowed Chair in the Department of History at Saint Louis University, where she teaches courses in the American Revolution and colonial America. She has written about early American history from the seventeenth century to the nineteenth. Her most recent book is Founders as Fathers: The Private Lives and Politics of the American Revolutionaries (Yale, 2014).

November 30: The Relation between Science and Religion – Personal Stories

In the third session we will explore our own thoughts on how we personally have experienced the intersection of science and religion, both positively and negatively. We will solicit the views of those attending, as well as those who have prepared this series.

Jr. High News

Would you rather ..... OR Would you rather.....

This was asked at several series interspersed throughout the Junior High retreat on October 25-26. And after making their choice, they were invited to tell the reason for making that decision. The first meeting started with the kids listing choices they made for themselves throughout their lives, starting with “whether to cry” as an infant to “what songs to be sung at their funeral” as an old person.

On Sunday, we all participated in morning prayer in the beautiful old chapel sitting in the woods at the top of a hill. The children read the prayers and the psalm as we all circled around the large cross standing in front of the window which provides a panoramic view of the lovely grounds at Camp Lakewood.

The meeting closed with a discussion of the different things that can influence choices we make throughout our lives, such as faith, peer pressure, wealth, fame, social justice, etc.

My favorite “choice” was: Would you rather live on a beautiful island with only one other person whom you hate or would you rather live in the desert with lots of other people? One of the girls chose the island and said, “Maybe you could learn to like the other person.”

Could this be what it's all about?

Play Readers - Friday, November 14 at 6:30 p.m.

The next Play Reader performance is scheduled for Friday, November 14th. Doors open at 6:30pm and the show will start at 7pm.

"Love is Murder" by Tim Kelly begins with Valentina

Velour, the Queen of Romance Fiction, opening up Honeymoon House to a television program. Unfortunately, someone has left a dead man in the closet and a wacko called The Rose Killer is bumping off the love scribblers. Confusion and madness abound as vitamin fanatics, cops, literary agents and writers collide. The whole madcap mess concludes with the exposure of Valentina's arch-enemy and an affirmation of her philosophy - "Romance will be here when men and women no longer walk the earth!"

Since this is a murder mystery, your producer is keeping some of the cast members a mystery as well. If you need to know the cast members in advance, here are a few clues: one cast member is an Assistant Priest, while another is soon to be ordained. We also have a few lawyers, folks with advanced degrees and the director is an a cappella singer.

Mark your calendars now! $4.00 will solve the mystery together with supplying you with all the snacks and beverages you need.

Karl and Bunny Reif

Emmanuel Book Club - December 1 at 7:00 p.m.

In order to avoid Thanksgiving weekend complications, our next meeting is on December 1, when we will discuss Christina Baker Kline's fascinating novel, Orphan Train. The Orphan Train Movement was a supervised welfare program that transported orphaned and homeless children from several crowded East-coast cities to foster homes throughout the rural Midwest. New York's Children's Aid Society began the program that operated from 1853 to 1929, and it was later joined by the New York Foundling Hospital. Before the advent of state-run foster care, these two institutions developed a comprehensive plan to relocate some 250,000 children, who were carried to their new homes on "orphan trains" or "baby trains." There have been a number of non-fiction books written about these children, but this novel presents a totally different twist to the saga of one fictitious child.

Here is some of what "GoodReads" says about it: The author of Bird in Hand and The Way Life Should Be delivers her most ambitious and powerful novel to date: a captivating story of two very different women who build an unexpected friendship: a 91-year-old woman with a hidden past as an orphan-train rider and the teenage girl whose own troubled adolescence leads her to seek answers to questions no one has ever thought to ask....Rich in detail and epic in scope, Orphan Train is a powerful novel of upheaval and resilience, of second chances, of unexpected friendship, and of the secrets we carry that keep us from finding out who we are.

