Emmanuel Episcopal Church WELCOMES

the Rev. Doris C. Westfall

as our Interim Rector

September 1, 2016

The Rev. Doris C. Westfall was ordained an Episcopal Priest in 2005 when she completed her Master of Divinity degree at the University of the South in Sewanee, Tennessee. Her first clergy position was at St. James Episcopal Church in Sewanee. From 2005-2007, she served as a long-term Supply Priest for two rural, yoked Missouri congregations--- Grace Church-Clarksville and St. John's-Eolia. She has gone on to serve as Interim Priest for the Episcopal Campus Ministry at Washington University in St. Louis, Pastoral Assistant for Trinity Episcopal Church in St. Charles, Missouri, Rector for six years for the former St. Matthew's Episcopal Church in Warson Woods, Missouri, Interim Rector for Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in Sulphur, Louisiana, and Interim Rector for St. Luke's Episcopal Church in Manchester, Missouri.

Prior to her ordination, the Rev. Westfall was a Social Worker, having earned her Master of Social Work in 1993 from St. Louis University, and her Bachelor of Arts in 1981 from Valparaiso University in Valparaiso, Indiana. She was associated with the St. Louis Society for the Blind and Visually Impaired from 1990 until 2002, first as a Social Worker and then as Director of Programs and Services. Concurrently, she served as Adjunct Assistant Professor of Field Instruction at the St. Louis University School of Social Service. She was awarded the prestigious Social Worker of the Year award in 1999 by the National Association of Social Workers—Missouri Chapter, and in 1997 she was nominated for St. Louis University's Outstanding Field Instructor of the Year award.

As an ordained clergyperson, Doris has taken on several leadership roles in the Episcopal Church including serving currently as a Trustee for the University of the South, General Convention Deputy 2012 and 2015, Diocese of Missouri Nominating Committee 2013-2016, and Standing Committee of the Diocese of Missouri 2009-2013.

Doris preached at all three services Sunday, September 4, and she will preach Homecoming Sunday, September 11 at all services. She will write us a bit more about herself in the September 21 Angelus. Meantime, WELCOME, DORIS!

Nominations Call for Leadership Positions

The 177th Diocesan Convention (Nov. 18 & 19, 2016) will elect lay members and clergy to governance bodies including Diocesan Council, Standing Committee, Disciplinary Board, Cathedral Chapter, and this year to the Missouri deputation (8 deputies and 8 alternates) to the 79th General Convention of the Episcopal Church to be held in July 2018 in Austin, Texas. The Nominations Committee of this diocese is charged with finding three candidates to stand for election for each of this year's 26 open positions.

Diocese of Missouri
THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Are you called to serve in this ministry of leadership?
Have you someone in your congregation or this diocese to recommend?

Cathedral Chapter

- Electing 1 clergy & 1 lay member both from within St. Louis City/County
- 3 yr term, monthly meetings at the Cathedral
- is the legal governing and decision-making body of the cathedral, consisting of elected lay representatives of the congregation, elected at-large representatives from the Diocese of Missouri and ex-officio members. (In a parish this body is called a vestry.) Its duties include approving the budget and making policy.

General Convention Deputation

- Electing 8 deputies & 8 alternates, in each group 4 lay members & 4 clergy
- 3 year term
- the 79th General Convention of the Episcopal Church will meet in July 2018 in Austin, TX.
- In addition to attending the House of Deputies, duties during the meeting, the deputation studies proposed legislation and listens to concerns of the diocese before, and reports back to the diocese after General Convention meets.

Diocesan Council

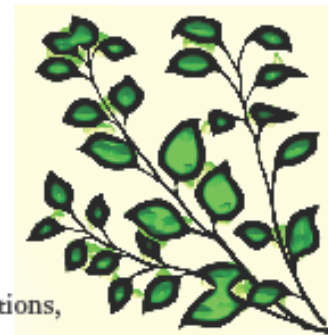

- Electing 2 lay members
- 3 year term, meets 6 times a year, at least once each quarter, currently on Saturdays.
- Carries out the work of diocesan convention between annual meetings, prepares and oversees the budget, develops and reviews diocesan programs. It consists of elected (by convention and convocation) and appointed members.
- Functions as the Corporation of the Diocese.

