Martie Metzler’s extension
Martie will get a notice on her cell phone.

Dear Emmanuel Family,

We all have a lot to be thankful for; so it seems fitting that in this time and in this place we pause to give thanks for all the blessings of this life. As we celebrate this week a day of Thanksgiving, my hope for all of us is that this day be a small portion of the thanks we have to give for all that we have received.

In the spirit of Thanksgiving, I would like to share with all of you a few specific things that I am very thankful for today.

My home, and my access to healthcare. Last week, the stomach flu made its way through the Slane house. We were all ill for at least 24 hours and then very weak for several days following our plight. We were comforted in knowing that we had a safe place to be sick, a shower that flowed with clean water, and a warm bed to crawl into to rest. I was able to get medicine and foods that helped nourish our bodies and help make us well again. And I can’t help but feel thankful for my home when I realize that so many homeless men, women, and children do not have a safe place to be sick, or a clean shower to use, or a warm bed to rest in. My prayer is that we may find ways to provide shelter and healthcare to all in need.

My son. My little boy is a year old today. He has clean clothes, educated parents, his own room, and never has to skip a meal. He was born into a safe and loving environment. He goes to school and has more toys and books than any kid could ever need. My prayer is that my husband Chris and I will be diligent in raising him to understand that he is lucky for his life, by virtue of where he was born, so that he may use his privilege to help those who were not so lucky.

My faith community. This past weekend, at Diocesan Convention, our bishop placed on the table in front of him an icon of the Holy Family asking us all to remember those who flee their homes for safety by reminding us that our Lord himself was also a refugee. His acknowledgement of the Syrian refugees inspired clergy of the diocese to bring forward a resolution to support and welcome those seeking safety from the horrors of war. It was inspiring to see the Body of Christ make a public declaration of their faith, which urges them to care for orphans and widows in their distress, to extend hospitality to the stranger, and to care for the oppressed. In passing this resolution, we have promised to work in our local and national context to support those refugees who desperately need our help and our open arms. My prayer is that hatred may cease and that all people may find peace in their home.

If you would, take a moment, to write in the margins of this newsletter three things that you are especially thankful for today. It can be anything: basic necessity, complex privilege, great or simple joys. Once you have three things in mind, share at least one of them with a family member or friend who you see today. I ask that you do this because I believe that sharing our thanksgivings with others help them to recognize all that they have to be thankful for and together we benefit from living as grateful people.

We have a lot to be grateful for. Let us rejoice in what we have been given and find the strength to share these gifts with others.

Sincerely,

The Rev. Melanie Slane

The Church Office will be closed on Thursday and Friday, November 26 and 27, open again on Monday, the 30th.

Happy Thanksgiving to All from the Staff at Emmanuel

Food Center News

Friday November 20 Third & Fifth graders from The College School delivered by wagon and van over 6,000 canned goods to Emmanuel Food Center. Children had a hand-to-hand can line to get them into the building; Food Center volunteers were on hand to sort and take to the low level and Sunday our Sr. High Youth Group sorted on shelves in the storage room. It was a Bountiful Day!

Belles of Christmas!

Emmanuel women and their women friends will gather on December 5 for a lovely and fun Christmas brunch. At the Belles of Christmas you'll enjoy a low-stress, all-fun morning, including raffle JARS and other entertainment. New this year: Crazy Quilt raffle!

WHEN: December 5, 2015, 10:00 a.m. - no end time (because the fun will never end.)

WHERE: Emmanuel Dining Room

BRING: A brunch dish to share (only if its preparation is low stress!)

$$$: None! A free event! Sign up at church so we have enough seats. Bring in items for the Jar Raffle—it's a great place to get hand-made items or a white elephant! Also, bring a few dollars for the raffle baskets.

PROCEEDS WILL BENEFIT MAGDALENE HOUSE.