Please join us at 7:00 in the "Tree House Room" aka #204...and feel free to invite friends, family, or other Emmanuelites to come with you and share our fellowship and light refreshments. If you have questions or wish to be added to the Book Club email list, please contact Ann McReynolds at 960-0560 or ARMcR@arm-mra.com. In case you're curious, our spring books will be announced soon!

All adults and children (over the age of 4) are welcome to participate in Emmanuel's annual Christmas Play which will take place during the 10 am service on Sunday, December 14. Rehearsals will take place during regularly scheduled children's and adult choir rehearsals on Wednesdays, December 3 and 10. There is a rehearsal on Saturday morning, December 13, from 10 am – Noon (except for children age 4-first grade who will rehearse from 11:15 am – Noon only).

There is a sign-up sheet on the bulletin board outside the dining room or please contact Ann Marie Ruhlin at amruhl@sbcglobal.net for more information.

Diocesan Convention Prayers

Please pray for all the Representatives that will be at Diocesan Convention November 21st and 22nd to lead our Diocese into the future. Please pray for the people within our Diocese who are running for different committees and offices. We ask that you be with our Bishop to lead us in the path of Our Lord Jesus Christ. We ask your prayers onto our six new Deacons who will be ordained into very important roles in the life of the church.

O God by your grace you have called us, this Diocese, to a goodly fellowship of faith. Bless our Bishop George Wayne and our Clergy and Representatives as they go about your Godly work in this Diocese. Bless all of your people who have offered to run for different committees and offices in our Diocese and your Church. We ask your Blessing on our new six Deacons: Rebecca, Nancy, Jerre, Deborah, Chester and Kevin, that you may lead them in their new roles within the church. We pray also for ourselves in this Diocese. Father Son and Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

In Christ
Rudy Walz

Emmanuel Foundation News

The Emmanuel Foundation – What's in it for you?

As we approach another year-end we can consider giving thanks for our blessings and taking advantage of potential tax deductions! The Emmanuel Foundation affords you the opportunity to do both.

The legacy of Richard and Angelica Lockwood is the thread that runs from past generations to you and beyond. The Lockwoods gave us the start of Emmanuel's physical foundation. For more than a century, parishioners have added to that foundation with individual gifts and bequests. In 1972, we established The Emmanuel Foundation Endowment Fund to capture and make permanent the spirit of The Lockwood Legacy.

What is the purpose of the Endowment Fund?

The Endowment Fund provides the means for people to express special gratitude to God for blessings they have received. The principal is held permanently and only the earnings are used to fund Emmanuel's ministry. As a result, a gift to the Endowment Fund endures forever.

What is Endowment Fund Income Used For?

The Endowment's income is used, in conjunction with annual pledges, to fund the operation, ministry and outreach of Emmanuel.

Who Gives to the Endowment Fund?

Anyone and for many reasons! Thanksgivings, remembrances, memorials, bequests. Contributions, large and small, will have an impact on the future of Emmanuel.

Does it Replace Other Dedicated Funds and Contributions?

No. Other special funds still receive all gifts designated to them.

Are Gifts Tax Deductible?

Yes. Gifts to the Endowment Fund qualify as charitable donations. Several kinds of gifts allow you to continue to use the donated property or receive income during your life, and still receive a tax donation. A savings in inheritance and estate taxes may also be possible.

A perfect combination of factors as you ponder your year-end.

Episcopal City Mission Needs Your Help

Emmanuel will be collecting items for Episcopal City Mission to give to the youth in detention for Christmas during Advent and so will many other congregations throughout the Diocese.

All these gifts will be wrapped on Monday December 15th right here at Emmanuel. We begin at 10:30am and work until finished and lunch is served – traditionally salad, crusty bread, and several kinds of soup, the favorite is butternut squash, and of course dessert! Come get in the holiday spirit, chat with friends, and make kids who are in a rough spot feel a little love. Questions, email MJ Kuhn at kuhnconstruction@sbcglobal.net. And if you can bring your own scissor that would be great!
