Thoughts from Chris Slane...

Lent is a really crazy time to begin at a parish. These past six weeks have felt at times like a complete whirlwind roller coaster ride; fun, exhilarating, and a little bit harrowing. I count it a blessing that I have been associated with Emmanuel for the past few years through Melanie, and feel even more blessed to be able to serve here as a full member of the staff. I am looking forward to our ministry together, and what we all might accomplish together.

I'd like to use this space in the Angelus this month to say thank you. On Palm Sunday, I preached about being in denial. The Disciples were in denial about what would happen to Jesus, and they – along with many other would-be followers of Jesus – were in denial about what it would cost them to follow Jesus as Messiah and Lord.

I suggested that we ourselves are also in denial all the time, not just about Jesus, but about so many things that we do, or that happen to us. Principally, our being in denial makes us unwilling to be vulnerable enough to face our toughest issues. Facing these issues requires vulnerability, when everything inside of us is telling us to stay safe behind our protective walls.

The pressure to be "ok" all the time in our context can be a very heavy load to carry; a denial of the fullness of our humanity, and a load which Jesus hasn't asked us to carry. I claimed, on Palm Sunday, that our denial causes us to want Easter without Good Friday, to want all the happiness and joy without the reality of hardship and suffering. And so, I encouraged our community to live into Holy Week, and to walk through the Valley of the Shadow of Death and to fear no evil.

I want to thank you, Emmanuel.

Few times have I witnessed a more concerted effort by a community to fully engage in the wholeness of Holy Week. Beginning with dinner on Maundy Thursday, to the astounding number of people who took the vulnerable step of allowing someone to wash their feet, to the dedication of sitting with Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane, to those who came to witness the Passion on Good Friday, to the sparking of the first embers of resurrection light and the baptism of new members of Christ's body on Saturday night.

You showed up, Emmanuel! And I pray that entering fully into our calling as Holy Week people blessed you as much as witnessing your devotion and commitment blessed me.

Finally, I would be remiss if I didn't say a special thank you to everyone who participated liturgically to make our worship services so meaningful. There are too many folks to name individually, but please know that your clergy appreciate and give thanks to God for your ministries. A special thank you also to our staff for their Herculean efforts they made in preparation for Holy Week. And, I'd like to say a final thank you to our Altar Guild, the watchers at Christ's Tomb, who not only made everything run smoothly throughout the week, but also made our worship spaces beautiful and holy.

Christ is Alive, and comes to bring Good News to this and every age, till earth and sky and ocean ring with Joy, with Justice, Love and Praise. - Hymnal #182

Happy Eastertide

In Peace,
Fr. Chris

May is Hunger Awareness Month

The Diocese of Missouri Task Force for the Hungry has designated May as "Hunger Awareness Month." Donations to the Task Force support many food and hunger ministries in our diocese, and are involved in the movement to increase awareness of hunger in the United States. The Task Force's work is to support the various diocesan groups by providing money that helps keep them viable. Please consider donating to this very important ministry. Checks should be made out to Emmanuel Food Center and note "Task Force Hungry" on the memo line.

May Food Center Ingathering

For the month of May the food center is asking for contributions of Cereal to maintain our shelf stock. Please consider a donation to assist those of our community in need. Just drop them in the food basket as you enter the front doors in the narthex Sunday morning or place them in the food basket outside the Food Center on the pew under the parish bulletin board.

Many thanks to the following individuals for their generous gifts to the Food Center in April.

Jodie Allen	Fran & Roger Koch
Dorothea Bean	Mary Jane Kuhn
Mary DeBenedetti	Charlotte Martin
Peter Donisonci	Anne Munroe
Gretta Fischer	Mary-Margaret Richardson
Nancy Grow	JoAnne Warren

EMMANUEL'S BOLD IN MISSION BLITZ DAY RECAP!

It Takes a Village to Serve a Village!!

What a great weekend! A big thank you goes to all who participated in the Mission Blitz! And a special thank you goes to those who organized and who led teams.

Mission blitz coordinators: Margaret DeYoung, Lissa Johnson, Mary Ann Lemonds, Pam Belloli, Phyllis Newcomb, and BethAnn Reichmann

Mission Team leaders: Mark DeYoung, Ann Marie Ruhlin, Peggy Schroeder, Peg Cooper, Bob Shillito, Melanie Slane, Kevin William, Marie Holt, Barb Buck, Janet Dobbs, Betsy and Ed Lindner, Jeannie Keyes, and Jessica Schunke

To Clark Hotaling for getting t-shirts made, Mary Ann Lemonds for making mission buttons and organizing the Sunday reception, Marie Holt for making her special baked beans for Saturday lunch, and Mary Jane and Rick Kuhn for contributions to Saturday lunch!

Apologies if we missed anyone!

This was a special day but in fact the work goes on week after week. If you find yourself called to serve, please contact Mimi Shipp at 314-961-2393, and she will put you in touch with one our Emmanuel ministry leaders.

Ready to serenade. At the Science March. Painting the bell tower. Busy knitters. Forai in Forest Park. Sr. High shopping.

Some Pictures From Emmanuel's Bold in Mission Day

Ingathering for St. Stephen's food pantry. Birthday party at Gateway 180. Pulling weeds at Webster Rock Hill Ministries. Doing dishes at Emmanuel. Miss Carol's Breakfast volunteers.

I didn't think it would be like that.

I'm not exactly a stranger to 'service'.