Standing Committee

- Electing 2 clergy & 1 lay member
- 4 year term, meets monthly, currently last Thursday of month, 5-7 PM at St. Martin's in Ellisville
- Functions as the council of advice to the Bishop, is a visioning group for the diocese. Certifies candidates for ordination in this diocese and votes on consent to the election, ordination, and consecration of bishops churchwide. May serve as ecclesiastical authority for the diocese in the absence of a bishop.

Disciplinary Board

- Electing 1 lay member & 2 clergy
- 4 year term, meets as needed, at least once each year after convention for training and to elect a president.
- Exists to help in cases where clergy have been presented with charges under the Ecclesiastical Disciplinary Canons (Title IV) of Episcopal Church Canons. If a presentment arises the DB president along with the bishop will review the work of the Intake Officer to determine need for further investigation. Depending on investigation's outcome, DB may work in two groups, one that would seek conciliation, the other to serve as a trial court should a case go that far.

Nominations due by September 29, 2016

More information on these governance bodies, forms for nominations, and a copy of this flyer at diocesemo.org/convention2016

Book Club Starting at the End of September

Why not join Emmanuel's Women's Book Club on Monday, September 26, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. at church to discuss and vote on which books will be read this fall and winter? Nancy Williams is the hostess, and Lyn Anthony is the leader this year. Lyn asks that you bring ideas of books you think would be good to discuss along with the author's name and a brief synopsis of the book. If you can't make it on the 26th, feel free to email Lyn or see her at church to give her your ideas. The group will meet on the last Monday of each month from 7 to 8:30 p.m.

OurWRHM Update

Thanks to the generosity of so many in our community, construction is well underway on the expansion to Webster-Rock Hill Ministries. (You can see more of our progress at <http://www.ourwrhm.org>). In just a few months, the food pantry will be larger and more easily accessible. The youth programs including tutoring and summer camp will be conducted on-site in the new multi-purpose room, which will also allow for greater community outreach. The radio station (KWRH-LP 92.9) will begin broadcasting about the programs of the Ministries and of general interest in our community. It is an exciting time that is attributable to your leadership and support.

In order to get to the finish line, we need your help. There are several opportunities for volunteers beginning in late August through the first weekend of October as we make a few improvements to the existing building and move things into the new addition. Follow the link to our group page on Signup.com to volunteer here (<http://signup.com/go/LzmFvJ>). There are a variety of jobs for a variety of talents.

Finally, we hope you will join us in October for an Open House to tour the new and improved facility.

Chair of our Finance Committee, Mark Jordan is a Rowing Referee! Who knew that rowing is part of the DNA of Mark’s family? Mark’s wife, Kiki, tells us that Mark rowed in college and kids Peter and Margaret rowed throughout high school with the St. Louis Rowing Club. Both kids are grown and married and now Mark and Kiki are constantly heading out most weekends to parts unknown for regattas on lakes, rivers, canals, etc. in states all over the Midwest. Once the kids went to college Mark started the referee process and has been doing it for many years. Peter has also joined him as a referee and Margaret won’t be far behind. Somehow you can take the rower out of the boat, but you can’t get rowing out of their blood! ☺ DNA evidence....Mark’s grandfather, William Jordan. won a GOLD medal in rowing at the 1920 Olympics in Antwerp, Belgium in the men’s 8. His Olympic oar is hanging in the current Jordan’s home. The book The Wonder Crew by Susan St. Sing tells the story of the crew and their Olympic win!

Have you seen this and wondered what it is?

“The loose offering this morning is designated for the Clergy Discretionary Fund for disbursement to those in need. Please give generously.”

The clergy discretionary fund is designated to the clergy to use at their discretion. It allows us the freedom to use our own discretion to decide how best to help people who come to us with financial needs. Parishioners and non-parishioners, individuals, and organizations that we believe are in need of financial assistance and often spiritual and emotional assistance too can be helped. We never just hand someone $20 and say, “See ya later.” Instead, we take time to get to know each person’s personal situation and look for resources and programs that can help alleviate the need for assistance in the future.

If you or someone you know needs financial assistance, please let them know that the clergy at Emmanuel Church welcome a conversation with them and will help find the resources to get them to a better place. With your help we can continue to meet these needs in our parish family and beyond. So, please, give generously to the loose offering on the first Sunday of each month. This is not a hand-out, but rather a hand to hold.

The Rev. Melanie Slane