TO DO:

DONATE ITEMS to include in the fun JAR Raffle jars. Drop items to raffle off at church during business hours or on Sundays... BEFORE Dec 5. You can also bring items Friday Dec 4 between 2-7 p.m. This is a great way to cull treasured, but no longer used Christmas decorations!

BUY QUILT RAFFLE TICKETS on sale at church Sunday mornings! You do not have to be present to win. Remember... all proceeds will benefit Magdalene House. $10/ticket.

Advent Soup Supper and Giving Tree

Sunday, November 29—6 pm

The Advent Soup Supper on the 29th begins our Advent season. Jr. High will set up and serve. The Williams, Dunns, MacBrydes and other Jr. High parents are the chefs! The giving tree will be adorned with Gift Tag Ornaments for us to take and provide the requested gift. Return the requested unwrapped gift by Sunday, December 13.

The gifts will be distributed to families in need by Webster-Rock Hill Ministries; to youth in our city and county detention centers by Episcopal City Mission, and by Nurses for Newborns.

Junior High Youth have made delicious spreads and will sell them on November 29 and December 6 before and after services. These delicious jams, jellies, and butters make great gifts for teachers, coworkers, family, and friends. Bring your holiday shopping list and support our youth.

The 29th will be an especially busy day for the Junior High Youth as they will set up, serve, and clean up for the Advent Soup Supper from 5 to 7 pm.

Do you need a few hours of FREE, supervised childcare? The Senior High, Youth, a.k.a. Santa's Little Helpers, will provide free childcare from 3 pm to 6 pm on Sunday, November 29, at Emmanuel. Kids ages 0 to 10 are welcome to come.

Episcopal Migration Ministries

The United Thank Offering is giving a $30,000 special grant to Episcopal Migration Ministries, which has been providing assistance to refugees in the United States as well as throughout the world for over 20 years. Given the current crisis and the tremendous need, UTO has challenged the Episcopal Church to match this grant through gifts from individuals as well as parishes.

Emmanuel is asking for your assistance to help the Episcopal church meet this challenge. You may submit checks or cash to Emmanuel through the Fourth Sunday of Advent, December 20, 2015 (Christmas Play). Make checks payable to Emmanuel and clearly mark: UTO-Refugees. If you use alternate methods of payment, again, please clearly indicate for UTO-Refugees. Thank you for considering a gift.

Emmanuel Poinsettia Delivery Team Needs Your Help

Advent is here and Christmas is fast approaching, and everyone is very busy, but please stop and consider delivering a Christmas poinsettia any time after the 10:00 a.m. service on Sunday December 27. It is the hope of the clergy, vestry, Caring Ministries Committee, and Altar Guild as well as all members of Emmanuel that many individuals will be able to help deliver these lovely flowers that adorn the altar and church during the Christmas season. If you can't make it on Sunday the church will be open for poinsettia pickup during regular church hours Monday December 28 and Tuesday December 29, 2015.

These flowers mean a tremendous amount to those who receive them, so please plan to come to the dining room, pick up a card with an address and a poinsettia or two, sign the sheet and take the flower out to someone who will love to receive it. These plants will be taken to shut-ins and others on a list that is prepared by the clergy and office staff. If you would like to participate in this very important ministry of reaching out to fellow Emmanuelites and others, please contact Peg Cooper at 314-821-1012 or coopermh@slu.edu by Wednesday December 23, 2015.

City Streets ‘Cook In’ November 22 and December 6, 11:30 a.m.

As cold weather sets in you’ll begin reading and hearing announcements about “City Streets.” City Streets is how Emmanuel participates in AmeriCorps Emergency Winter Warming Shelter. AmeriCorps St. Louis started this emergency shelter 5 years ago at the urgent request of the City Department of Human Services during a particularly bitter winter. When the temperature dips below 20 °F, AmeriCorps opens its doors on the weekends to provide a bed and food to people living on the streets. To prepare for potentially bitter cold nights, Emmanuelites meet various Sundays between November and February to prepare meals, freeze them, and take to AmeriCorps to use when the shelter is open. AmeriCorps is one of several partners with St. Louis Winter Outreach to assist those living on the streets in St. Louis.

