Dear Emmanuel Family,

Change. Change is a scary word, except when it isn't. The word change brings both anxiety about what might come next and the beauty of discovering something new. Change is often resisted, but it comes to us whether we want it to or not. Our relationships change, our bodies change, our imaginations change. Some change is good and some change is hard, but regardless of the outcome, change, in and of itself, is inevitable. The seasons change, our children grow, and our community of faith gains and loses members every year. None of us are the same as we were last week, last year, last decade. We learn, we grow, we acquire new skills, we meet new people and visit new worlds.

Change, it has been said, is not painful, but rather our resistance to change is what brings us grief. We want to be more than what we are now, but we don't want to let go of what we have become. We seek to move forward, but are weighed down by the baggage we carry from our past.

We may carry on like this for a good long while until some external force pushes us into unfamiliar territory: a new job, a new city, a new friend, a new church, a new life. Many of the changes in my life have come not purely from my own initiative, but from the passing of time. Growing up, moving away from home, getting married, having children, all of these were both a decision to change and a force brought about by the passage of time. And time, as we know “goes not backward, nor tarries with yesterday.” We can bring about change, or wait for something to change us, but moved or mover, change is a part of our lives.

Think of your life. How have you changed? What have you learned, experienced, put your heart and soul into? What is still left undone? What do you hope to accomplish in the years you have left? How will you show the love of Christ as you move forward as an individual, a family, a church? What will we look like next week, next year, next decade?

How do we advance confidently in the direction of our dreams when we just aren't sure what the road will look like? The answer, I think, lies within a prayer from our order for Compline (BCP pg. 127)

“Be present, O merciful God, and protect us through the hours of this night, so that we who are wearied by the changes and chances of this life may rest in your eternal changelessness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.”

Hold on to that which never changes: the love of God. God is present with us in the steady and calm times of our lives, and God is with us in the turbulent and terrifying times too. We may be wearied by the changes and chances that life brings, but constantly and consistently, God is with us. God's love for us never wavers, and God's grace never ceases to exist. Rest in the changelessness of God's great love for us and find that change really is nothing to be feared.

Sincerely,

Melanie Shaw

Food Center News

For the month of May the Food Center is asking for contributions of cereal to maintain our shelf stock. Just drop them in the food basket as you enter the front doors in the narthex Sunday morning or place them in the food basket outside the Food Center on the pew under the parish bulletin board. Many thanks to the following individuals for their generous gifts to the Food Center in April. Thanks also to the many anonymous donors!

The Emmanuel Team for Peace Meal at St. John's Tower Grove Needs Volunteers

Emmanuel will be prepping and serving the meal at St. John's on Arsenal on Saturday, May 28. Won't you volunteer to help from 2 to 4, 4 to 6, or 2 to 6? Families with older children can participate.

St. John's is on Arsenal across from Tower Grove Park...make it an afternoon!

If you can spare a couple hours or if you have questions, please contact Peggy Schroeder at peggy.schroeder@outlook.com

Pentecost Picnic

Sunday, May 15, 2016
following the 10 a.m. service

A traditional picnic menu will be served, including fried chicken, potato salad, beans, coleslaw, fruit, cookies, and frozen custard

$7.00 (ages 12 and older), $3.00 (ages 4-11)

Tickets are available in the church office and will also be sold during Wed. Fellowship Dinners on May 4 and 11, during Sunday community coffee on May 1 and 8, and on the day of the picnic.

Pentecost celebrates the "Day of the Spirit"
Come celebrate with the entire Emmanuel family!

Each year, Emmanuel recognizes this day with a picnic on the Jones Hall lawn. Come join us right after the 10:00 a.m. service on May 15 for delicious food and good fellowship.

Pentecost is a season of red, a color that symbolizes flames, zeal, passion, and heat. Show your "spirit" by wearing red.

If you'd like to volunteer to help with picnic set up, service, or clean up, please contact Beth Ann Riechman (fashion1st@msn.com) or Jessica Schunke (jessica.schunke@gmail.com).

MOE (Men of Emmanuel) Baseball Social!

MOE will be hosting an informal social at Rob Skinner's house on Monday, May 23 at 7 p.m. for the Cardinals v. Cubs Game.

Come hang out and enjoy snacks and drinks and enjoy the finest garage in Webster Groves! It will also be a great opportunity to learn about what MOE will be up to this summer and fall. For more info contact Matt Schunke (matt.schunke@gmail.com)

SAVE THE DATE!

You've all been asking "what are we doing for Dan's retirement?"

After the 10:00 a.m. service on Sunday, June 26 we will have a cake and punch reception in the dining room.

Later that evening there will be a dinner starting at 6:00 p.m.

There will be more details in the May 24 Angelus and in the weekly emails and in the Sunday announcements.

Update From Your Wardens

Be sure to read Tuesday's Weekly Updates and Reminders for an update from your Wardens on preparations for Dan's retirement. There will be a link in the email directly to the informative letter. You'll also find an insert in Sunday's bulletins this coming weekend.

If you don't get the email or if you aren't in church on Sunday, please call the church office, and we'll mail or email you the letter.

Mimi Shipp and Susan Moenkhaus

BUILD A VBS.....

What???? Well maybe not "build" but for sure "CRAFT NIGHT"!!

Anyone who wants to help with VBS, especially you talented crafters out there, come up to church on Wednesday, May 18 from 7:00-9:00 p.m. All the supplies will be here. They will be making all the craft items that will be used for Vacation Bible School Jun 1-3. Rumor has it they may be making 'sit-upons'!