I know what it's like to serve on the reservation, in soup kitchens, on my job working with children in foster care; I'm not a stranger to being called to serve 'the least among us.'

I'm also blessed to be in a faith community where the impulse to serve is a shared value and bedrock of our understanding of who we are and who God is.

During Emmanuel's Blitz Day, I signed up to work at the Cathedral; putting out eggs, bananas, coffee and donated pastries and bagels for the homeless. Frankly, I figured the biggest sacrifice would be getting up early on a rainy Saturday morning when every inclination was to sink back into my pillow top mattress and sleep in until 8 a.m.

But I didn't and, despite the early hour, there was an abundance of riches that day - from good friends to drive with and work beside to a full supply of baked goods from a local business.

As folks came in out of the dank, grey, cold morning, they helped themselves to coffee and made their way to the pastry table where I was stationed. Most were familiar enough with the 'rules' of getting one item - and then coming back after everyone was served if there was enough for seconds. Their choices were deliberately made, with the frequently expressed hope that they could come back for another selection.

I noticed that the cookies were the first things to be chosen - M&M's, oatmeal raisin, chocolate chip, and chocolate peanut butter and decorated shortbread - all were pointed to and eagerly received.

One young man came up, pointed to an oatmeal cookie and, as we made eye contact during the exchange, said "These remind me of home, when someone used to care about me."

My heart broke open in that moment and my eyes filled with tears. I wish I could say I was quick enough to have responded with "We care about you. God cares about you." But I didn't.

My mind and heart were too filled with the blinding realization that not only was every one of us in that room literally a child of God, but that a small child dwelled in each of us, longing to be cared about, desperate to feel loved and accepted as we make our way through what can be a hard and lonely life - until we finally make our way home again.

I didn't say the right thing Saturday morning; I was too busy feeling. I'll have to keep going, trying and serving until I get it right.

His words have echoed in my heart ever since he spoke them.

I didn't think it would be like that.

What Are Scholar Singers?

We enjoy a great relationship with Webster University and jointly embarked on a Scholar Singer program four years ago. Webster music students are part of our choir and have become part of our worship community as well. This year Kait Turner, soprano, and Emmy Barbour, alto, will graduate at the end of this semester. These Scholar Singers add richness and youth to our worship experience, and we will miss them! Emmy is planning a Fund Raising Recital at Emmanuel on May 20 at 7, and Kait will hold a recital on May 23 at 7. You are cordially invited to attend.

How to Make Seven Weeks Last a Lifetime!

That's what Webster-Rock Hill Ministries Summer Camp provides! The chance to learn and play. The chance to build friendships and confidence. The chance to explore through STEM projects field trips and the arts. Camp runs for seven week from June 12 through July 28.

For the past 22 years, the camp has provided area children with a fun, safe day camp experience, right in their neighborhood. And never, in 22 years, has a child been turned away for financial reasons.

Backed by generous support of the community and staffed by volunteers and neighborhood teen counselors, the day camp runs for seven weeks. Every day campers are provided with a healthy breakfast and lunch to fuel their fun and learning.

WRHM Summer Camp relies on the generosity of individuals for funding—to make sure that every child has the opportunity to attend, even if his or her family can't afford it.

Your contribution of $535 will cover the camp director's salary for a week.

Your contribution of $210 will sponsor a camper for the seven week session.

Your contribution of $100 will provide supplies for a science or art project.

Your contribution in any amount will assist WRHM in continuing this fun, learning, exploring and safe environment for children in their neighborhood.

Thanks to all,
Ed Johnson
Executive Director

Meet Oliver Bates!

Our Sunday Sexton, Deborah Primm, recently resigned to take a full-time position. Her replacement, Oliver Bates, started as our new Sunday Sexton Easter Sunday, April 16, 2017. Oliver lives in Kirkwood and grew up in Meacham Park. He is the father of four grown children. Oliver is also an ordained minister and loves people, God and most of all helping people. Oliver is also a huge Cardinals fan! Please introduce yourself to Oliver when you see him.

UPCOMING BAPTISMAL DATES

Below are the scheduled dates for Baptism. If you are a new parent or new to Emmanuel and wish to have your child baptized, at least one parent must attend a preparation session with clergy before a child may be baptized at Emmanuel. Please call the church office at 314-961-2393 to schedule a meeting with one of the clergy.

If you are pregnant or still deciding about baptizing your child here, please come. This is a wonderful opportunity to learn more about baptism.

ABOUT THE PARISH

Congratulations to Kara and Mark Labeledz on the March 15, 2017 arrival of George Lawrence Labeledz.

Congratulations to Thomas Hotaling for receiving the 2017 Missouri Award for Outstanding Achievement in Citizenship. This award is presented to only fifteen high school seniors in the State of Missouri. Dr. Jon Clark, Principal of WGHS, will be joining Thomas and his family in this special celebration in Jefferson City on April 17th. Thomas and his family know this honor is not his alone. They recognize the important role Emmanuel plays in providing opportunities to serve and, that in part, this recognition and honor belongs to Emmanuel's Senior High Youth Group Program. Thomas will be attending Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland in the fall. Congratulations to Sophia Wilson, daughter of Molly and Matt Wilson being the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Essay Contest Winner from Hixson Middle School.

Congratulations to Tim and Greta Pitcher on the April 15, 2017 baptism of Collin Harold Pitcher.

Congratulations to Jennifer and Nathan Thornton on the April 15, 2017 baptism of Lumen Olivia Thornton. And congrats to big sister, Annalee and grandmother, Linda Schuchmann.