If you would like to participate in cooking or delivery, please contact the office at 314-961-2393. To learn more about this ministry or investigate other ways to volunteer visit <http://www.americorps-stl.org/get-involved/volunteer/winter-warming-shelter/>

Hanging of the greens

Come help prepare the church inside and out with the Hanging of the Greens! After the 10:00 service on Sunday, December 20, help hang the numerous wreaths with their red bows as well as the pine roping. All are welcome to help, but men with ladders are a definite need! Having helped decorate the Church for Christmas makes worship an even more wonderful experience!

P.S. Notice the lovely wreaths for Advent on the church's front doors - blue bows and all? Check them out!

ECM Gift Wrapping

Do you have a couple hours to spare Monday December 14? Need a free lunch? The, come help gift wrap for ECM! Episcopal City Mission has provided chaplaincy to children in detention in the city and county since 1894. Each year Emmanuel opens our Parish Hall for ECM to bring in Christmas gifts collected from around the Diocese to be gift wrapped & distributed to the three detention centers where Chaplains serve in St. Louis City, St. Louis County & Lakeside Center.

A soup/salad lunch with bread and dessert is served to all who help! Please bring your own scissors, tape and if you have wrapping paper, that would be great! We hope to see some of you here!

Sixth Annual Miss Carol's Brunch

The 6th annual Miss Carol's Brunch will be held Sunday, December 20 following the Christmas play. A family style meal will be served after the 10am service. While it is a free meal, donations of any amount are requested in honor of Carol to support our programs. The meal consists of casseroles, fruit, and sweets and is meant to represent the meal that was traditionally served at the annual brunch for the homeless at the Cathedral. If you cannot make it to the breakfast, but would still like to donate, you can send a check to the church office made out to Emmanuel Episcopal with "Ms. Carol's" in the memo line.

Tragically, on December 19, 2002, Carol was killed outside of her office by a homeless man she had once helped. The next year, "Ms. Carol's Christmas Brunch for the Homeless" was created. Originally, this brunch was served at the Cathedral for the homeless that Carol cared so deeply for. It was a way to remember Carol and continue her important mission. For 6 years, the youth group of Emmanuel and members of Christ Church helped to serve the homeless in honor of Carol. Twelve years later, we continue to honor Carol by having our own brunch to raise money for the homeless programs of the Cathedral and also Emmanuel's own City Streets Mission.

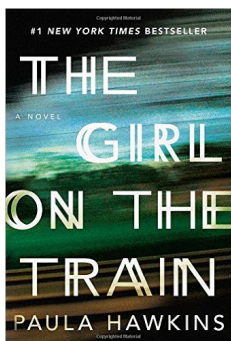

The 6th annual Miss Carol's Brunch for the Homeless will be held Sunday, December 20th following the Christmas play. A family style meal will be served after the 10am service. While it is a free meal, donations of any amount are requested in honor of Carol to support our programs. The meal consists of casseroles, fruit, and sweets and is meant to represent the meal that was traditionally served at the annual brunch for the homeless at the Cathedral. If you cannot make it to the breakfast, but would still like to donate, you can send a check to the church office made out to Emmanuel Episcopal with "Ms. Carol's" in the memo line.

This brunch is a great reminder of what is truly important around Christmas time. It brings the Emmanuel family together and truly makes a difference to the St. Louis community.

The Play Readers Review

For those of you who were at the last Play Readers and saw "Steel Magnolias," you know what this photo is all about. The Armadillo cake was very eatable as it came from Lubeley's Bakery.

Karl Reif called it an Amarillo cake, but all of the Emmanuel Steel Magnolias agreed that the only thing to do with an Amarillo Armadillo was to eat him!