And FYI.....last day to register for VBS is Wednesday, May 25. Registration is online through Christ Lutheran at www.christwg.org.

MAY INGATHERING

During May we will be collecting fabric to take to Harvest Wind, which is a sewing co-op located on Rosebud Reservation that makes quilts.

They provide job opportunities and income to people living in the economically depressed area of the reservation. The Adult Missioners will take the fabric with them when they travel there June 11 through 18.

We need any cotton or cotton blend fabric at least 1/4 yard long and any color or pattern. These are pictures of some of the quilts that have been made at Harvest Wind.

MAY IS GRADUATION MONTH!

If you share them with us, we will be printing names of all high school graduates, and college graduates in the May 24 Angelus. Please email emmepisc@emmanuelepiscopal.org or call the office 961-2393 and give us your graduate's name and what their near future plans are!

Most graduations are life milestones, and we'd like to publicly congratulate all the graduates and their families!

Emmanuel Welcomes St. Cecilia Choir of Christ Episcopal Church, Springfield, MO, at 10 a.m. May 22 Service

The St. Cecilia Choir is a group of 26 children, ages 4 to 14. The choir rehearses every Wednesday and sings an anthem every Sunday morning, as well as fulfilling the role of worship leaders during the service.

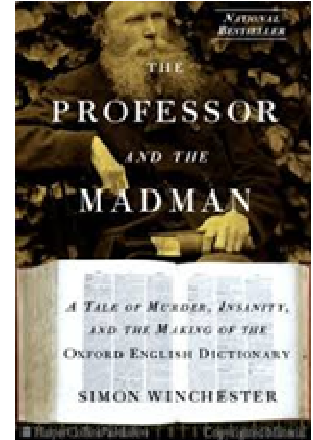

St. Cecilia's director, Rachel Murad, holds a Bachelor's degree in Music Education from Drury University, as well as a Masters of Music Education from Evangel University. She teaches general and vocal music in Monett, Missouri for third through sixth grade. Many members of the choir are second and even third generation members, as the choir is a decades-old tradition of Christ Episcopal Church. The choir members are nick-named "Angels" because each one is extremely dedicated to showing God's love through music.

We look forward to worshipping and singing at Emmanuel.

Rachel Murad, director

Emmanuel Women's Book Club Meets One More Time Before Summer Break

Emmanuel Women's Book Club has just one more book before summer break, The Professor and the Madman by Simon Winchester. Here's an edited version of a review on amazon.com: When the editors of the Oxford English Dictionary put out a call during the late 19th century pleading for "men of letters" to help with their mammoth undertaking, hundreds of responses came forth. Some provided several thousand entries to the editors, but none more than Dr. W. C. Minor, an American Civil War veteran and English expatriate, who was actually a certified lunatic...his dictionary entries were created in the Broadmoor Criminal Lunatic Asylum! While producing a mesmerizing coda to the doctor's deeply troubled life, Simon Winchester also paints a rich portrait of the OED's leading light, Professor James Murray, who spent more than 40 years of his life on a project he would not see completed in his lifetime.

Please join us at 7:00 in the Dining Room on Monday, June 6...and feel free to invite friends, family, or other Emmanuelites to come with you and share our fellowship and light refreshments. If you have questions or wish to be added to the Book Club email list, please contact Ann McReynolds at 960-0560 or ARMcR@arm-mra.com.

Hey Dirty Dogs ... the Jr. High Youth Will Help You Come Clean

The Jr. High youth will hold a dog wash on Sunday, May 22, from noon to 2:00 p.m. Has your dog been rolling around in the pollen? Is your dog experiencing “no one wants to pet me” syndrome? No dog? No problem. Come have a grilled dog!

The Jr. High kids will be here with hoses and pet friendly suds and plenty of towels to make your furry friend cute and cuddly! They are looking to enhance the coffers for their trip to southeast Missouri next month! Won't you stop by and enjoy a grilled dog with or without an actual dog?

Do You Use Online Giving?

Please review your account by ...

- Making sure you change your contribution amount if you changed your pledge
- Checking your profile and making any needed corrections to your email, phone, and mailing address. CMS will send you three notices when your credit card is close to expiring.
- BTW—you can use your online giving for any contribution. If you don't see the name of the fund listed, choose Special Gift and then let the office know that your gift is coming and what fund it should go to.
- Click on the icon on Emmanuel's website if you want to open an account.

Junior High Youth Give Thanks

The Junior High youth express their gratitude for all the gifts from Emmanuel and the congregation. Some of the things they listed are: a safe environment and a pleasant room where they feel secure, Rite 13, support via purchase of jams and cake mix at Christmas, purchase of tickets to the spaghetti dinner, (especially to those folks who donated even though they weren't able to attend), fellowship in the youth group, parents who drop them off and pick them up, and -- high on the list -- snacks.

And we say to the Junior High kids, "The congregation is thankful for you."

“Black and Blue”

By Lee Patton Chiles

An original play of hope and healing, exploring the assumptions that all young black men are dangerous, and that all cops are bad. Sunday, May 22 at 3:00 p.m. at Webster High School auditorium. Admission free but to ensure you have a seat, please email or call Gitana Productions at info@gitana-inc.org or 314-721-6556.

No Admission Fee due to the importance of this play for St. Louis
