Dear Friends,

In our celebration of Easter, we are given the chance to experience how through Jesus’ death and resurrection new life springs out of hopelessness and despair. Throughout the ages, Christians have come to hear their own stories told within the Passion narrative. For within the cycle of Holy Week and Easter, the most tragic and most hopeful statements in human life are spoken.

John Chrysostom c. 347—407

The fourth century preacher John Chrysostom accomplished exactly that in one of his Easter sermons. Like a tent revival preacher, “John of the Golden Tongue,” as he became known, could draw his listeners into a vision of new life with just a word or a turn of a phrase. Even though his view of the world may seem as foreign and ancient as the 1500 years that separate him from us now living in the 21st century, listen to his anticipation of joy and wholeness winning out over the powers of darkness and despair:

“...Let no one fear death,
for the death of our Saviour has set us free.

The Lord has destroyed death by enduring it.
 The Lord vanquished hell when he descended into it...
 Hell was in turmoil having been eclipsed.
 Hell was in turmoil having been mocked.
 Hell was in turmoil having been destroyed.
 Hell was in turmoil having been abolished.
 Hell was in turmoil having been made captive.
 Hell grasped a corpse, and met God.
 Hell seized earth, and encountered heaven.
 Hell took what it saw, and was overcome by what it could not see.

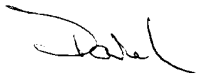

O death, where is your sting?
 O hell, where is your victory?

Christ is risen, and you are cast down!
 Christ is risen, and the demons are fallen!
 Christ is risen, and the angels rejoice!
 Christ is risen, and life is set free!
 Christ is risen, and the tomb is emptied of its dead.
 For Christ, having risen from the dead,
     has become the first-fruits of those who have fallen asleep.
 To Christ be glory and power forever and ever. Amen!"

Wonderful stuff! May this season of Easter give you, too, a vision of new life and hope!
 Peace,

Daniel

Upcoming Adult Forum Programs

April 17: Donna Erickson, The History of Adult Mission Trips at Emmanuel and the Ministry of Presence: This presentation will look at how adult mission trips started, explore where the trips have gone, and why we make a conscious choice to go back to Rosebud year after year. Come hear about the past and learn about going on the trip this summer.

April 24: Deconstructing Whiteness. Discussions of race and privilege are at the center of much of our public lives. In this forum, we will watch a short video from the Trinity institute that addresses the topic of racial divisions and how Christians might respond followed by a time to discuss and reflect on the video and its relevance to Emmanuel. Matt Schunke will lead this discussion.

APRIL INGATHERING

Women’s Workshop Series for April 2016

Christian women of diverse backgrounds coming together to foster understanding and develop relationships through reflection and dialog. Reflection: “What the Bible Says about Race”

Presentation by Rev. Rebecca Ragland

Does the Bible legitimate oppression? Christianity offers an alternative vision for human dignity in Scripture. Together, we will look at these texts in an effort to gain a larger vision of God’s intention for human equality especially around race.

Friday, April 15, 2016 6:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m. Admission: Free
Church of the Holy Communion, 7401 Delmar Boulevard, University City

Emmanuel Play Readers Bring Comedy to Emmanuel

Friday, April 22, 2016 – Show starts at 7 p.m.

“You can’t be too careful these days, that’s what I always say!” This is the recurring theme of Carolyn Lane’s comedy, aptly titled “You Can’t Be Too Careful.” Two inexperienced and bungling bank robbers played by Karl Reif and Matt Keefer need a place to “lay low” until the “heat” is off. Unfortunately for them, they choose the home of kindly Harriet (Anne Benson). But she is not alone. When our inept robbers stumble in, they also meet up with Harriet’s bridge club. There’s sweet but naïve Edna (Donna Erickson), no-nonsense and possibly borderline paranoid Alice (Tammy Free) and perhaps the most even-keeled of the group, Madge (Janet Dobbs). Along the way a number of unexpected house guests appear, causing the robbers to feel like they chose Grand Central Station as their hide out. We invite you to join the fun as these four lovely ladies work their magic. Doors open at 6:30 with the play starting at 7pm. $4.00 covers the cost of refreshments.

UPCOMING BAPTISMAL DATES

Below are the scheduled dates for Baptism and Baptismal Preparation Session. At least one parent must attend a preparation session before a child may be baptized at Emmanuel. You need not have set a baptismal date to come to one of these sessions.

If you are pregnant or still deciding about baptizing your child here, please come. This is a wonderful opportunity to learn more about baptism.

Call the church office at 961-2393 to make a reservation. A light supper is served.
